Recently, I became aware of the existence of the so-called Queen James Bible. When a few of my Facebook friends used the term, I initially assumed that they were just being a bit sarcastic. However, when they continued to insist that this new translation actually exists, and that this is really what this new version is called, I decided to conduct some quick research for myself. Tragically, as it turns out, there is in fact now such a "Bible". Furthermore, there is a home page for it as well which seems to be operated by its publishers.

Upon reading the deceptive contents of the aforementioned home page, my jaw just about dropped. The blatant lies and intentional distortions that the creators of the page promote are unbelievable. Allow me to share them with you, along with my personal comments. Their words, verbatim, are enclosed in numbered quotation marks:

1. "The Queen James Bible is a bible translation edited to prevent homophobic misinterpretation of God's Word."

Let's be honest and clear about this. When these people say "edited", what they really mean is corrupt and pervert God's eternal Holy Word, and convert it into a non-offensive, politically-correct, socially-acceptable abomination which the gay and lesbian community will find pleasing to their ears, and will thus readily embrace. It is a translation which is meant to make them feel comfortable with wallowing in their sin, plain and simple. Furthermore, it seems to me that what this latest corrupt version is really about, is money and profit. It is just another new version of so many versions, which is specifically tailored to entice the gays and the lesbians to spend their money. It is a money-making scheme, and nothing less.

Their goal is not "to prevent homophobic misinterpretation of God's Word." It is really a satanic endeavor to cover up the sacred truth regarding what the Bible actually has to say regarding this filthy, unnatural, ungodly sin. As Jesus said regarding the hard-hearted unbelieving Jews -- such as the Scribes and the Pharisees -- in the Gospel of John:

"If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin."
John 15:22, KJV

"And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God."
John 3:19-21, KJV

Rather than flee into the darkness -- as the unbelieving Jews did -- so that our sins will not be exposed by the Light of God's Word, the Bible instructs us to cast off the works of darkness, and to come to the Light. Furthermore, God's Word warns us to beware of deceivers who exchange evil for good, and darkness for light; and that is exactly what these folks are doing. Consider the following verses as well:

"Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"
Isaiah 5:20, KJV

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light."
Romans 13:12, KJV

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them."
Ephesians 5:11, KJV

While these rebellious, misguided people claim to want "to prevent homophobic misinterpretation", what they have in fact really done is to intentionally create a very gay-friendly misinterpretation of the Scriptures. They have misinterpreted what has already been properly interpreted -- and taught -- for literally millennia. To reiterate, the only thing which they are really trying to prevent, is the truth getting out regarding their sinful and unnatural lifestyle.

2. "Homosexuality was first mentioned in the Bible in 1946 in the Revised Standard Version."

This statement is absolutely false! The sin of homosexuality has been recorded in the Tanakh -- that is, the Hebrew Bible, or Christian Old Testament -- and specifically in the Torah -- that is, the five Books of Moses, or the Pentateuch -- since the Scriptures were first written down. Furthermore, there are verses in the Greek New Testament which likewise expose and condemn this abominable sin. I have been using the 1611 Authorized King James Version of the Bible -- which uses the 1769 Oxford text -- for forty-one years, and the verses which expose the sin of homosexuality have always been there. While the verses don't use the actual word "homosexual", the words which are used clearly describe gay and lesbian acts.

3. "There is no mention of or reference to homosexuality in any Bible prior to this."

Again, this is absolutely and utterly false!

4. "Anti-LGBT Bible interpretations commonly cite only eight verses in the Bible that they interpret to mean homosexuality is a sin; Eight verses in a book of thousands!"

I honestly don't know which interpretations these misguided people are referring to, but as I mention in my two series "The Gay and Lesbian Agenda: To the Point!" and "When Sin is no Longer a Sin!", following are all of the verses that I am personally aware of where homosexuality, transvestitism and bestiality are clearly mentioned and condemned -- or at least strongly suggested and condemned -- in the Scriptures:

"Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination. Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion. Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you: And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants. Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you: (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you. For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people. Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the LORD your God."
Leviticus 18:22-30, KJV

"If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."
Leviticus 20:13, KJV

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God."

Deuteronomy 22:5, KJV

"There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of Israel."
Deuteronomy 23:17, KJV

"Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;"
Romans 1:24-28, KJV

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind [homosexuals],"
1 Corinthians 6:9, KJV

"Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, [homosexuals] for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;"
1 Timothy 1:9-10, KJV

"And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;"
2 Peter 2:6, KJV

"Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire."
Jude 1:7, KJV

How anyone can possibly misinterpret the clear warning message that is contained in the previous verses is beyond me. This is only possible if one intentionally puts on spiritual blinders, hardens their heart, and resists the conviction of God's Holy Spirit working in their life, as is revealed in the following verses:

"And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear."

Matthew 13:10-16, KJV

"Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch."
Matthew 15:14, KJV

"Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor! . . . Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel."
Matthew 23:16, 24, KJV

"And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other."
Mark 3:5, KJV

"And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also? Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth."
John 9:39-41, KJV

"(According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day . . . For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in."
Romans 11:8, 25, KJV

"But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."
1 Corinthians 2:14, KJV

"Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:"
Ephesians 4:18, KJV

By emphasizing the fact that homosexuality is only clearly mentioned -- and condemned -- in the previous set of verses, the obvious intent of the creators of this blasphemous home page is to soften the blow, to weaken the conviction of God's Holy Spirit working on a person's heart, and to minimize the seriousness of this sin. However, let me ask you a question. Isn't eight times enough? How many times does God have to say something in order to prove that He is very serious about it?

Imagine for a moment a parent who is warning a small child who has been a bit disobedient. Do you know of any parent who has enough patience to warn their child eight times before they decide that it is time to lower the rod of correction? Yet in His Divine Patience, this is exactly what our Heavenly Father has done. He has told us over and over again "Don't do it! It is wrong! It is a sin! It is an utter abomination in my sight!" In short, the fact that the King James Version of the Bible clearly addresses the sin of homosexuality this many times is a clear sign of God's Mercy. It should not be foolishly interpreted as meaning that homosexuality is just a minor sin and that grave consequences won't eventually result if we pursue this sinful lifestyle. Tell that to the people who perished during the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.

5. "The Queen James Bible seeks to resolve interpretive ambiguity in the Bible as it pertains to homosexuality."

Another devilish lie! There is no "interpretive ambiguity" in the King James Version of the Bible regarding the disgusting sin of homosexuality. As the previous Scriptures regarding the topic of spiritual blindness reveal, the only ambiguity to be found exists in the hardened hearts and darkened minds of those people who have obviously and clearly rejected the solid truth of God's Word regarding the sin of homosexuality. As I have pointed out many times before, when we willfully choose to reject the truth of the Scriptures, then the only recourse that remains is for God to send us delusion, as we see by the following verses:

"I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not."
Isaiah 66:4, KJV

". . . because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:"
2 Thessalonians 2:10b-11, KJV

6. "We edited those eight verses in a way that makes homophobic interpretations impossible."

Once again they claim to have "edited" God's Word, when in reality, what they have actually done is changed, corrupted and perverted it so that it is less offensive to gays and lesbians. They have created a socially-acceptable version of the Bible -- a false gospel -- which through blatant acts of omission, indirectly promotes the belief that it is alright for gays and lesbians to continue to engage in their sinful lifestyle; when that is most certainly not what God's Word teaches us whatsoever.

I find their claims of making "homophobic interpretations impossible" both outrageous and ludicrous. The King James Version of the Bible has been around for four hundred years now. The Scriptural Truths it reveals have been read by, and have been known by, billions of people during the past four centuries. Do these folks honestly believe that people are just going to forget what they have read? Are they so proud and deceived as to believe that everyone is just going to abandon the beloved KJV, rush to purchase their perverted tome, and then forget about what the authentic KJV teaches us regarding the grave sin of homosexuality? But again, I am not convinced that this is their real motivation. As I noted a moment ago, my suspicion is that their actual reason for altering the verses is to use the changed verses as a hook and an enticement for the sake of financial profit. The QJB is just the latest in the flood of "designer Bibles" to hit the market in recent decades.

Regardless of what motivates these people, who do they think they are to believe that they have the right to change and alter God's eternal Word to suit their sinful fancy? Do they even realize what a dangerous enterprise it is to do this? I am reminded of the following verses that were written by the Apostle Peter in his second Epistle:

"We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

2 Peter 1:19-2:3, KJV

Wow! Not only does Peter admonish us "that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation" -- which is very clearly what these deceivers are doing -- but then he also warns of false prophets and false teachers who introduce the flocks to "damnable heresies", and who "through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you." That word "covetousness" is translated from the Greek "pleonexia". It means greed and avarice. So, exactly as I stated earlier, motivated by their desire for financial profit, the people behind the Queen James Bible are making merchandise of the gay and lesbian community. Through their slippery, feigned words of claiming to simply wanting to publish a supposedly "more accurate" translation of the King James Bible -- which they obviously hope will be well-received by the gay and lesbian community, and I suppose by other liberals -- they hope to enrich themselves.

Regarding the foolish practice of perverting and corrupting the meaning of the Scriptures, I am also reminded of the following verse which Peter writes only two chapters later:

"As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are somethings hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction."

