

United Nations Confrontation : Abbas vs. Obama : Part 1

Copyright 1994 - 2011 Endtime Prophecy Net

Published On : September 21, 2011

Last Updated : September 21, 2011

Mahmoud Abbas' Decision To Approach The UN Security Council, Strong Resistance From America And Israel, Barack Obama's Big Mistake, Is Israel Really America's Ally Or Is America Really Israel's Biggest Fool?, Israel Is Only For Israel, Gentile Puppets In Hands Of The Jews, American Fixation With Israel, "Chosen People" Or Children Of Hell?, Jews Lost The Kingdom When They Rejected Christ, Children Of The Kingdom, Grafted Into The Same Tree, All One In Christ Jesus, One Fold And One Shepherd, We Are God's Holy Nation, Israel Is A Jewish State And Not A Christian Nation, Modern Judaism Has Roots In Pharisaism, Antichrist Israel Slew Her Own Prophets And Her Messiah, Patriarch Abraham Was Babylonian From Ur, In Thee Shall All Families Of The Earth Be Blessed, Jesus Is The Physical And Spiritual Descendant Of Abraham Through The Tribe Of Judah, Jesus Is The Lion Of The Tribe Of Judah, Unbelieving Jews Are Not True Children Of Abraham, What Are The Works Of Abraham?, Faith In Action And Faith To Believe

As you may already know, despite extreme pressure from the governments of the United States of America and Israel to desist, as well as advice from other world governments to approach the United Nations General Assembly instead, the Palestinian President, Mahmoud Abbas, announced on Palestine TV that very shortly, he will approach the United Nations Security Council, and request global recognition for a Palestinian State. Abbas noted that nothing short of full membership in the United Nations will do. "We need a state, a seat at the United Nations," he said. In other words, the spirit of his words seems to be that asking for anything less is a weak compromise of true Palestinian aspirations.

While fellow Palestinian officials in the West Bank gave Abbas a standing ovation due to his bold decision to go directly to the United Nations Security Council, come what may, in contrast, threats of annexation came from Israel, and powerful Republican lawmakers in the USA threatened to withdraw financial aid to the Palestinian Authority. Should we have expected anything less from the Jews, or from the Jewish lobbyists' tools in Washington, DC? And, of course, for months now, American and Israeli naysayers and prophets of gloom and doom have been warning us of all of the dark, terrible things which will happen if the Palestinians do acquire statehood, or especially if they don't.

While my position will no doubt raise the ire of some of my fellow Christian brethren in the United States, I have to salute Mahmoud Abbas for his bravery and his tenacity. He is a very smart man. Aside from the fact that the Jews and the Americans have manipulated the Palestinians for far too long, and have denied them a homeland for almost two decades now, I think that it is great that someone finally has the guts to get in America's face. I am glad that Abbas is putting Barack Obama on the spot, and making him choose sides once and for all. We will find out within twenty-four hours whether or not President Barack Obama has simply been bluffing, just hoping that the Palestinians wouldn't call his bluff, or if he truly intends to make what may possibly be the biggest mistake of his political career. In my view, it will indeed be a very huge mistake if he does in fact veto the Palestinian request for full membership in the United Nations.

Think about it. We constantly hear all of this rhetoric regarding how Israel is America's friend and ally, as well as a strategic partner in the Middle East. Yet, at the same time, if you have been around for a while, as I have, and have watched how the Israeli leadership has treated the United States over the decades, then you cannot help but question where Israel's heart really lies. The fact of the matter is that the Israeli leadership has defied, betrayed and humiliated America's leadership, as well as made fools out of other American emissaries and diplomats, time and time again. In more recent times, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has to be the worst of the bunch.

If you haven't realized it yet, learn this lesson now: Israel is only for Israel. Period. As I explain in such series as "The International Jew and the Protocols of Zion", non-Jews, or Gentiles, are merely puppets in the hands of the Jews. The Jews will manipulate us, and use us, as much as they possibly can for their own gain, if we let them. They've been doing it for many decades now, as any well-informed individual already realizes.

In my view, there is something unnatural and unhealthy about America's fixation with Israel. So many misguided American Christians appear to be drunk on Israel. It is as if they have been bewitched by her. They act as if Israel can do no wrong because, after all, the Jews are still God's "Chosen People"; at least so say many American Christians who have been mesmerized by her. How can they ignore so many verses in the New Testament where Jesus Himself and the Apostles referred to the unbelieving Jews as the children of Hell, antichrists and the synagogue of Satan? Why do they refuse to recognize that the Jews lost the Kingdom when they chose to reject their Messiah, and then proceeded to murder Him through mob rule, and by pressuring Pontius Pilate? Jesus Himself made this truth very plain in the Gospel of Matthew when He said the following:

"And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom [the Jews] shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
Matthew 8:11-12, KJV

"Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them."

Matthew 21:42-45, KJV

Please understand that when Jesus says "the children of the kingdom", He means those Jews who erroneously think that they are the children of the Kingdom, and not those people who truly are; that is, people such as you and I, who are Believers in Jesus Christ. That is why Jesus also says "The kingdom of God shall be taken from you"; because it was in fact taken from the Jews who rejected Christ, and given to the believing Jews and Gentiles. In God's Divine Foresight, these two -- believing Jews and believing Gentiles -- have been grafted into the same tree, so that there is now just one fold and one Shepherd, exactly as Jesus said there would be. This is the nation that Jesus is referring to in the previous verses. It is a holy nation which consists of both believing Jews and believing Gentiles. Please consider the following additional verses:

"And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you."

Luke 17:20-21, KJV

"But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:"

1 Peter 2:9, KJV

"For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office: If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them. For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches. And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee."

Romans 11:13-21, KJV

"There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus."

Galatians 3:28, KJV

"And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd."