2 Peter 3:16, KJV

In the previous verse, the word "wrest" is derived from the Greek word "strebloo". This word is being used metaphorically by Peter, and means to twist or to pervert. Once again, this is precisely what the people behind the Queen James Bible are doing. They are intentionally changing the meaning of certain verses for the sole purpose of publishing a less offensive, more socially-acceptable Bible, which will appeal to the gay and lesbian community, and thus garner them a handsome profit. However, in comparing the previous verses with this latest one, please carefully notice what Peter says will be the fate of the deceptive people who engage in such unscrupulous acts. His three primary words are these: judgment, damnation and destruction. Clearly then, it is foolhardy to mess with God's Word.

The truth of the matter is that regardless of how much these people -- or anyone - endeavor to change the meaning of some Scriptures by altering certain words, or by totally omitting some words from the text, nevertheless, the fact remains that what God has declared to be sin, is still sin. After all, as King David writes in one of his Psalms:

"LAMED. For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven."
Psalms 119:89, KJV

Thus we plainly see the futility of changing what appears in black and white in our Bibles, for the sake of political correctness and profit. What appears in our physical Bibles has absolutely no bearing on God's eternal Word, or on His Laws and Judgments, which are established in Heaven. Trying to conceal the truth by editing or removing offensive words certainly does not change the fact that the gay and lesbian lifestyle is a sin, as well as a filthy abomination in God's sight. It is unnatural, and it is a perversion of the natural order which God both designed and established for the human family.

7. "Commonly known to biographers but often surprising to most Christians, King James I was a well-known bisexual. Though he did marry a woman, his many gay relationships were so well-known that amongst some of his friends and court, he was known as 'Queen James'."

This is not the first time that I have heard this rumor. I first became aware of it years ago. Personally, I have never come across any convincing, verifiable evidence of any kind which substantiates this malicious, slanderous claim. That being the case, I categorize it as unfounded speculation at best.

There is another clear and simple reason why I reject this rumor. If King James I really was gay or bisexual, does it make any sense whatsoever that he would accept and place his royal stamp of approval on a Bible which clearly condemns his own sinful gay lifestyle? Please remember that the King James Version of the Bible eventually replaced the Bishops' Bible, the Geneva Bible, and other previous versions, and was read all across England. It in fact became the official Bible of the Church of England; that is, the Anglican Church.

Taking this point into consideration, if King James really was homosexual or bisexual as some people have proposed, do you believe that the various teams of forty-seven scholars would have actually translated the aforementioned verses as they did? Don't you think that it would have occurred to them that a gay king might possibly become very offended, and that in his anger he might even demand their very lives? It does not seem to me then, that the learned KJV translators would intentionally incur the wrath of a homosexual king, by making such translations in what would become the official Bible. Thus, the fact that they did translate these verses as they did, strongly suggests that King James I was not homosexual, in my view.

Let me remind you that these events occurred only about fifty years after the reign of Queen Mary I. As some of my readers will recall, this evil woman -- who is also known as "Bloody Mary" -- was responsible for the Marian Persecutions, during which time she returned the Anglican Church to the fold of the corrupt Roman Catholic Church, and heavily persecuted the Protestant Reformers. Such was her wickedness, that several hundred Reformers were burned at the stake during her reign. My point is that as history will clearly reveal, at that time the British throne was characterized by a considerable amount of scandal, murder and political intrigue. If the translators of the KJV Bible had offended an alleged gay king, they could very easily have been eliminated. So this claim of King James I being homosexual seems like an unfounded rumor to me.

8. "The QJB is a big, fabulous Bible."

Fabulous? I'm sorry, but I really beg to differ. If anything, I think "blasphemous" is a much more appropriate word to use in this case.

9. "You can't choose your sexuality, but you can choose Jesus."

As I amply explain in the aforementioned series, this lie has been circulating for many years now. It falsely promotes the misguided mentality that gays and lesbians are just the "helpless victims" of their own genetic makeup. I for one soundly reject this belief. While we are presently unable to choose a child's gender prior to birth -- although the day may be fast approaching when this will change, and eugenics will become the order of the day -- nevertheless, as I point out in the article entitled "Free Will and Personal Choice", God has endowed each one of us with both the freedom and the ability to make our own choices in life, both good and evil.

Living the gay or lesbian lifestyle is a personal choice. As I likewise point out in such articles as "Pornography: Flee Youthful Lusts!" yielding to the sinful lusts of our flesh is also a personal choice. We don't have to do it. We choose to do it. Yes, I fully recognize that we are each influenced by our local environment, as well as by certain other factors. This includes our religious upbringing; the attitude of our parents towards this lifestyle; the kinds of books we read; the types of movies and television shows that we watch; our school environment; the kinds of friends that we like to hang out with; etc. All of these factors directly influence and shape our world view, including how we perceive the gay and lesbian lifestyle.

As many of you will realize, this is exactly what advertising and politicking are all about as well. They are mechanisms to manipulate and control our thoughts and actions, so that they will produce a desired result. Well, Satan -- who is the false god of this current world -- has an agenda as well. Part of his agenda is to destroy humanity. One way in which he seeks to do this, is by enticing humanity to engage in various forms of behavior which are displeasing to the Lord, and which may result in God's Wrath being poured down upon us. As we will briefly discuss in part two of this series, this is certainly what happened in the case of Sodom and Gomorrah. Consider the following verses and beware:

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."
1 John 2:15-17, KJV

The truth of the matter is that due to our sinful nature, we humans seem to have a fatal attraction for dark, negative, forbidden, sinful things. We are like moths which are being drawn to the camp lantern at night. We can be weak and allow ourselves to be drawn to the dangerous light -- and in the process be destroyed by the same -- or else we can ask for God's help, and resist the sinful temptations of our flesh. There is always a choice. We are not just "helpless victims" when it comes to the gay and lesbian lifestyle. We choose it of our own accord. We knowingly and consciously choose to cross the moral boundaries which God has established. But once you cross over for the first time, watch out! Satan will not let you go back to the Light so easily!

Please go to part two for the continuation of this series.

Believe me when I say that I fully understand how difficult it can be for young people to resist the temptation of the gay and lesbian lifestyle. Much like hedonistic Rome of two millennia ago, we live in an extremely sexualized society. Satan -- and the merchants of the world -- have certainly seen to that. Sexually-oriented enticements and perversions are thrown at us at just about every turn. For young people whose hormones have begun to kick in, and who are coming to sexual maturity, sexual drive -- or libido -- can be a very powerful, overbearing force. Being at this point in one's life can be a very challenging, difficult experience.

As a single, unmarried person, your body is craving for an outlet in which to release your sexual tension. Because of this fact, it is at this time in your life when you become most vulnerable to the deceptions and perversions of the Devil, including to the gay and lesbian lifestyle. As the following Scriptures reveal, you must urgently resist this temptation to sin against the Lord, and against your own body as well, which is the temple of God's Spirit. You must shun such filthy, abominable acts at all cost:

"There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."
1 Corinthians 10:13, KJV

"Neither give place to the devil."
Ephesians 4:27, KJV

"Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart."
2 Timothy 2:22, KJV

"Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you."
James 4:7, KJV

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are."

1 Corinthians 3:16-17, KJV

"What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

1 Corinthians 6:19-20, KJV

The sad thing about this situation, is that a large part of the world is clearly not on God's side when it comes to the issue of sexual morality; not even when it comes to our own children. Condoms are freely available in some schools. In some states, young girls can obtain an abortion even without parental consent. Birth control pills are easily obtainable over the counter. School-aged children can receive private counseling from nurses and social workers -- even without the parents' knowledge or consent -- and be told things and manipulated in ways which are contrary to God's Holy Word, and against the parents' personal value system. As I explain in other articles, all these things contribute to a sexually promiscuous society.

10. "Now you can choose a Bible, too."

As I explain in the article entitled "Biblical Cafeteria, Or the Whole Course?", what these deceived publishers are really saying, is that it is okay to turn God's Word into a personal cafeteria. You can simply pick and choose what you want to believe. If there is something that you don't like, or which you find offensive, you can just discard it. Either that, or as in the case regarding the blasphemous Queen James Bible, you can just change the words around a bit so that the verse is more appealing to your personal sensitivities. Go ahead! Just translate a few words differently, so that you do not feel so uncomfortable living in your sin! Tamper with the Holy Writ so that the conviction of God's Spirit ceases to bear down on your evil and unrepentant heart! Beware! These things ought not to be! Be advised that you risk changing and perverting God's Holy Word at your own peril! Consider this, ye that foolishly provoke the Almighty by your actions:

"It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God . . . For our God is a consuming fire."

Hebrews 10:31, 12:29, KJV

To reiterate, the so-called Queen James Bible is nothing less than an abomination. It is a lie and a devilish deception. It is a false gospel. It is a doctrine of devils and a damnable heresy. It is a perversion and corruption of Biblical truth. It is another gospel which promotes another Jesus -- that is, a false Jesus -- who apparently has no qualms with people who choose to live the gay and lesbian lifestyle. This new, more laid-back Jesus is apparently cool and approachable. He seems to accept same-sex relationships, unlike that other Jesus who was stern, and who warned us to repent of our sins, such as by saying "Go, and sin no more" and "Sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee", as we see here:

"Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee."

John 5:14, KJV

"She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more."
John 8:11, KJV

While according to their website the publishers of the Queen James Bible do not actually change any of the doctrines that Jesus said and taught, the subtlety of their deception is in the fact that by changing the various verses that are found throughout the Bible where homosexuality is frowned upon and condemned, they indirectly give the impression that Jesus is okay with it. In other words, while Jesus never addresses the issue directly, we are led to assume that He is okay with the gay and lesbian lifestyle, because in the QJB version of the King James Bible, all of the verses which do directly address homosexuality have been softened and neutralized. It's a very sneaky approach to resolving their "problem".

Exactly what are the perversions which have been made in the so-called Queen James Bible? Based upon the information that I found on their own website, the following very significant changes have been made to the Biblical text. As you will see, in certain cases, they have totally removed some words which they find offensive -- obviously because the words reveal the sin of sodomy -- while in others, they have either translated the words differently, or else they have added words which are not found in the original Hebrew and Greek text, in order to give the verse an entirely different meaning from the author's original intent.

These misguided promoters of deception claim that the changes listed below are the only ones which they have made to the KJV Bible. Being as I do not own their perverted Bible -- and obviously have absolutely no intentions of purchasing one -- I can't confirm or refute their statement regarding this issue.

The first textual change -- or perversion -- they make occurs with the story of Lot, Sodom and Gomorrah, and the two Angels, as it is found in Genesis chapter nineteen. Consider how the verse is translated in the King James Version of the Bible:

"And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them."
Genesis 19:5, KJV

As many of you will already know, in the King James Version of the Bible, the word "know" is often used to mean sexual intercourse between a man and a woman. For example, consider these three verses which are found in the Book of Genesis:

"And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD . . . And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch . . . And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew."
Genesis 4:1, 25, KJV

Consider also the following Scriptures which are found in the

First Book of Samuel, which provide us with an account of the birth and conception of the Prophet Samuel:

"And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her. Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD."
1 Samuel 1:19-20, KJV

There is absolutely no way in which one can misunderstand in what manner the word "knew" is being used in the previous verses. The clear result of Adam "knowing" Eve is that she conceived two times, and bore Cain and Seth. The result of Cain knowing his unnamed wife is that she likewise bore her son Enoch. The result of Elkanah knowing his wife Hannah is that she conceived and gave birth to the Prophet Samuel. If for some odd reason you still have doubts that this word is referring to sexual intercourse, the following verse that is found in the Book of Numbers makes it even more clear:

"But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves."
Numbers 31:18, KJV

As you can see, in the previous verse, the intention of the author -- Moses -- is clearly written out so that we fully understand that for a woman to "know" a man is to lay in the bed with him; that is, to engage in sexual intercourse.

As with the earlier verses, in the previous verse, the word "known" is translated from the Hebrew word "yada". If you refer to the Brown, Driver, Briggs, Gesenius Hebrew Aramaic English Lexicon, you may be surprised to discover that there is nothing in the definitions that are provided which clearly indicate sexual intercourse, or any kind of sexual activity whatsoever. The lexicon indicates that "yada" means to know, to perceive, or to reveal oneself. However, if we consider that the covenant of circumcision was not introduced until the time of the Patriarch Abraham, then a man knowing -- or revealing himself to -- his wife, can take on a clear sexual connotation. In short, "know" is a Jewish idiom for sexual intercourse. Whether or not my explanation properly explains how the idiom came about, I do not know for certain. However, it does seem to make sense, being as sex partners must reveal their most secret parts to each other.

In the New Testament, the word "know" is used in the very same fashion. However, in this case, Thayer's Greek English Lexicon indicates that it is derived from the Greek word "ginosko". For example, consider what Mary said to the Angel Gabriel when he informed her that she would give birth to a son, even though she and Joseph had not engaged in sexual intercourse yet:

"Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?"
Luke 1:34, KJV

Given the clear meaning of the word "know" to imply sexual intercourse -- that is, sexual penetration -- the misguided publishers of the perverted Queen James Bible realized that they could not possibly allow the word to remain intact in Genesis 19:5. After all, to do so would clearly indicate an intention to engage in gay anal sex. So they intentionally sanitized the verse, and changed it to the phrase "rape and humiliate", as we see here:

"And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? Bring them out unto us, that we may rape and humiliate them."
Genesis 19:5, QJB

To soften up and neutralize the previous verse even further, on their website, these modern deceivers claim that what the homosexuals wanted to do to the two Angels was very similar to prison rape. They follow this statement with the bold lie "they aren't sexual acts, they are power-dominating acts." Oh, okay. Thank you for the clarification. I am so relieved to know that those gay men and boys of Sodom were not really interested in engaging in sexual acts with God's two Angels. Excuse my sarcasm. Thus, through an unwarranted word change, in which they purposely add words which are not even found in the original Hebrew Scriptures, as well as their ridiculous explanation, they have eased the minds and wicked hearts of homosexuals by totally removing the gay lifestyle from the story of Sodom, Lot and the two Angels. Aren't you relieved?

Tragically, that is not quite the end of this deception. On their website, these money-making Bible hucksters also make the following misguided, unsubstantiated, wild assertion:

----- Begin Quote -----

"We side with most Bible scholars who understand the story of Sodom and Gomorra to be about bullying strangers."

----- End Quote -----

Excuse me! What?! Did you just say that the real sin of the citizens of Sodom and Gomorrah was that they just bullied strangers? Am I to believe that my Heavenly Father is such a terrible, mean monster, that He destroyed two entire cities, just because they bullied strangers, meaning the two Angels? If that is the case, then we are all in very serious trouble; and I honestly don't see how anyone will survive His wrath. Oh, wait; I just remembered that we have this new laid-back Jesus who is apparently willing to forgive almost anything. Again, forgive my sarcasm, but this is just how ridiculous these people's claims seem to me.

I don't know who these "most Bible scholars" are, but I have certainly never heard of this before. Furthermore, I find it rather questionable and odd that the publishers of the Queen James Bible do not make any effort whatsoever to identify these "scholars" on their web page. I must also question how they define the word "most". Apparently, they expect us to believe them just because they say so. Imagine if I wrote my articles and never included a single verse of Scripture. How inclined would you be to believe anything that I have to say?

Before continuing our discussion, allow me to make a point for my own protection. Let me emphasize again that what I have placed in quotation marks in this series is verbatim from the publishers' website. If you should happen to read this series at some point in the future after its original publication date, and find any kind of discrepancy between what I have quoted here, and what is found on their website, please note that it will be a result of their having altered their own website. In fact, I wouldn't be surprised if after becoming aware of this series -- and they probably will at some point -- they do make some changes to their site; not only to try to refute what I have stated here, but perhaps also to make me look like a liar.

If you are alarmed by what these misguided people have done to the previous verse from the Book of Genesis, wait until you see what else these Bible manipulators did in order to relieve the conscience of the gay and lesbian community.

To set up their next evil deception and unwarranted change to God's Holy Writ, they make the outlandish statement that "Leviticus is outdated as a moral code." Now, while I can obviously agree that in our modern day most people do not go around stoning others for this, that and the other, at the same time, as I teach in some of my other articles, even the Lord Himself and the writers of the New Testament emphasize the fact that we are still bound by the primary moral laws of the Old Testament era, such as thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not commit adultery, etc. In the New Testament, these laws are simply encompassed by the two Great Commandments, or what the Apostle Paul refers to as "a more excellent way", and the Apostle James refers to as the "Royal Law". Consider the following verses:

"Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."
Matthew 22:35-40, KJV

"By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another."
John 13:35, KJV

"Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law."
Romans 13:10, KJV

"But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way."
1 Corinthians 12:31, KJV

"And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."
1 Corinthians 13:13, KJV

"If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:"
James 2:8, KJV

"And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins."

1 Peter 4:8, KJV

"He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."

1 John 4:8, KJV

Having spewed forth their devilish claim that the Levitical Law is now obsolete -- which is obviously a clear attempt to neutralize and minimize the importance of the "troublesome" verses which we are about to discuss -- the QJB publishers then adopt a very condescending attitude, and try to make it appear as if they are doing us a favor by even discussing the verses in the Book of Leviticus. In other words, they are not doing it because they personally believe that the two verses condemn homosexuality, but because, in their own words "most anti-LGBT religious activists cite Leviticus 18:22 and 20:13 as proof-positive that homosexuality is a sin, even worse, a sin punishable by death."

On a side note, I consider it rather ironic, as well as very hypocritical, that these sinful people who have very openly adopted an aggressive, militant posture, as they endeavor to foist their ungodly, unnatural, perverted lifestyle on the American public -- beginning with corrupting the young minds of school-aged children no less -- actually have the audacity to paint God-fearing, Bible-believing Christians as "religious activists". Is this not the pot calling the kettle black? If they wish to refer to us as "anti-LGBT religious activists", so be it. However, they are anti-God, and He is actually the one who is keeping the score. At any rate, in the King James Version of the Bible, the two verses from Leviticus are as follows:

"Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination."

Leviticus 18:22, KJV

"If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."

Leviticus 20:13, KJV

To any Torah-observant Jew, as well as to any Bible-believing Christian, the meaning of the previous verses is quite clear. Tragically, for the publishers of the Queen James Bible, they are too clear. Thus, once again, a bit of "innocuous" editing had to be undertaken. To implement this particular perversion of the Holy Scriptures, these misguided souls chose to rely upon a tactic which I have heard about before. Being as these two verses don't specifically state exactly where these gays are having sex with each other, the QJB publishers took it upon themselves to tell us where they personally think this sin is occurring. In other words, even though these verses appear to be speaking in a general sense regarding illicit homosexual activity in any place at any time, the publishers chose to more narrowly define the verses, because this is the only way in which they could attempt to convince us that the verses are not talking about homosexual relationships at all.