John 10:16, KJV

Please note that in the previous verse the Apostle Peter is not addressing the unbelieving Jews. In describing them as a "chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people", Peter is in fact addressing his fellow Christian brethren, which consists of both believing Jews and Gentiles. While many early Christians were flesh Jews, as was Jesus Himself, we also know that once Peter's world vision was expanded in Acts chapter ten, and Paul began to preach widely to the Gentile -- or non-Jewish -- nations, there was a huge influx of other nationalities into the Early Church. As we saw a moment ago, believing Jews and Gentiles were grafted into the same tree, and became God's new nation of born-again believers in Jesus Christ.

Allow me to share another important point with you regarding the previous verses. Please notice that in his Epistle to the Galatians, the Apostle Paul writes "for ye are all one in Christ Jesus". The key phrase here is "in Christ Jesus. In other words, Paul is not saying that we are one with the antichrist, unbelieving Jews of Israel. He is clearly saying that we are one only with those Jews -- and Gentiles -- who are in Christ Jesus; that is, with those individuals who have embraced Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. So once again we see how modern Christians who are totally infatuated with antichrist Israel, are in fact acting contrary to the Bible. We are not one with, and there is no spiritual unity between, the Christ-hating Jews and Bible-believing Christians. Jews who reject Christ, who curse with His Name, and who spit at the mention of His Name, are not our friends.

Some of you Israel-supporting Christians need to wake up and realize that Israel is not a Christian nation. In fact, it is very antagonistic towards anyone who attempts to preach the Christian Gospel there. Yes, it is true that there are some Messianic Jews in Israel who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior; and while they are a minority, nevertheless, we should be thankful for those who have acknowledged Christ in their lives. However, at the same time, the Israelis have publicly stated many times that they have every intention of preserving the nation of Israel as a Jewish state. Exactly what is a Jewish state? Quite simply, a Jewish state is one in which Judaism is the official religion. What is Judaism?

Without delving into a long detailed discussion concerning the Halachic laws, traditions and beliefs which govern Judaism, the main point that I wish for you to consider is that Judaism, as practiced in Israel today, is simply a modern version of ancient Pharisaism. What is pharisaism? It was the legalistic religion of the Pharisees, who were a religious sect who rose to power in Israel prior to the time of Jesus Christ. If you are a Bible-believing Christian who is familiar with the writings of the New Testament, then you will know that many of the ancient Pharisees rejected the Divinity and the Messiahship of Jesus Christ -- and had a hand in His Death -- just as most Jews continue to reject Jesus today as well. Judaism is simply another antichrist religion, just like so many other false religions in the world today.

In short, while Israel is just as antichrist as much of the rest of the world, many of you American Christians seem to dismiss this point, and continue to blindly support her, despite her ungodly nature, her blatant defiance of God's Son, her military, social and economic oppression of the Palestinians, and her decades-long illegal occupation of their land. In fact, as I mention in a few other articles, personally, I view the Jews as being even more antichrist than other non-Christian people, because they were the first ones to be given the Law and the Prophets, the Messiah and God's Plan of Salvation. And what did they do with these precious gifts from the Lord? Most of them rejected it all, and even slew their own Prophets, as we see by the following verses:

"Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers. Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee. But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth."
Jeremiah 7:25-28, KJV

"Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD."
Jeremiah 29:19, KJV

"I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me."
Jeremiah 35:15, KJV

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city: That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."

Matthew 23:29-39, KJV

"And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy."
Revelation 16:5-6, KJV

"Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth."
Revelation 18:20-24, KJV

I suspect that due to my personal lack of strong support for the nation of Israel, some diehard supporters of Israel are probably going to respond by mentioning the following verse which is often quoted within pro-Israel circles:

"And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed."
Genesis 12:3, KJV

Many people automatically -- and erroneously -- assume that this verse is speaking about the Jews. If this is also your assumption, then it may surprise you to know that it most certainly isn't. In fact, the progenitor of the Jews -- that is, Jacob's son Judah, who was obviously the leader of the tribe of Judah from whom the Jews arose -- wouldn't be born until many years after this statement was made. The truth of the matter is that in that verse, God is speaking personally to the Patriarch Abraham -- who was then known as Abram -- who was actually a Babylonian from the city of Ur in the land of the Chaldees, or Chaldeans. Today, this area of the world forms the southernmost portion of Iraq, and possibly even Kuwait. Consider these verses:

"And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees. And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah. But Sarai was barren; she had no child. And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there."

Genesis 11:28-31, KJV

"And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it."

Genesis 15:7, KJV

"Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham;"

Nehemiah 9:7, KJV

So God was making a personal promise to Abraham. It had nothing to do with the Jews, because they didn't even exist yet. What does the Lord mean when He says "and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed"? The answer becomes rather clear when we study the genealogy of Jesus Christ in the New Testament. You see, the families of the Earth have indeed been blessed through Abraham, because Abraham's son -- Isaac -- was the seed of faith who was miraculously born in Abraham and Sarah's old age. As you may know, from Isaac was born Jacob -- or Israel -- who in turn fathered a son named Judah. Leaping forward in time, we discover that not only is Jesus referred to as the son of David, but He is also called the son and seed of Abraham as well. The word "son" simply signifies that Jesus was descended from them. Furthermore, Jesus was in fact descended from the tribe of Judah, which is why He is called "the Lion of the tribe of Juda" in the Book of Revelation, as we see by the following verses:

"The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren . . . So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations."
Matthew 1:1-2, 17, KJV

"For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham."
Hebrews 2:16, KJV

"Judah is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?"
Genesis 49:9, KJV

"And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever."

Revelation 5:1-14, KJV

As Jesus and the Apostle Paul both clearly taught, the unbelieving Jews are not the true children of Abraham. We Christians are; because like Isaac who was born through an act of faith, we are also spiritually reborn through our faith in the atoning Sacrifice of Jesus Christ. This cannot be said of most of the flesh Jews who reject the Sacrifice of Christ on the Cross. Consider the following verses:

"And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham."
Matthew 3:9, KJV

"I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father. They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham."
John 8:37-39, KJV

"Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed."
Romans 9:6-8, KJV

"Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham . . . That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith . . . And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Galatians 3:7-9, 14, 29, KJV

"Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise."
Galatians 4:28, KJV

What does Jesus mean when He uses the phrase "the works of Abraham"? Exactly what is it that Abraham did, which the unbelieving Jews were not doing two thousand years ago, and most of whom are still not doing today? The New Testament provides us with a very clear answer by reflecting back on the events of the Old Testament.