If you read Leviticus chapter eighteen in its entirety, you will discover that it prohibits a variety of sexual sins. It specifically prohibits sexual relations between members of the same family -- that is, incest -- between near-family members, between two men, between man and beast, and other related sexual sins. It also prohibits engaging in sexual acts which are related to the worship of the infamous false god Molech, as we see by this verse:

"And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD."

Leviticus 18:21, KJV

It is upon this clear prohibition of engaging in lewd sexual acts with the false god Molech that the publishers of the QJB lean in order to try to justify their foolish perversion and corruption of the aforementioned two verses. Based on their personal understanding, they "assert that Leviticus 18:21 refers to 'lying' with these pagan male prostitutes as a form of pagan idolatry." Furthermore, they apply the same reasoning to Leviticus 20:13 as well. Thus, although the phrase is not to be found in the original Hebrew text, in both verses they intentionally chose to insert "in the temple of Molech", so that the verses read as follows:

"Thou shalt not lie with mankind as with womankind in the temple of Molech: it is an abomination."

Leviticus 18:22, QJB

"If a man also lie with mankind in the temple of Molech, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."

Leviticus 20:13, QJB

By undertaking this corruption, they have totally changed what Moses has actually written. These verses are no longer prohibiting regular homosexual relationships, they are just prohibiting lewd sexual acts with male temple prostitutes in the temple of Molech. As I explained a moment ago, without any real justification, they intentionally inserted "in the temple of Molech" in order to more narrowly define the two verses, and in their view, rule out any possibility of these verses being understood to mean regular homosexual sex. But this begs a question. Why did they decide to just make this unwarranted change in these two verses? These two chapters are filled with various sexual prohibitions; so why just insert "in the temple of Molech" in these two verses? Isn't the answer obvious? It is because it is only in these two verses where the abominable sin of homosexuality is clearly exposed, and they just had to cover it up. That's why.

That is why the misguided publishers of the QJB can claim that the Levitical Law is obsolete. Obviously, as far as we know, no one builds temples to Molech today; sacrifices in them; or commits lewd sexual acts in said temples. Thus, in the eyes of the deceived Queen James Bible publishers, they have supposedly prevented the previous two verses from being interpreted in a homophobic sense. Wow! Well done guys! But there is just one problem. You are wrong; dead wrong! No one gave you the right to insert an entire phrase which is not even found in the original Hebrew text. You are treading on very dangerous territory! Watch out!

Also of note is the fact that according to the misguided QJB publishers, based on modern standards, the word "abomination" doesn't really mean something which God views as being filthy and unclean. These deceivers suggest that we should really understand this word to mean something which is "scandalous". Wow! Once again, aren't you relieved to know this important point? In other words, even if a person does interpret these verses from the Book of Leviticus to be referring to the act of sodomy, and if they are engaged in homosexuality, they can still take comfort in the fact that what they are doing isn't really an unclean or filthy act; it is just very scandalous. At least so say the publishers of the Queen James Bible. So as you can see, no matter how we look at it, these publishers have not only minimized the seriousness of the sin of sodomy, but they have in fact endeavored to remove it entirely from these these two verses.

The next set of verses which the QJB publishers corrupt and pervert are found in the Apostle Paul's Epistle to the Roman brethren. In the real King James Version of the Bible, these verses read as follows:

"For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet."

Romans 1:26-27, KJV

If you are already appalled by the boldness and audacity of these deceivers to so drastically change God's Word based on a whim and their personal interpretation, you will be shocked to see how much they have butchered these verses. To set the stage for their deception, they try to justify their rather bold changes to the text by informing us how -- in their view at least -- the Epistle to the Romans is a difficult work to translate. They write as follows:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Romans is written in some of the most obtuse language in the entire Bible making it very difficult to interpret and translate. As such, its translations are usually some of the most incredibly stretched to support homophobic agendas."

----- End Quote -----

In other words, in so many words, what these QJB deceivers are really saying is "Romans is very difficult to translate, and that is why so many people get it wrong. For example, those homophobic Christians took a lot of liberty, and look at how they misinterpreted Romans. We are going to take the same liberty, but we are going to interpret it correctly." In fact, the publishers openly confess that they have made some major changes to the aforementioned verses. When you see how they have changed words, inserted words, and even rearranged a phrase to suit their fancy, you will understand why they felt obligated to make the following statement:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Romans is our most major editing, but also one of our most powerfully free of interpretive ambiguity; it has been made very clear, yet retains all of the content of the original."

----- End Quote -----

As we already discussed in part one, the publishers' claim of so-called "interpretive ambiguity" in the original KJV text is bogus. The real problem is that they simply do not like what is already plainly stated in the text; because in this particular case, not only does it expose the sin of illicit sex between men, but it also sheds light on the sin of lesbianism as well; even though on their website they outright deny that this is what the verses are really about. This is the real reason why they resort to "major editing" in these particular verses. It is the only way in which they can try to conceal the light of truth which is revealed by them; a truth which makes them -- and all gays and lesbians -- very uncomfortable. These sinful people want a Bible that agrees with their ungodly and perverted lifestyle. Sadly, the QJB publishers are happy to give it to them; particularly if it means earning a handsome profit in the process.

Please go to part three for the continuation of this series.

Queen James Bible: Blasphemous Abomination Exposed! : Part 3

In their deceptive endeavors to justify the serious changes they have made to Romans 1:26-27, the publishers of the QJB resort to the very same tricks and methods that they used to twist the meaning of the previous verses that we examined. Let us not forget that in their darkened minds, they have in fact convinced themselves that they've done such a wonderful job with reinterpreting these various verses, that they have made "homophobic interpretations impossible". Because they are of this persuasion, it should not surprise us that they would rely upon these same tactics in their treatment of Romans 1:26-27.

For example, in an attempt to add a degree of validity to their misguided interpretation, and apparently in an effort to impress us with their scholarly ability, they once again resort to using the ambiguous phrase "most scholars", just as they did with their interpretation of Genesis 19:5. In other words, they basically appear to be saying "See; we are not alone in our views. Everyone understands the verses just like we do." What is not said, but what is slyly implied, is that if anyone does not agree with them, then not only must they not be very educated, but they are in the minority as well. Thus the publishers of the blasphemous abomination known as the Queen James Bible write the following on their web page:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Most scholars (us included), agree that the sin in Romans 1 isn't being gay or lesbian or having gay sex. The sin was worshiping pagan idols instead of God, as it was in Leviticus, as it is everywhere in the Bible."

----- End Quote -----

This is the same old tactic of relying upon peer pressure in order to impose a certain point of view upon someone. If one does not agree with the promoters of some particular point of view, then they intentionally endeavor to make that individual feel silly and embarrassed. Tragically, some teachers will do this with their students. More specifically, I have heard of some incidents where science teachers who embrace the foolish theory of evolution will use these tactics against Christian students who trust in God's Word instead.

Strangely enough, just as they made no attempt whatsoever to identify these other individuals when they used the phrase "most Bible scholars" in their treatment of Genesis 19:5, we are given the same silent treatment with Romans 1:26-27. We have no idea who these "most scholars" are in the previous quote, and they do not seem very willing to tell us either. The only thing they are prepared to do, is to inform us that they apparently count themselves amongst this ambiguous group of learned individuals. Thus they write "(us included)".

On a related note, what I find equally disturbing is the fact that the mysterious publishers of the Queen James Bible offer us absolutely no personal information regarding themselves on their website. I mean, zilch, zero, nada. There is no company name. There are no individuals listed. There is no physical location listed such as city and state, or at least a postal box. There is no email address, telephone number, cell phone number or fax number. There are no images of the publishers or of their publishing house. There is a contact form, but it too reveals absolutely nothing about the individuals who are behind the promotion of the blasphemous abomination known as the Queen James Bible.

Hoping that perhaps I could gain a little more information, I went ahead and clicked on the "buy now" link just to see what it would lead to. Lo and behold, it took me to Amazon. One would think that being as they are a professional online store, Amazon would be able to provide us with some actual details regarding the publishers of this blasphemous tome. As I said, one would think. In actuality, I learned absolutely nothing. The information on the publishers' Amazon page is just as ambiguous. Following is the primary information that you will find there:

The Queen James Bible [Paperback]

I don't know about you, but for me personally, even without considering the outrageous way in which they have perverted and corrupted God's Holy Word, this entire QJB promotion raises a lot of red flags. If these people are so proud and confident of their translation work; and if their goals and motivations are as pure as they claim; why is it that they are intentionally lurking in the shadows? What do they have to hide? Even if a person is gay or lesbian, would they be so foolish as to invest $34.95 in a new designer Bible that simply has eight questionable changes in the text from the well-respected King James Version of the Bible, particularly when they don't even know who is behind this new Bible?

Returning to our discussion of Romans 1:26-27, as I stated earlier, these unidentified publishers have resorted to the very same tactics in their endeavors to justify the changes they have made to these verses. As we have already seen, in an effort to build confidence in their translation, they try to convince us that "most scholars" agree with their opinion of these verses; even though we have absolutely no idea who these other scholars are. As you can easily determine from the previous quote, their second tactic is to again endeavor to link these verses to ancient pagan idolatry.

As you will recall from part two, with the two verses that we examined in the Book of Leviticus, the publishers sought to twist their meaning by associating them with male prostitutes who were dedicated to the worship of the false deity Molech. This time, however, they endeavor to convince us that these similar sexual acts are specifically linked to Roman pagan idol worship, and that they have absolutely nothing to do with gay and lesbian relationships. In addition to the quote which I shared with you earlier which proves that this is their primary intention, on their website they also clearly state the following:

----- Begin Quote -----

"We can't be exactly sure what Paul meant by the natural use of a woman, but we can be pretty sure he wasn't talking about lesbian sex."