In a word, Abraham demonstrated faith in God's Word, and he put his faith into action. When God told Abraham to leave his father's family behind and to strike out by faith not knowing whither he went, Abraham obeyed. When God promised Abraham a son in his old age, Abraham had the faith to believe. When God instructed Abraham to take the only son of his bosom, and sacrifice him on Mount Moriah, Abraham did not hesitate, but rather took Isaac to that place, knowing in his heart that God must have some better plan. We are told that because Abraham was willing to do these things, his faith was counted unto him for righteousness. Consider the following verses:

"For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness . . . Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness . . . For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith . . . And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb: He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness."
Romans 4:3, 9, 13, 19-22, KJV

"By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable . . . By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure."

Hebrews 11:8-12, 17-19, KJV

"Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God."

James 2:21-23, KJV

Thus we see that the "works of Abraham" were acts of faith, plain and simple. The "works of Abraham" simply means faith to believe. So, in a word, what Jesus was saying to those unbelieving Jews, is that they did not have the faith to believe that He is their long-awaited Messiah. If you still doubt that this is what Jesus meant, then consider this verse:

"Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

John 6:29, KJV

Please go to part two for the continuation of this series.

Written by the WordWeaver

webmaster@endtimeprophecy.net
<http://www.endtimeprophecy.net>

United Nations Confrontation : Abbas vs. Obama : Part 2

Copyright 1994 - 2011 Endtime Prophecy Net

Published On : September 21, 2011

Last Updated : September 21, 2011

The Seed Of Abraham And The Children Of Abraham Aren't Always Synonymous Terms, We're Dead In Sins Without Faith In Christ, False Jews Are The Children Of Hell And Synagogue Of Satan, Devout Flesh Jews Aren't Necessarily True Jews In The Spirit, Deceived American Christians And Politicians Support Israel, The American Christian Infatuation With All Things Jewish, God's Two Sackcloth Witnesses Are Murdered In Jerusalem, An Earthquake Destroys One Tenth Of Jerusalem And Kills 7,000, 144,000 Saved Remnant Jews Of The Great Tribulation Period, God's Blessings And Protection Are Conditional And Depend On Our Obedience, Unbelieving Jews & Israel Are An Abomination, The Legacy Of Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas, Barack Obama's Moment Of Truth, The AIPAC And Jewish Control Of American Politics Through Popular Vote And Money Machine, Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon On Kol Yisrael Radio, United Nations Resolution 181: Partition Plan For Palestine, David Ben-Gurion Declares State Of Israel On May 14, 1948, British Oppose Partition Plan For Palestine, Remarks By MP Thomas Reid, US President Harry Truman Reveals Pressure To Support 1947 Partition Of Palestine, Quotes From Other US Citizens Exposing Jewish Power In USA, Jews Are In Control

The previous verses are a very profound teaching from the Scriptures, and it is very important that you read them closely in order to fully and properly understand them. As some of you may realize, there is a great deception in the Christian world today due to a gross misunderstanding of verses such as these by Israel-supporting Christians.

What both Jesus and the Apostle Paul are basically saying is this: The phrases "seed of Abraham" and "children of Abraham" do not always mean exactly the same thing. The flesh Jews are indeed the seed of Abraham -- that is to say, the physical descendants of Abraham -- through Abraham's great grandson, Judah. However, they are not the true children of Abraham, because they have for the most part rejected Jesus Christ, and don't have the faith to believe that He is the prophesied Messiah. To reiterate, the key issue here is faith. Similar to the Patriarch Abraham who had the faith to believe God's Word, the true children of Abraham are the children of faith, who demonstrate their faith by believing in Jesus Christ[p.

As Jesus informed the unbelieving Jews, because of their rejection of Him as God's chosen Messiah, not only are they not of the seed of faith, or the true children of Abraham, but unlike us Christians, they likewise remain dead in their sins, and they will not be resurrected unto Eternal Life, as we see by the following verses:

"Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come. Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come. And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins."
John 8:21-24, KJV

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."
Romans 6:23, KJV

"And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness."
Romans 8:10, KJV

"And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;"
Colossians 2:13, KJV

"And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins . . . But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus."
Ephesians 2:1, 4-7, KJV

"Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed."

1 Peter 2:24, KJV

So as you can see, without faith in the atoning Sacrifice of Jesus Christ, we are all -- Jew and Gentile alike -- dead in our sins, with no hope whatsoever of inheriting Eternal Life.

If you continue reading John chapter eight where we left off in part one, you will see that Jesus in fact said that the unbelieving Jews were the children of the devil. In Matthew chapter twenty-three, He also refers to them as the children of hell. In the Book of Revelation -- which is Jesus' final message to humanity in the Bible -- He refers to the Jews as "the synagogue of Satan". Consider the following verses:

"Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it."

John 8:44, KJV

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves."

Matthew 23:15, KJV

"I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan."

Revelation 2:9, KJV

"Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee."

Revelation 3:9, KJV

Please notice that in the previous two verses from the Book of Revelation, Jesus -- through His Angelic Messenger -- says "which say they are Jews, and are not". That sounds very similar to what the Apostle Paul wrote in a previous verse that I shared with you. Paul said:

". . . For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:"

Romans 9:6b, KJV

What does Paul mean by that? If we consider everything else that he wrote, he appears to be saying that not everyone who calls himself a Jew is really a true Jew. Stated another way, exactly as Jesus said in the Gospel of John, they may be the physical seed of Abraham and flesh Jews. They may even be devout religious Jews who avidly follow Judaism and Jewish traditions and practices -- such as circumcision -- but they are still not the true children of Abraham by any means. As I have already clearly explained, this is because they are not the children of faith. That is why Paul also wrote the following in his Epistle to the Romans:

"For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God."

Romans 2:28-29, KJV

In spite of this profound Biblical truth, there are so many deceived Christians -- particularly in the United States of America -- who in direct contradiction to what Jesus Himself said, and what the Apostle Paul taught, blindly promote the belief that the Jews of Israel continue to be the children of Abraham and the so-called "Chosen People". They are so spiritually drunk on this lie and deception, that they have become totally engrossed in all things Jewish.

For example, they insist on referring to Jesus by His Hebrew name Yeshua -- which is an alternative form of "Yehoshuah", or Joshua -- when there is absolutely nothing wrong with referring to our Savior as Jesus, which, as you may know, is the English transliteration of the Greek form of His name, or "Iesus". Their infatuation with Hebrew feast days and customs likewise demonstrates how far some of these people have gone in their endeavors to please the antichrist Jews, as well as to demonstrate their unwavering support for the state of Israel. I have seen so much of this occurring on the web that it annoys and sickens me. This infatuation with Israel has now reached such a degree, that it almost seems as if one is not even considered a patriotic American if he or she doesn't support Israel.

These staunch Israel supporters need to understand that they simply cannot continue to rely upon conditional promises of the Old Testament, in order to justify supporting a nation which is clearly antichrist in nature, and which for the most part will continue to remain antichrist, until Jesus Christ returns. For those of you who continue to embrace the erroneous belief that the Jews will one day change, repent en masse, and embrace Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior, let me give you a reality check.

Earlier in this series, we discussed how the unbelieving Jews not only slew all of the Prophets which God, in His Mercy, chose to send to them, but they even murdered their very own Messiah. Sadly, their cup of iniquity may not yet be full. As you may know, Revelation chapter eleven talks about the Two Sackcloth Witnesses whom God sends to witness in the streets of Jerusalem for a period of three and a half years. We are told that when these two Prophets of God have finished their witness, they are killed by the Beast, and their bodies lie in the street in Jerusalem for a period of three and a half days, because no one even bothers to bury them. Consider these verses:

"And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth. And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them. And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven."

Revelation 11:7-13, KJV

Now, it seems likely that these are two Jewish Prophets, who are witnessing in the streets of Jerusalem. After all, John does say "where also our Lord was crucified". If you are a bit curious as to the actual identity of these two Prophets, please consider reading my four-part series entitled "The Two Sackcloth Witnesses Of Revelation 11". Regardless of who you personally think the Beast is, the point I wish to bring to your attention is this: Two Jewish Prophets are slain in the Jews' most holy city, and yet the Jews do nothing to bury them. If you know anything about Jewish burial customs, then you will recognize that there is something rather odd about this behavior on the part of the Jews.

I have a theory regarding why the Jews of Jerusalem behave in this fashion. We are told that upon learning of the death of the Two Sackcloth Witnesses, the world rejoices. I posit that the Jews may be rejoicing right along with the world, because they don't like the things that the Two Prophets are saying either. In fact, these Two Witnesses may be preaching against the Jews themselves. As proof of this possibility, consider what occurs right after the Two Sackcloth Witnesses are resurrected and return to Heaven. We are told that there is a great earthquake in Jerusalem which results not only in a tenth of the city being destroyed, but in the death of seven thousand people as well. Clearly, this represents a strong judgment of the Lord against the Jews of Jerusalem.

So perhaps the Jews don't kill the Two Sackcloth Witnesses directly themselves, but it seems to me that it is probable that they do rejoice in the same, which brings God's strong judgment upon them once again. Let's not forget that the Jews didn't murder Jesus directly either. They persuaded Pontius Pilate to do their dirty work for them through mob rule as they cried:

". . . His blood be on us, and on our children."
Matthew 27:25b, KJV

Thus, in Revelation chapter eleven we see the hardhearted, unbelieving Jews doing what they have always done when God warns them to repent. That is, they simply kill His Prophets and Messengers. As we saw in part one, Jesus said:

"Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:"

Matthew 23:34, KJV

As I explain in the article "Is God A Racist?", while I do believe that some Jews will come to Christ, even as some are already doing now, it is my personal belief -- based upon my current understanding of the seventh chapter of the Book of Revelation -- that they will be a small remnant of 144,000 souls. In other words, as I explain in "The Woman in the Wilderness and the 144,000", the vast majority of the Jews will remain antichrist until the very end. In fact, as I point out in the six-part series "The Great Tribulation And The Rapture", it is my belief that this is one reason why God allows the Great Tribulation to occur in the first place; that is, to break and humble the stubborn Jews, and to make them receptive to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

As I explain in such series as "The Fruits of Disobedience" and "Palestinian Suicide Bombers and Middle East Peace", it is important that we understand that God's blessings and protection are -- and have always been since the time of the Old Testament era -- conditional. They are not guaranteed, no matter what anyone tries to tell you. They are showered upon God's children in direct proportion to our obedience to Him; and that begins with accepting and believing in the Sacrifice of His dear Son, Jesus Christ. If we don't play by God's Rules, how can we possibly expect Him to bless us?

Please consider the following. As parents, if our children misbehave and are disobedient, do we reward them? Of course not! If anything, we will punish them in some fashion. As a wise Father, God is no different. He cannot, and will not, bless the Jews as long as they are defiant and in rebellion against Him, through their adamant rejection of His Son. So no matter how much they try to convince you that Israel is still the "Holy Land", and that they are still the "Chosen People", don't believe it. I have now shown you directly from the Scriptures exactly what God thinks of the Jews in their current rebellious state. In the words of the Prophet Jeremiah, they, and their nation, are an abomination in God's sight:

"And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination."
Jeremiah 2:7, KJV

While we have deviated substantially from the primary subject matter of this series, I believe that it has been time well spent; the reason being that in understanding the events that are about to occur between the Israelis and the Palestinians, it is very important that we see things, not as the Jews want us to see them; not as the mass media wants us to see them; not as pro-Israel preachers and Bible teachers want us to see them; not as Israel-supporting American politicians want us to see them; but rather, exactly as God describes them for us in His Word.