----- End Quote -----

In other words, when Paul writes "even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature", the QJB publishers are insisting that Paul does not mean that women left their natural use -- that is, engaging in natural sexual relations with men -- and engaged in sexual acts with other women instead; that is, lesbianism. What do you think? Who do you believe? Are you led by God's Spirit in your personal understanding of the Scriptures, or do you accept this tripe from the QJB publishers?

So, after explaining all of their whys and wherefores, these misguided people inform us that they have settled with the following translation of Romans 1:26-27. As you can see, just as they did with the previous verses that we examined, they have intentionally inserted words which are not found in the original Greek text, so that the verses now emphasize pagan idol worship, and not homosexuality, or forbidden gay and lesbian sexual relations:

"Their women did change their natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, left of the natural use of the woman, burned in ritual lust, one toward another; Men with men working that which is pagan and unseemly. For this cause God gave the idolators up unto vile affections, receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet."
Romans 1:26-27, QJB

Whereas Paul writes "burned in their lust one toward another; men with men", the QJB publishers intentionally change it to "burned in ritual lust, one toward another; Men with men." The intent here is to purposely distance and divorce regular gay relationships -- as if there is anything "regular" about them -- from Roman pagan idolatry and temple prostitutes. In other words, as I have already explained, the goal of these misguided QJB publishers is to manipulate our thinking, and convince us that the real sin that Paul is exposing is pagan idol worship and the temple prostitution that accompanied it. They want to remove from our minds the belief that there is something wrong with gay and lesbian relationships, as they exist today.

They use this same tactic twice in these verses. Whereas Paul clearly writes "God gave them up unto vile affections", the QJB publishers change it to "God gave the idolators up unto vile affections." Once again they purposely insert the phrase "the idolators", even though it is nowhere to be found in the original Greek text, because they want us to think about the ancient idol worshippers, and not about modern homosexuals.

It is very clear -- and not ambiguous as the QJB publishers claim -- that in the original KJV text, when Paul says "For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections", the word "them" is in fact referring to gays and lesbians. However, the QJB publishers don't want us to believe that; and this is why they have so heavily edited -- perverted and corrupted is more accurate -- these verses. Another way in which they are trying to manipulate our thinking is by intentionally moving that phrase from the beginning of verse twenty-six, to the second half of verse twenty-seven. It is very clever, very sneaky, and very subtle, because it changes how we understand the verses.

If you still don't quite understand what they are doing here, let me explain it to you more clearly. If we read the verses the way that Paul has originally written them, we understand that he is informing us that God has given up these sinful people to vile affections; and then Paul explains to us what these vile affections are: gay and lesbian sexual relations. You see, in the original text, we are Spirit-led in how we understand the verses, which is the way it is supposed to be. However, in the perverted way that the Queen James Bible says it, the publishers are forcing us to understand the verses in the manner in which they want us to understand them -- and it is particularly so because they insert the extra words -- and then they tell us that this is what Paul means by "them" -- which they have replaced with "the idolators" -- and "vile affections".

Do you understand now? In short, as a result of the inserted words and the changed order of the sentences, the publishers are forcefully telling us how to understand the two verses, and not allowing us to be led by God's Spirit in the least. Paul basically says "The vile affections are these", and then he tells us exactly what they are; but the QJB publishers do it in reverse and say "No; they really did this and this, and these are the vile affections that Paul is talking about." As I said, it is a very sneaky approach. As we saw earlier, the QJB publishers assert that by making these changes to the text of Romans 1:26-27, the verses have been "made very clear." I have to strongly disagree. This is an absolute lie, as well as a deception. The verses are very clear in their original form as Paul wrote them. As I said, "made very clear" really means "made to say what we want them to say."

What these foolish publishers are doing with Romans 1:26-27 is using the very same tactic that they used with the verses from the Book of Leviticus. They are trying to translate and interpret the verses as narrowly as possible, so that there is no room to consider that Paul may actually be condemning gay and lesbian relationships. Remember the warning that I shared with you several times already. What did these people say their ultimate goal is? Here it is again from point six in part one of this series:

----- Begin Quote -----

"We edited those eight verses in a way that makes homophobic interpretations impossible."

----- End Quote -----

You see, in their spiritual blindness, just as they did with the verses from the Book of Leviticus, they are intentionally trying to turn these verses into an either/or situation. In other words, either Paul is condemning gay and lesbian sex, or else he is condemning pagan idolatry. The publishers have very obviously chosen the latter, and that is what they want us to believe as well. The tragedy is that in reality, Paul is actually condemning both. If we read the entire chapter, it becomes evident that Paul is likewise discussing all of the weird idols -- human, animal, half-human and half-beast -- that the Romans worshipped. Even I am not so foolish as to deny this.

However, insofar as the verses which we are discussing, it is evident that Paul is clearly emphasizing human sexual sins; and in particular, gay and lesbian relationships. In fact, as I mention in other related articles, personally, I very strongly suspect that when Paul writes "receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet", he is referring to the fact that these sinful people were plagued with all kinds of sexually transmitted diseases, as a result of their gay and lesbian activities. Furthermore, according to the actual Greek words which are used in that verse, Paul is rather bluntly saying that these people got exactly what they deserved due to their foolish, sinful behavior. As proof of this, consider that the phrase "was meet" is derived from the Greek word "dei", which implies something that is right and proper, or necessary.

Can the truth be any more plain than that? It is no different today with the vast majority of AIDS victims being gay men. As offensive as this fact may be to some people, and despite modern efforts to minimize or conceal it, as far as I know, this is still the awful truth. In other words, homosexual men still comprise the largest demographic group who continue to be infected with the AIDS virus. Despite everything that God has done to wake them up and shake them up -- including this serious affliction in the flesh which often leads to death -- these hard-hearted, deceived people just keep on sinning. Furthermore, the greedy pharmaceutical industry is more than happy to provide these sick people with a plethora of drugs, so that they can continue to defy God's Holy Laws until they finally die due to complications which arise as a result of their affliction.

Moving on, the next set of verses which the Queen James Bible publishers target are 1 Corinthians 6:9-10. In the real King James Version of the Bible, these verses read as follows:

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God."

1 Corinthians 6:9-10, KJV

From our previous word studies in this series, it should be obvious to you why the misguided QJB publishers have chosen to corrupt and pervert these verses. It is plain to see that with the two phrases "nor effeminate" and "nor abusers of themselves with mankind", the Apostle Paul is referring back to the Levitical Law's prohibition regarding homosexual sex. Let me refresh your memory by sharing those two verses with you again:

"Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination."
Leviticus 18:22, KJV

"If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."
Leviticus 20:13, KJV

As we learned earlier, "lie with mankind" is referring to two men who are lying in bed together, and engaging in homosexual sex. Paul is simply using slightly different terminology when he writes "abusers of themselves with mankind". This phrase is derived from the Greek compound word "arsenokoites". Thayer's Greek English Lexicon informs us that it is formed by joining together the words "arsen" -- meaning a male or man -- with the word "koite", which means a bed or couch, to sleep with, to lie in bed with, or to have sexual intercourse with. It is from this latter word -- koite -- that we derive our English word "coitus", meaning of course, sexual intercourse. Consider the following definitions, as provided by the lexicon:

----- Begin Quotes -----

A. arsenokoites ar-sen-ok-oy'-tace

from 730 and 2845

1) one who lies with a male as with a female, sodomite, homosexual

B. arrhen ar'-hrane, or arsen ar'-sane

1) a male

C. koite koy'-tay

1) a place for laying down, resting, sleeping in

1a) a bed, couch

2) the marriage bed

2a) of adultery

3) cohabitation, whether lawful or unlawful

3a) sexual intercourse

There should be no misunderstanding then regarding exactly what the Apostle Paul means; unless, of course, you happen to be the deceived and misguided publishers of the Queen James Bible. So how do they try to wriggle out of this one? Believe it or not, but these deceivers fall back on the very same tactic that they have used all along; and that is their ridiculous claim that as it is translated in the King James Version of the Bible, the phrase is just too ambiguous. In fact, on their website, they describe the phrase as "One of the most famous homosexual Bible ambiguous interpretations."

My gosh! Why is it that every single verse in the Bible that exposes the sin of homosexuality is so ambiguous to them? It should be rather clear to you by now that these verses are only ambiguous to them, because they want them to be. As we have clearly witnessed, this is the primary excuse -- and a rather lame one at that -- which they have used to try to justify their perversion and corruption of God's Holy Word. Despite the fact that Thayer's Greek English Lexicon clearly reveals that "arsenokoites" refers to men who lay in bed and engage in sexual intercourse with other men, and that the phrase "abusers of themselves with mankind" is an accurate translation of the original Greek words, the QJB publishers insist that "arsenokoites" should be translated as "the male who has many beds".

Do you see what they are trying to do here? Whereas in other verses they have purposely inserted words in order to change the meaning of a verse, in this case, they are cutting out words and shortening the definition; because they know that to use the full definition confirms that the KJV translators got it right. In other words, if they want to translate the word "arsenokoites" as they have, then they should provide a full definition, which would be "the male who has many beds [with other men]". As I already said, the translators of the King James Bible understood this. That is why they included the words "with mankind" in this verse. Unlike the misguided QJB publishers, they fully understood that Paul -- who was a devout Pharisee, and who was thus very knowledgeable of the Mosaic and Levitical Laws -- was in fact quoting from the Book of Leviticus, where it also says "with mankind". It is the "with mankind" that the QJB publishers don't like; and that is why they are trying to change its meaning in every verse where it is found. Man with mankind is homosexual sex.