As I mentioned at the beginning of this series, it is my view that Palestinian Authority president Mahmoud Abbas has made a very smart, brave and shrewd decision by deciding to approach the United Nations Security Council directly. On a personal level, think of the legacy that Mr. Abbas will leave behind. He will have done more, and gone further, than any previous Palestinian leader -- and in a totally peaceful, legitimate manner no less -- to achieve Palestinian aspirations. Even if the United States does veto his request, Mahmoud Abbas will still have accomplished more than Yasser Arafat could have ever done through acts of violence; and that applies to Hamas as well.

As I said, it is a very smart move; because it will show the entire world -- particularly the Arab world, as if they don't already know -- exactly where the United States and President Barack Obama really stand. As one senior Palestinian official stated several days ago, "We ask President Obama to face the moment of truth." Personally, I just don't understand how the American president can in good conscience veto a Palestinian request for United Nations membership, and recognition of Palestinian statehood, after all the preaching that he and his predecessors have done regarding spreading freedom and democracy around the world. Add to this the tacit approval by the American Government of the civil uprisings in Tunisia, Egypt and Syria, as well as the outright military support for the rebels in Libya, and denying the Palestinian request will seem all the more hypocritical.

However, there is another very powerful factor to consider. While I have already explained to you why so many American Christians have been deceived in offering strong support for Israel and the Jews -- deception by their religious leaders, and their personal lack of knowledge of the Scriptures -- it is a different story when it comes to American politicians. While some politicians are also motivated by their personal religious beliefs regarding Israel and the Jews, sadly, that is by no means the only thing that affects their pro-Israel stance.

In part one I very briefly mentioned the power of the Jewish lobbyists in Washington, DC. It is frightening to think how much control the Jews exert over decisions that are made by American politicians in the US capital through such powerful pro-Israel Jewish lobbies as the AIPAC, or American-Israeli Public Affairs Committee. This control is exerted through influencing the popular vote, as well as through the Jewish money machine. One can only speculate how many US politicians have been bought off by the AIPAC. I am reminded of a very controversial remark that was made ten years ago by former Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon. Read the following and be shocked:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Every time we do something you tell me America will do this and will do that . . . I want to tell you something very clear: Don't worry about American pressure on Israel. We, the Jewish people, control America, and the Americans know it."

-- Israeli Prime Minister, Ariel Sharon, October 3, 2001, to Shimon Peres, as reported on Kol Yisrael radio.

----- End Quote -----

While the previous quote may possibly unsettle you, what is even more shocking is the fact that this control of American politics by the AIPAC and other unseen Jewish hands through the popular vote and the Jewish money machine did not begin ten years ago, or even fifty years ago. It began before many of us were even born. At this point in our discussion, we're going to travel back in time to the period when Israel first unilaterally declared its statehood in 1948.

In November of 1947, the United Nations General Assembly adopted Resolution 181 -- also known as the Partition Plan for Palestine -- whereby the land of Palestine would be divided into two independent states -- one Jewish, and one Arab -- by October of 1948. Jerusalem would be designated as an international city which would be administered by the United Nations. However, on May 14, 1948 -- the very day that the British Mandate for Palestine ended -- in order to prevent the UN division from occurring, David Ben-Gurion, who at that time was the Executive Head of the World Zionist Organization, as well as the president of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, unilaterally declared the creation of the State of Israel by publishing a Declaration of Independence.

It should come as no surprise to you that the United States of America, under President Harry Truman, was the very first country to officially recognize the newly-formed State of Israel. In fact, the Americans did it within minutes of the Jews declaring their independence. The United States was followed by the USSR. Just under a year later, on May 11 1949, Israel was accepted as a member of the United Nations by a majority vote.

What you need to know is that the British were opposed to the Partition Plan for Palestine, because they viewed it as being unfair, which it most certainly was. You see, at that time, the Jews were very much the minority in the land of Palestine, comprising only 11% to 33% of the total population, depending on who you want to believe. Legally, they owned even less of the land. However, with the proposed partition of Palestine, they would have actually received 56% of the land, which was not a fair deal by any means. In the British Parliament, the issue was heavily debated. One member of Parliament who was quite vocal regarding his opposition to Resolution 181 was MP Thomas Reid, who was the MP for Swindon. In a speech to the British Parliament he very forthrightly noted the following regarding the partition plan:

----- Begin Quote -----

"It is an iniquitous scheme, and the chief instigator is a country for whom I have the profoundest love and admiration, next after my own, namely America. I do not believe all the tales about America, about the almighty dollar, and the rest. Americans are a very noble people and have more idealism than most nations of the world. But I have a criticism to make of America on this occasion, or at least of the American delegates to U.N.O. What is the motive? Let us be frank about it. One of the chief motives is that the Jews have a controlling voice in the election for the President in the States of New York, Illinois, Ohio and elsewhere in America. I suggest that the chief reason for this evil proposal of U.N.O. is that the political parties in America, or their party machines, are partly at the electoral mercy of the Jews. That is public knowledge."

----- End Quote -----

While the Government of the United States of America may have been the first world power to recognize the recently-declared State of Israel, in his memoirs, American President Harry Truman reveals the extreme pressure that was placed upon him to support the partition of Palestine in 1947. He wrote the following:

----- Begin Quote -----

"The facts were that not only were there pressure movements around the United Nations unlike anything that had been seen there before, but the White House too was subjected to a constant barrage. I do not think I ever had as much pressure and propaganda aimed at the White House as I had in this instance. The persistence of a few of the extreme Zionist leaders -- actuated by political motives and engaging in political threats -- disturbed and annoyed me. Some were even suggesting that we pressure sovereign nations into favourable votes in the General Assembly. I have never approved of the strong imposing their will on the weak whether among men or nations."