As we have seen time and time again, besides their repeated attempts to convince us that all of these verses are way too ambiguous, so they must be changed and updated, the second major way in which they have been endeavoring to distance and divorce sinful homosexual sex from all of these verses, is by purposely associating them with pagan temple worship and male temple prostitutes. They have repeatedly tried to narrow the meaning of each verse so that it appears as if they are only referring to these male prostitutes, and not to "regular" gay relationships that occur in the general populace. It appears that they just could not resist doing it yet again. It is not surprising then that on their website, they comment as follows:

----- Begin Quote -----

"'Arsenokoitais' is likely referring to men who 'abuse themselves' with the child-aged male prostitutes common in pagan temples at the time."

----- End Quote -----

Do you see how they are once again intentionally trying to distance this verse from modern homosexual relationships? Not only do they endeavor to associate the verse with male temple prostitutes, but they had to make sure that we all understand that -- according to them at least -- this is a time-specific verse. Thus they add the phrase "at the time." In other words, the clear implication is that this verse has nothing to do with our modern times. It has nothing to do with the rampant, sinful gay and lesbian relationships that have thoroughly polluted modern society. This verse -- like all of the other verses which they have purposely corrupted -- is outdated. It is obsolete, they claim. They are simply following the very same pattern which they used to try to convince us that the moral code that is found in the Book of Leviticus is supposedly obsolete. The Apostle Paul obviously didn't think so; and that is why he purposely paraphrases the Levitical Laws in his first Epistle to the Corinthians.

So who are we to believe? The Apostle Paul, or these unknown Queen James Bible publishers? You know, as I sat here working on this series, it occurred to me that even though he lived almost two thousand years ago, I know more about Paul than I do about the publishers of the QJB. I know his family name and his Christian name. I know where he was born and raised. I know under whom he studied -- Gamaliel -- as well as what his religious background was. I know how he persecuted the First Century Church until he was converted by Jesus Himself on the road to Damascus. I know how his Christian ministry began. I know of the many struggles, trials and persecutions which he endured for the faith. I know of the many places to which he traveled in order to preach the Gospel, as well as the many churches which he helped to establish. I know of his legal problems, his various times in prison, and how he also appeared before Emperor Nero on at least two occasions. I know that he apparently gave his life for the Lord after living for about two years in Rome.

I know so much about the Apostle Paul without having ever met the man; and even though he lived two thousand years ago, his life and work is an open book. Yet as I noted earlier, I know absolutely nothing about these publishers of the Queen James Bible who live during my own time. So why in the world should I even trust anything they say, interpret or translate? Where are their credentials to prove to me that they truly are the "scholars" which they claim to be? Where are the real fruits of their labors, so that I can know with certainty that it is good fruit? Silence.

Returning to our discussion regarding 1 Corinthians 6:9-10, the second word which these QJB publishers willingly choose to butcher is "effeminate". We all know what the word means, and we sometimes make a hand gesture accompanied by a wink of the eye to signify that we are in the know regarding a certain person who is of that persuasion. In this verse, the word "effeminate" is derived from the Greek word "malakos". This word has two definitions. The first is a physical one and refers to the actual, literal softness of something. In other words, it means soft to the touch, as we see by these two verses:

"But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses."
Matthew 11:8, KJV

"But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously appavelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts."
Luke 7:25, KJV

According to Thayer's Greek English Lexicon, the only other place where this Greek word is found in the New Testament, is in the verse that we are currently discussing. However, in this verse, the word is used in a metaphorical sense to refer to a catamite; that is, a boy who is specifically kept for the purpose of engaging in homosexual acts. Strangely enough, the publishers of the blasphemous abomination known as the Queen James Bible do not mention this fact whatsoever on their website. They talk about soft cloth and weak women, but there is nothing about the metaphorical use of "malakos" to signify a boy who is kept for homosexual purposes. Now why is that?

As you no doubt suspect, the fact that the Apostle Paul so bluntly states that homosexuals will not inherit the Kingdom of God is totally unacceptable to the publishers of the QJB. After all, how in the world are they going to convince gays and lesbians to purchase their corrupted Bible if its very words condemn their sinful acts? So, after explaining to us all of the whys and wherefores on their website, and letting us know that they have once again tweaked these verses to their own liking in order to -- in their words -- "reflect this clarified understanding", they present us with the following butchered translation:

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor morally weak, nor promiscuous, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God."

1 Corinthians 6:9-10, QJB

As you can see, that nasty, offensive word "effeminate" has been zapped by the publishers, and has been replaced with the much more gentle -- or should I say soft and neutral -- phrase "morally weak". Through this unwarranted edit, these people have totally knocked the punch out of that part of the verse, by replacing "effeminate" with a phrase which does not even fit the definition that is provided by the lexicon. In my opinion, it is totally out of place with the rest of the words that are used in this verse. In other words, in the original version of the verse, on both sides of "effeminate" we find some equally harsh words which are used to describe some serious sins which will prevent one from inheriting the Kingdom of God. However, in this updated QJB abomination, right in the middle of all of these harsh words, we now find this ambiguous phrase "morally weak".

Wait a minute! Haven't the publishers of the Queen James Bible been trying to pound into our heads that one of their primary goals is to remove all "interpretive ambiguity" from these particular verses? So what happened? Why are they now contradicting their own stated goals and backtracking? All of the other words in the verse have very specific meanings. We know what a fornicator is. We know what an idolater does. We know what adultery is. We know what a thief does. We know what drunks do. And on and on it goes. We also know what an effeminate person is, but they just had to take that one out because it is too specific and too offensive to homosexuals. Thus we get the nondescript "morally weak" in its place.

In fact, as you can see, these hypocrites do this not once, but twice in the very same verse. The harsh phrase "abusers of themselves with mankind" has likewise been expunged from the verse, and replaced with another very ambiguous, neutral word: "promiscuous". Who is being promiscuous? Exactly how are they being promiscuous? We have absolutely no idea. Is this their idea of a "clarified understanding"? Rather than clarify this verse, the QJB publishers have in fact clouded the issue even more; and intentionally, no less. What these misguided deceivers have in fact done is totally remove any hint or mention of homosexuality from these verses. As we have seen, that has been their stated goal all along. They want to make it impossible for the reader -- that is, gay and lesbian readers -- to find any hint of homosexuality in any of these Bible verses.

Please go to part four for the continuation of this series.

If you are like me, by this time, I suspect that your jaw has probably dropped at least a few times. The audacity of the Queen James Bible publishers to so seriously tamper with God's Holy Word is outrageous. It is mind-blowing. It is as if they have absolutely no fear of God. They seem to think that it is a light thing to alter the Word of the Lord. By this point, they have become so bold in their willingness to, ahem, "clarify" God's Word, that in this next edit, they do not even make any serious attempt to convince us why it was -- in their view -- necessary to change this verse. The verse in question is 1 Timothy 1:10. In the Authorized King James Version of the Bible, this verse reads as follows:

"For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;"
1 Timothy 1:10, KJV

As you can see, the serious challenge for the publishers of the Queen James Bible is the cutting phrase "them that defile themselves with mankind". My friends, you know the drill. You already know exactly what the Apostle Paul means. He already told us in 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 with the phrase "nor abusers of themselves with mankind". You already realize that Paul is simply paraphrasing the two verses that are found in the Old Testament Book of Leviticus where we are told "Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination" and "If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination".

While I do not believe that this is the case -- at least it should not be at this point in our discussion -- if you still have any doubts that the Apostle Paul is again referring to the sinful act of homosexuality, consider the fact that the two phrases "nor abusers of themselves with mankind" and "for them that defile themselves with mankind" are derived from the very same Greek word that we examined earlier; that is, "arsenokoites". Case closed. So how do the publishers of the blasphemous abomination known as the Queen James Bible treat this troublesome verse? Are you ready?:

"For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;"
1 Timothy 1:10, QJB

Unbelievable, isn't it? These deceivers simply choose to cut in half the offending phrase, and remove the most revealing part of it from the verse entirely; that is, "with mankind". Once again we clearly see that they are contradicting what they claim to have set out to do. Their website repeatedly informs us that their objective in creating this blasphemous abomination is to remove any "interpretive ambiguity", and to supposedly provide us with a "clear understanding" of these various verses.

The truth of the matter is that the more that we examine how they have butchered the Authorized King James Version of the Bible, the more we come to realize that what these publishers really mean by "clear understanding", is forcing QJB readers to understand these various verses only in the way that they -- meaning the publishers -- want them to understand them. Furthermore, these unknown publishers have likewise clearly demonstrated that they are willing to do whatever it takes, including inserting words, changing words, omitting words, and moving phrases, in order to achieve their misguided and devilish objective. These people have repeatedly revealed their total disregard for the sanctity of God's Word.

My friends, I do not really believe that I need to inform you that "for them that defile themselves with mankind" is a much clearer phrase than just "for them that defile themselves". With the latter phrase, we have absolutely no idea how these people are really defiling themselves. In contrast, with the original phrase that is found in the time-honored KJV Bible, we know and understand exactly how these people are defiling themselves. They are doing it by engaging in homosexual acts with other men.