----- End Quote -----

Of course, that pressure was instigated by the Jews; and the obvious reason why the Zionist Jews were pressuring the US Government to support United Nations Resolution 181 -- that is, the Partition Plan For Palestine -- is because being the minority in Palestine at that time, they realized that they were being offered a much larger piece of the pie than they actually deserved. However, Truman was by no means the first American president to ever feel the pressure from the long arm of the Jews. Following are a few more select quotes from high profile American citizens:

----- Begin Quotes -----

"I know I was elected by the votes of American Jews. I owe them my victory. Tell me, is there something I ought to do?"

-- American President John F. Kennedy speaking privately to Ben-Gurion, page 90, A & L Cockburn 1991.

"I've never seen a president -- I don't care who he is -- stand up to them [the Israelis]. It just boggles your mind. They always get what they want. The Israelis know what's going on all the time. I got to the point where I wasn't writing anything down. If the American people understood what grip those people have on our government, they would rise up in arms. Our citizens don't have any idea what goes on."

-- Admiral Thomas Moorer of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Washington Report December, 1999, page 124, quoting from Andrew Hurley's book "One Nation Under Israel".

"The little Knesset"

-- Secretary of State James Baker describing pro-Israel Congressmen, quoted on the Zionist Organization of America website, which in turn quotes the Los Angeles Times, March 7, 1992.

"The Capitol Hill is an Israeli occupied territory".

-- Patrick Buchanan, St. Louis Dispatch, October 20, 1990.

"The Israeli Prime Minister has a lot more influence over the foreign policy of the United States in the Middle East than he has in his own country."

-- Former Illinois Congressman Paul Findley, in his book "They Dare to Speak Out", page 92.

"The Israelis control the policy in the Congress and the Senate . . . somewhere around 80 percent of the Senate of the United States is completely in support of Israel -- of anything Israel wants."

-- Senator William Fullbright, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Oct. 7, 1973, on CBS' "Face the Nation".

"I am aware how almost impossible it is in this country to carry out a foreign policy [in the Middle East] not approved by the Jews. Former Secretary of State George Marshall and former Defense Secretary James Forrestrall learned that . . . terrific control the Jews have over the news media and the barrage the Jews have built up on congressmen . . . I am very much concerned over the fact that the Jewish influence here is completely dominating the scene and making it almost impossible to get congress to do anything they don't approve of. The Israeli embassy is practically dictating to the congress through influential Jewish people in the country"

-- Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, February, 1957, quoted on page 99 of "Fallen Pillars" by Donald Neff.

"We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated Governments in the world - no longer a Government of free opinion, no longer a Government by conviction and vote of the majority, but a Government by the opinion and duress of small groups of dominant men."

-- Woodrow Wilson, American President during World War I.

----- End Quotes -----

If you are interested in reading other eye-opening quotes from individuals who have become aware of the stranglehold that the crafty, manipulative Jews have on politics in the United States, and much more, please consider visiting the following page on the Endtime Prophecy Net website. You will soon discover that relegating this controversial subject to conspiracy theory circles and questionable fringe groups is a major mistake that's being committed by many naive American citizens who have been deceived into believing that the Jews are their friends. The tragic truth is that the Jews are in full control of America, and have been for a very long time, whether we like it or not:

<http://www.endtimeprophecy.net/Articles-Non-EPN/jewpower.html>

Please go to part three for the conclusion of this series.

Written by the WordWeaver

webmaster@endtimeprophecy.net
<http://www.endtimeprophecy.net>

United Nations Confrontation : Abbas vs. Obama : Part 3

Copyright 1994 - 2011 Endtime Prophecy Net

Published On : September 21, 2011

Last Updated : September 21, 2011

Arabs Reject United Nations Resolution 181 And Partition Of Palestine, 1948 Arab-Israeli War Was A Mistake By The Arabs, Yasser Arafat Walks Away From 2000 Camp David Summit, Right Of Return, A Case Of Ethnic Cleansing By The Zionist Jews?, Mayer Amschel Rothschild And The Rothschild Financial Empire, UN Resolution 181 Was European Plan To Rid Europe Of Jews By Creating Homeland For The Jews In Palestine, The Jews Were A Minority In 1948 Palestine, Ancient Jewish Diasporas, Jewish Gene Pool Becomes Corrupted, How Many Jews Today Are Really Biological Jews?, Other Wars And Conflicts Between Arabs And Jews, Obama's And Israel's Hypocrisy In Insisting That The Palestinians Renew Negotiations With Hawkish PM Netanyahu, Israeli Violence And Oppression Against Palestinians Has Far Exceeded Palestinians Violence Against Israelis, Guilt And Blame On Both Sides Of The Fence, The American Revolution, Propaganda Machines Decide Who Is A Terrorist And Who Is A Freedom Fighter, Understanding The Palestinians' Position, Obama Administration's Military Support Of Libyan Rebels, A Clear American Double Standard, Obama's Moment Of Truth, Additional Articles Related To The Middle East Conflict

Obviously, the Arab nations rejected the proposed division of Palestine into two states as mandated by Resolution 181, holding to the position that all of Palestine belonged to the Arabs. Let me remind you again that at that time, and by God's Design, the Jews were in fact the minority in what had formerly been their nation during Old Testament times. From this perspective, the Arab Palestinians had some legitimate claims. As a result, immediately following the Zionist Jews' unilateral declaration of independence on May 14, 1948, the Arabs declared war on the newly-formed State of Israel; and the very next day, the armies of Egypt, Syria, Lebanon and Iraq attacked the fledgling nation of Israel. Thus began the 1948 Arab-Israeli War. As a result of a ceasefire which was declared a year later, the Green Line was established.

As I have explained to my readers before, in my view, the 1948 Arab-Israeli War was a major mistake on the part of the Arabs; because what the Palestinians are trying to achieve right now via the United Nations, they could have had over sixty years ago. In fact, if you look at the 1948 United Nations partition map, you will quickly determine that the Palestinians could have retained even more back then. Not only that, but in the year 2000, Palestinian Liberation Organization chairman Yasser Arafat walked away from the Camp David Summit, in which Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak offered the Palestinians just about everything that they wanted. As a result, the Israeli-Palestinian conflict has continued needlessly for an additional eleven years.

Another interesting point is this: According to the United Nations, as a result of the 1948 Arab-Israeli War, more than 700,000 Palestinians were either expelled by the Jews, or else were forced to flee the area that became the State of Israel. It is upon this by-product of the Arab-Israeli War that the Palestinians now base their claim of the "Right of Return". As you may already know, the Israelis are adamant in stating that they will never honor the Right of Return. Along with establishing permanent borders, and the future of Jerusalem, the Right of Return is one of the major obstacles for achieving a lasting peace between the two feuding parties.

If we can be honest with ourselves, what really occurred back in 1948 and thereafter was a type of ethnic cleansing. As I have explained before, the Europeans wanted the Jews out of Europe; because as they always seem to do, the Jews wanted to be in control through the power of the purse. In fact, by that time, the Jews -- in particular, the German Jews -- were already in financial control of most of the European continent. If you are not aware of these historic events, then I encourage you to undertake a study of the secretive Rothschild family, beginning with Mayer Amschel Rothschild and his five sons. You will discover that after having extended their financial power throughout Europe, these extremely wealthy German Jews advanced to other parts of the world, including to the United States of America, which today remains one of their financial strongholds.

As I said, one of the motivating factors which contributed to the United Nations Partition Plan For Palestine in 1947, was the spreading financial power and pervasive influence of the descendants of Mayer Amschel Rothschild, as well as that of other powerful Jewish families in Europe. In other words, there was a desire on the part of some to contain the Jews in their own homeland. In all fairness, it should be mentioned here that some of the Rothschilds have been fervent Zionists who have supported and financed Israel while others have not. In fact, some Rothschilds have preferred to remain at arm's length from politicians, even from their Israeli countrymen.

It has been assumed that the Europeans were also motivated at least in part by a sense of guilt stemming from the vile atrocities which had been committed by Germany's notorious chancellor, Adolf Hitler. However, in order for the United Nations plan to actually work, the Arab Palestinians had to be willing to surrender over half of their land. As we have seen, the Arabs rejected the forced division of their land via United Nations Resolution 181, and chose to go to war instead. With the Arab defeat in the 1948 Arab-Israeli War, the forced expulsion of the Palestinians from the State of Israel only grew worse, and their plight has continued to this day, along with their anger and frustration against, and their oppression by, the Zionist Jews of Israel.

As I mentioned earlier, at the time that the State of Israel was unilaterally created by the Zionist Jews, the Jews only comprised about thirty-three per cent of the population of Palestine, and possibly even less. It all depends on who you choose to believe. The remainder were of Arab descent. In fact, online sources state that only a few decades prior to that time, the Jewish population of Palestine hovered around eleven per cent. So the Jewish propaganda which claims that Palestine has always been primarily occupied by Jews is an absolute lie, and has simply been used as a tool to try to legitimize the Zionist Jews' creation of a state in 1948 Palestine.

If you read some of my other articles, such as "The Fruits Of Disobedience", you will learn that between a variety of foreign invasions, occupations and expulsions -- referred to as the diasporas -- the vast majority of Jews were forced to live outside of the physical land of Israel for quite a few centuries during the course of their history. It happened with the Egyptians, the Assyrians, the Babylonians and the Romans. These became known as the Lost Tribes of Israel. The Bible informs us that this was in fact by the Lord's Design, and that in most cases it was the Israelites' punishment for rejecting God's Laws, God's Prophets, and in the case of the Roman incursions, their very own Messiah.

Furthermore, due to these invasions, occupations, expulsions and the intermarriages which occurred, the Jewish gene pool became heavily corrupted. As I have mentioned before, this is in fact one of the reasons why the Jews of Benjamin and Judah despised the Jews of Samaria, and viewed them as half-breeds, even though the gene pool of the Jews of Judah also became polluted as a result of the Babylonian Captivity, as well as the Roman occupation. This is why we find the following verse in the Gospel of John:

"Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans."
John 4:9, KJV

As a result of this genetic corruption, I must really wonder how many Israelis today are actual Jews in the truest sense of the word. They may be Jewish by religion, but how many of them are really fully Jewish in a biological sense? In other words, how many of them are actually of the tribe of Judah? While I honestly don't know if this point is true or not, I have read online that many of the Jews who have returned to Israel from Europe, Russia, the USA and other areas of the world, are not Jews at all, but are in fact usurpers who are pretending to be Jews. Given the verses that we studied in part two of this series regarding those who claim to be of Jewish origin, is it possible that there is some truth to this belief?

As you may know, from the time of the 1948 Arab-Israeli War until now, there have been other conflicts between the Arabs and the Jews; including the 1967 Six-Day War, as well as the October 6, 1973 war, which is commonly referred to as the Yom Kippur War. In addition to these two wars, there have also been the First Lebanon War, the Second Lebanon War, the First Intifada, the Second Intifada and the three-week Gaza War. Then, of course, there are the Palestinian suicide bomber attacks, Israeli military incursions into the West Bank and the Gaza Strip, etc. In short, because of the Arabs' rejection of United Nations Resolution 181 in 1948, there have been over sixty years of unnecessary war and conflict. In short, there is plenty of blame to be cast on both sides of the fence.

So tell me; hasn't there been enough violence and oppression now? Isn't it time to bring this millennia-old conflict to its conclusion? If the Zionist Jews were able to unilaterally declare their state in 1948, without any consultation with the Palestinians whatsoever, and if the United States was so quick to recognize that state over sixty years ago, why are both the USA and Israel behaving so hypocritically now, by offering such strong resistance to the Palestinians making a similar request at the United Nations Security Council? Why does the administration of US President Barack Obama display such hypocrisy by insisting that renewed negotiations with Israeli hardliners such as Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, is the only legitimate path to peace, when the Zionists did not follow this same formula over sixty years ago? Not only did they not negotiate with the Palestinians, but they began to expel them and oppress them the minute that they had the upper hand.