"With mankind" is the so-called "killer phrase" that we find in half of these Bible verses, and that is the phrase that the misguided publishers of the QJB are forced to change or remove, because that one phrase alone emphasizes that these sinful men are performing these vile sexual acts with other men. They are homosexuals or gays, and that is what the QJB publishers don't want their readers to know. They want them to believe that the verses just refer to ancient male temple prostitutes, which is a lie.

The unknown individuals who are behind the QJB want to push the context of these verses far back into the past, so that the consciences of modern gays and lesbians are not pricked by the conviction of God's Holy Spirit. By doing these evil things, whether they realize it or not, these publishers in fact become facilitators of, as well as accomplices to, the same sexual sins. They are encouraging gay and lesbian sexual acts; because in their own deception, they believe that there is nothing wrong with performing such vile acts. Quite to the contrary, in the first chapter of his Epistles to the Romans, the Apostle Paul clearly informs us that to engage in these wicked, unclean sexual acts is to dishonour our bodies, as we see by this verse:

"Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:"
Romans 1:24, KJV

Please carefully notice that Paul uses the phrase "between themselves". As we saw in part three with our discussion of verses twenty-six and twenty-seven, Paul is talking about men with men, and women with women. You may recall that he informs us that "leaving the natural use" -- meaning male with female -- they resort to male with male, and female with female.

Although I am confident that it is rather apparent to most of my Christian readers, allow me to make a point regarding the publishers' repeated efforts to narrowly define all of these verses by forcefully associating them with male temple prostitutes, and ancient pagan idolatry. The truth is that it does not matter whether these sexual acts -- regardless of whether they are gay or lesbian in nature -- occur in an ancient pagan temple, or in the back seat of a car, or in a theater, or in a hotel room, or in someone's bedroom. God's Word teaches us that they are sinful, they are abominable, they are filthy and disgusting, and they are morally wrong.

Furthermore, anyone who continues to engage in these filthy perversions, will eventually have serious consequences to pay, unless they repent of their wickedness. That is what all of these verses are telling us. Let me remind you again that Paul writes that such unrepentant persons "shall not inherit the kingdom of God". Do you honestly believe this in your heart? Then repent of your wickedness today, and right now!

So what explanation do the publishers offer for this latest change in their blasphemous abomination? As I noted a moment ago, they barely blink an eye as they offer a one-sentence, response. They are apparently so confident that that they have convinced us to see things their way, and they are so sure that we must agree with all of their previous misguided edits, that they seem to feel that we do not require or need any explanation, other than the following:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Given the context and theme of all our edits, we have changed 'defile themselves with mankind' to simply 'defile themselves'."

----- End Quote -----

That's it. That is all they say regarding why they made such a serious change to God's Word. They are on such a deceptive roll, that they are even beyond seeing what is wrong with the statement. They are so far out in left field in a spiritual sense, and so numb to feeling the conviction of God's Spirit, that they obviously see nothing wrong with simply going chop, chop; and away goes "with mankind". As I explain in a number of my other articles, such as the controversial "Pornography: Flee Youthful Lusts!", the attitude of these publishers is clearly revealed in such verses as the following:

"This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness."
Ephesians 4:17-19, KJV

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;"
1 Timothy 4:1-2, KJV

Please notice some of the descriptive phrases that Paul uses in the previous verses. He speaks of having our understanding darkened, becoming ignorant -- or lacking in knowledge -- and suffering from spiritual blindness in our hearts. Please note what Paul writes next to further emphasize what a terrible state this is. He says that people become "past feeling". In other words, as I mentioned a moment ago, they become numb to the conviction of God's Spirit speaking to their mind, and to their rebellious heart.

In that second set of verses, that is exactly what Paul means when he talks about their conscience being "seared with a hot iron". I believe he is describing the process of cauterization. When a doctor cauterizes a wound with a hot iron, electricity, or with some other agent, not only does the tissue become very scarred, but the nerve endings are deadened as well, so that the person can no longer feel anything in that part of their body. This was a common practice in times past. It helped to prevent infection, stopped the bleeding, and caused a wound to heal more quickly. Of course, it was also very painful as well, but nevertheless necessary. This appears to be the sad condition of these QJB publishers. They have succumbed to deception and spiritual blindness, and now their goal is to infect others with their same spiritual disease.

The final verse which was placed on the chopping block of the unknown publishers of this blasphemous abomination called the Queen James Bible is Jude 1:7. In the Authorized King James Version of the Bible it reads as follows:

"Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire."
Jude 1:7, KJV

Jude's very obvious and clear intention in writing the above verse is to tell us that if we are smart, we will take heed to the serious lesson which can and should be learned from the fiery destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. He informs us that God used those wicked cities to set an example for us, so that we will not indulge ourselves in the same sexual sins as they did. The way that the publishers of the Queen James Bible choose to deal with this verse is very strange, as well as deceptive. They use kind of a bait-and-switch tactic, or a red herring, we might say. In their Bible, the previous verse is translated as follows:

"Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after nonhuman flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire."
Jude 1:7, QJB

On their web page, the publishers offer the following, brief explanation regarding why they changed the word "strange" to "nonhuman":

----- Begin Quote -----

"Given our clarification of the story of Sodom, we chose to highlight the fact that the male mob in Sodom raped angels, which is "strange" in that it is nonhuman."

----- End Quote -----

According to Thayer's Greek English Lexicon, in the KJV, the word "strange" is derived from the Greek word "heteros". This word means another, other or different. As many of you will obviously recognize, "heteros" forms the root of such words as "heterosexual", as in a heterosexual marriage. This of course refers to the God-blessed marriage of two persons of the opposite -- or different -- sex. This is apparently why the KJV translators chose to use the word "strange"; that is, because the two Angelic Visitors to Sodom consisted of a different kind of flesh.

Looking at it from this perspective, we might agree that it is acceptable for the QJB publishers to replace "strange" with "nonhuman". After all, the Angels were indeed nonhuman. However, by doing this, they are intentionally employing a few very deceptive tactics. First of all, as you can see by their own explanation, they are continuing to insist that what the homosexuals wanted to do to the Angels should not be classified as sexual acts, but rather as acts which were intended to dominate the Angels, akin to prison rape. As I explained earlier in this series, this is utterly false.

As we discussed in part two, a chief concern of these QJB publishers in their treatment of Genesis 19:5 is to minimize the fact that the men and boys of Sodom were homosexuals. We saw earlier that these people are convinced that the actual sin of the people of Sodom was that they bullied the Angels, and not that they were gay. To reiterate, I find it rather ludicrous that these QJB publishers would even promote the belief that God destroyed the cities of the plain because the inhabitants were bullies.

At any rate, in Genesis 19:5, they tried to switch the focus of our attention from the fact that the people were gay, to something else. With Jude 1:7, they are employing a similar tactic. There was really no need to change the word "strange" to "nonhuman". In fact, the change is totally unwarranted, because by any stretch of the imagination, "heteros" does not mean "nonhuman". It means other or different, as in the other sex. In the ninety-nine times that "heteros" is found in the New Testament, forty-two times it is translated as "other", and forty-three times it is translated as "another". Three times it is translated as "other thing".

That being the case, and being as "heteros" doesn't even mean "nonhuman", why did the QJB publishers choose to make this word change? Aside from the fact that they did it in order to de-emphasize homosexuality, and to emphasize their own wayward doctrine regarding prison rape, I suspect that it was done in order to switch the focus of our attention in the verse. If you still do not understand what I am saying here, consider the following.

In the original KJV version of the verse, our attention is focused on the dire warning that is contained in the verse: "Do not engage in homosexual acts, or you might end up like Sodom and Gomorrah!" That is Jude's intention. However, by changing the verse to read "nonhuman flesh", they realize that their readers' attention will be drawn to that part of the verse. That phrase will serve as a distraction, and will draw people away from the true intent of the verse, which is to serve as a serious warning to us all. Think about it. So many people are into aliens and UFO's and other ridiculous New Age weirdness these days, that seeing "nonhuman flesh" in that verse will immediately attract their attention; and they may possibly miss what the verse is truly about. It is about the danger of engaging in a homosexual lifestyle.

In their closing remarks that are located near the bottom of their web page, the publishers of the blasphemous Queen James Bible further reveal the level of their own deception with the following:

----- Begin Quote -----

The Queen James Bible resolves any homophobic interpretations of the Bible, but the Bible is still filled with inequality and even contradiction that we have not addressed. No Bible is perfect, including this one. We wanted to make a book filled with the word of God that nobody could use to incorrectly condemn God's LGBT children, and we succeeded."

----- End Quote -----

This final comment by the publishers is filled with so many lies and distortions of the truth that it is really beyond ridiculous. It is like Satan's last hurrah as he makes one final attempt to deceive the visitors to their web page.

To begin with, contrary to the publishers' misguided claims, the QJB resolves nothing, because it does not represent the actual, true Word of God. It is a vain, misguided attempt by certain unknown -- and cowardly -- individuals to rewrite certain portions of the Bible so that said verses agree with what they have chosen to believe. While the publishers claim to be scholars who are simply interested in clarifying the Scriptures, they have done the exact opposite. They have in fact intentionally blurred the truth, in order to ease their own consciences, and to financially profit from it as well. Furthermore, no true scholar would butcher the Holy Writ on a whim, in the way that these deceived people have done.