Before any of you pro-Israel American Christians or pols try to justify your Israel-supporting position by mentioning all of the Palestinian suicide bomber attacks, or the Gazans lobbing inaccurate, homemade missiles into Israel, or maybe well-known Arab utterances such as "the Zionist Plague", or "driving the Jews into the sea", or "This will be a war of extermination and a momentous massacre which will be spoken of like the Mongolian massacres and the Crusades", let me remind you of something very important.

In all the long years that the Israelis and the Palestinians have been in conflict with each other, while the American and Jewish press have both emphasized how many Israelis have been killed by Palestinian suicide bombers, as a means to sway public opinion, the fact of the matter remains that the Israelis have killed far more Palestinians -- numbering in the thousands -- than the Palestinians have killed Israelis. The Jews have even resorted to outright assassination plots. Time and time again, the Israelis have used overwhelming and inappropriate force against the Palestinians. How can anyone possibly compare advanced Israeli military hardware with Palestinian youth throwing stones, or Gazans lobbing mortars that rarely harm anyone? To make such a comparison is, in my view, ridiculous to say the least.

The Israelis have done everything possible to make life more difficult for the Palestinians. This has included economic oppression, military oppression, chopping up their land so that it is now almost next to impossible for them to create a contiguous Palestinian State, multitudes of checkpoints, the barrier wall, etc. And let's not forget that the Arabs who live inside of Israel are treated like second class citizens as well.

My point is, if we use the excuse that the Palestinians are too violent to deserve their own state, then based on their greater, reciprocal violence, the Israelis don't deserve a state either. The truth is, there's been plenty of violence on both sides of the fence. There's been plenty of hatred and bigotry on both sides of the fence. There's been plenty of deception on both sides of the fence. There's been plenty of pride and prejudice on both sides of the fence. There's been plenty of corruption on both sides of the fence. There's been plenty of psychological manipulation of public opinion on both sides of the fence. In short, there is plenty of blame and guilt to be found on both sides of the fence.

In fact, if we use violence as a criteria, maybe the United States of America doesn't deserve to be a nation either due to all of the violent wars and conflicts she has started, or at least engaged in over the years. Do I need to remind you that the American Revolution was fought to throw off British political and economic oppression and tyranny? Does anyone today blame America for fighting a war against the British? Of course not. The Americans killed many British soldiers, and the British killed many Americans soldiers; yet people in America have been taught that this was a justified war in order to gain independence from the British Empire. So why then does the United States accuse the Palestinians of being terrorists when they are involved in a very similar struggle to liberate themselves from the tyranny, oppression and illegal occupation of their lands by Israel?

Remember this: Who is labeled a terrorist and who is labeled a freedom fighter simply depends on who possesses the better propaganda machine.

While many of us may not agree with, and are even appalled by their tactics, such as targeting Israeli civilians, we still need to recognize that the Palestinians are engaged in a struggle for independence. Perhaps if we were forced to endure decades of Israeli belligerence and oppression, we would begin to understand the Palestinian situation in a different light, and we would not be so quick to condemn them.

Please don't misinterpret my words or assume that I support Palestinian violence, as I most certainly do not. Please refer to my three-part series entitled "Palestinian Suicide Bombers And Middle East Peace", as well as some of my other politically-oriented articles, in order to acquire a more thorough perspective regarding my personal views concerning war and violence. I assure you that I am a peacemaker, and not a warmonger.

As you will know, in a more recent example, despite strong resistance from some American lawmakers, and without really knowing who they are, US President Barack Obama supported the Libyan rebels in throwing off the oppressive yoke of longtime dictator Colonel Muammar Gaddafi. Along with some of the NATO members of Europe, the Obama Administration even provided military assistance and intelligence to the Libyan rebels, in order to ensure that they would be victorious over Colonel Gaddafi.

With Obama's intervention in Libya, we see a clear American double standard. In other words, the facts concerning the Palestinian struggle against the Israelis are known by many informed people. We know who the players are. We know what their grievances are. We know what approaches have already been tried, and failed. We know what injustices have been committed. We know what mistakes have been made. We know what ultimately has to happen in order to achieve lasting peace.

Despite the clarity of the situation, as we have seen, the Obama administration has made known that it will not do what needs to be done, by voting in favor of Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas' request for full United Nations membership, and recognition of the State of Palestine.

In contrast, with a very limited amount of questionable and uncertain information, President Obama made the decision to not only lend his verbal support to the Libyan rebels, but America's military support as well. So tell me; why in the world did the Libyan rebels merit America's decisive support while Mahmoud Abbas and the Palestinians have not? Why did President Obama not insist on the Libyan rebels negotiating with Colonel Muammar Gaddafi, as he is now insisting that the Palestinians do with the Zionist Jews? Is it possible that I have already provided you with a clear answer? Can that answer possibly be found in powerful Jewish lobbies in Washington, DC such as the American-Israeli Public Affairs Committee? What do you think?

Within a few short hours, American President Barack Hussein Obama will be given an opportunity to leave his indelible mark on the world. He will have a chance to make history, and to leave behind a legacy which has been denied to many world leaders before him, and which will be remembered for many years to come. President Obama can either choose to be just another Israeli stooge and puppet and demonstrate his weakness, or else he can choose to rise to the occasion, and demonstrate real leadership, audacity, boldness and vision. What will he do? We don't have long to find out.

For additional information which is related to this topic, please consider reading the following articles and series which are found on the Endtime Prophecy Net website:

Yasser Arafat's Ultimatum : Why May 4, 1999?
Palestinian Suicide Bombers and Middle East Peace
The Jerusalem Question
Palestinian Quest For Statehood and UN Resolution 377
The Philistine-Palestinian Connection
The Children of God and Politics
Oh Israel, Why Will Ye Die?

Written by the WordWeaver

webmaster@endtimeprophecy.net
<http://www.endtimeprophecy.net>