As I explain in other articles such as "Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth", to my knowledge, there are no contradictions in the Bible. Any seeming contradictions are the result of our not fully understanding what is being said, or are due to our not being familiar with the contents of the entire Bible. Quite often, there are other passages which will help to fill in the gaps, or to clarify what has been written in another place. Over the years I have repeatedly found this to be true as I have researched the Scripture in the process of writing my articles. It is for this reason that I have been a strong advocate of searching the Scriptures daily, as well as comparing verse with verse, in order to obtain a more refined understanding of God's Word. Please consider the following verses:

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

2 Timothy 2:15, KJV

"And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so."

Acts 17:10-11, KJV

Aside from the various corruptions which they have knowingly and intentionally added to their gay and lesbian-oriented designer Bible, perhaps the rest of their book is filled with the Word of God as they claim. However, as I warn in a number of other articles, that is precisely where the real danger lies; because it has long been the Devil's tactic to mix in some truth with his lies, so that naive and gullible people will willingly drink his deceptive spiritual poison. As the Apostle Paul warns us in his second Epistle to the brethren at Corinth:

"Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

2 Corinthians 2:11, KJV

While these deceivers boast that "nobody could use [the QJB] to incorrectly condemn God's LGBT children", they utterly fail to recognize that there is really no need for anyone to have to condemn lesbians, gays, bisexuals and transvestites -- LGBT for those of you who may not understand the acronym -- because through their own sinful actions, they have in fact condemned themselves. Furthermore, as we saw earlier in this series, the Scriptures clearly state that such people shall not inherit the Kingdom of God. If they won't inherit the Kingdom of God, then it becomes rather apparent that in contradiction to what these publishers claim, such people are not truly God's children. As I point out in an article of the same name, "Not Everyone is a Child of God".

God's true children endeavor to obey His Word. They do not openly defy it, flaunt their disobedience, or encourage any other person to do the same, as gays, lesbians, bisexuals and transvestites do by way of disgusting gay pride parades, by endeavoring to legalize their sinful, shameful lifestyle, and by other wicked obscenities which they purposely commit. In the case of individuals who knowingly continue in the gay and lesbian lifestyle after they have heard the truth, they are Satan's rebellious children. In the words of the Apostle Paul, such reprobates can be classified as the "children of disobedience". They are likewise hypocrites who pretend to be God-fearing, Bible-believing Christians, when clearly, they most certainly are not. After all, as the Scriptures plainly teach us, we are to be doers of the Word, and not just hearers only, as we see by the following verses:

"And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?"

Luke 6:46, KJV

"If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them."

John 13:17, KJV

"But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

James 1:22-25, KJV

"Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin."
James 4:17, KJV

"Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples, Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat: All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not."
Matthew 23:1-3, KJV

"But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also."
James 2:20-26, KJV

"Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them."
Matthew 7:20, KJV

"If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin."
John 15:22, KJV

"And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God."
John 3:19-21, KJV

As I mentioned a moment ago, in several places in Paul's Epistles, we find him using the phrase "the children of disobedience". What you will no doubt find interesting is exactly in what kind of activities these people engage, so that Paul feels inclined to refer to them as "the children of disobedience". As it turns out, the first four concern forbidden lusts of the flesh and sexual sins, as we see by these two verses:

"Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:"

Colossians 3:5-6, KJV

As most of you will already know, fornication is a general term which refers to illicit sexual intercourse which occurs outside of marriage. It encompasses a range of forbidden sexual practices, including gay and lesbian relationships. Our world is in fact full of fornicators and adulterers, and many of us have been guilty of this sin, whether we realize it or not. The word "fornication" itself is derived from the Greek word "porneia". It is easy to deduce that it is from this Greek word that we also derive the word "pornography".

In the previous verses, the word "uncleanness" is translated from the Greek word "akatharsia". This Greek word is used to describe both physical uncleanness, as well as a lack of morality. In other words, according to Thayer's Greek English Lexicon, it concerns the impurity of a lustful and profligate style of living.

Taking into consideration everything we have studied in this series regarding the writings of the Apostle Paul, as well as other Scriptures, it isn't the least bit difficult to grasp what Paul appears to be implying with the phrase "inordinate affection", particularly when we consider the other words which accompany it in these verses. The phrase itself is derived from the Greek word "pathos". While this word has a variety of meanings, in the few times that it is used in the New Testament, it has a negative connotation, and refers to depraved and vile passions. Clearly, gay and lesbian relationships involve depraved, vile passions that are accompanied by filthy, forbidden sexual acts.

The fourth and final phrase which is of concern to us in these verses is "evil concupiscence". Thayer's Greek English Lexicon informs us that the word "evil" is derived from the Greek word "kakos". This word signifies something that is of a bad, wrong, base or wicked nature. The word "concupiscence" is derived from the Greek word "epithumia". This word denotes a desire, craving or longing for that which is forbidden. In other words, an illicit lust. Taking into consideration the preponderance of Scriptural evidence which we have examined in this series, it is not difficult to conclude that gay and lesbian relationships fall under this category. In fact, as you can determine, all four of these words and phrases are descriptive of gay and lesbian sexual relationships.

While these publishers of the abominable Queen James Bible claim on their web page "we succeeded", the ugly truth of the matter is that the only thing at which they have really succeeded, is in creating a poisonous, deceptive work which will encourage and induce a lot of weak individuals to sin against and dishonor their own bodies. This is because by way of twisting and distorting the meaning of God's Truth, and by silencing what the Bible really says regarding this issue, this blasphemous tome conveys the false message that God has nothing against the gay and lesbian lifestyle, when His true Word indicates that He most certainly does.

Please go to part five for the conclusion of this series.

While we have now examined various verses in the Scriptures where gay and lesbian relationships are clearly prohibited, our discussion is still not quite complete. While one way in which we understand what is not acceptable to -- and is in fact viewed as being sinful by -- our Heavenly Father is by studying verses which plainly tell us so, there is another easy method by which we can determine what He views as being objectionable. That is simply by learning through His Word, what God has already established as His accepted standard. Stated another way, we can understand what is not acceptable to God, by knowing what is acceptable. This approach may not be as direct as the previous method, but it is nevertheless helpful.

As we discussed earlier in this series, due to their spiritual blindness, the publishers of the blasphemous abomination that they call the Queen James Bible have deluded themselves into believing that by editing the various Scriptures which we have already discussed, they have taken care of the "problem". They honestly believe that by adding words to, removing words from, changing the meanings of some words, and moving phrases in the aforementioned verses, it is now impossible to find anything in the Bible which casts a negative light on, or which in fact condemns, modern gay and lesbian sexual relations. They are so confident that they have created a bullet-proof version of the Bible which can't be used to expose the sin of these unnatural lifestyles. As they boastfully claim, "We succeeded". Really?

The fact of the matter is that even if all of the verses that they targeted were not included in the King James Version of the Bible, using the second, indirect method that I mentioned a moment ago, a Spirit-filled Christian would still be able to discern that gay and lesbian relationships are not a part of God's natural order. As I explain in other articles, the Lord has established a very clear standard in His Word, insofar as human sexual relationships are concerned.

Some gays and lesbians may argue that in the Gospels, Jesus never issued a direct condemnation of the gay and lesbian lifestyle. While it may indeed be true that the Lord did not directly teach anything regarding homosexual acts -- at least not in the Scriptures which have survived to our current time -- He did in fact address the issue in an indirect manner, as I have already explained. A Spirit-led person will recognize that the way in which Jesus did this is by confirming what had already been established since the Book of Genesis. Along the same lines, while the publishers of the QJB argue that the Epistles don't condemn homosexual acts, by comparing the verses which I have shared in this series with other verses which we find in the Epistles, we arrive at a more balanced understanding regarding what the Epistles actually teach us insofar as human sexual relationships are concerned.

So exactly what is the moral standard which God Himself has ordained and established? What consistent code of conduct do we find in the Bible from beginning to end? What was said in the Book of Genesis? What advice is given in the Proverbs? What did Jesus confirm in the Gospels? What counsel is given in the Epistles? The following verses make it very clear for anyone who has eyes to see, and ears to hear:

"And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh."
Genesis 2:23-24, KJV

"Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD."
Proverbs 18:22, KJV

"The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."
Matthew 19:3-6, KJV

"And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him. And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you? And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away. And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."
Mark 10:2-9, KJV

"What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh."

1 Corinthians 6:16, KJV

"For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh."
Ephesians 5:31, KJV

"A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;"
1 Timothy 3:2, KJV

"Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well."
1 Timothy 3:12, KJV

"If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly."
Titus 1:6, KJV

It is evident that God's ordained standard for humanity is heterosexual relationships; that is, male with female, and not male with male, or female with female. This standard is consistently taught and promoted throughout the Bible. It is also evident that while some of the Old Testament Patriarchs and kings had more than one wife, in the New Testament, both Jesus and the Apostles demonstrate a preference for one man with one wife. In fact, when certain characters of the Old Testament period did take more than one wife, it sometimes resulted in serious problems for them. For example, Abraham had to eventually forsake Hagar, plus he had to send away his other sons in order to avoid jealousy problems with the seed of faith; that is, Isaac. We are likewise aware of how King Solomon fell into deep apostasy, after he took dozens of pagan wives who led him astray.

The Bible clearly teaches that "whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing." It doesn't in any way teach that whoever finds a gay lover or a lesbian lover finds a good thing; does it? To reiterate, God's ordained natural plan for the human race, and the kind of relationship which He has in fact blessed, is a healthy, natural, heterosexual relationship; that is, one male with one female. That is the solid truth of God's Word. Do you believe this or don't you? For additional information regarding this topic, please consider reading the article entitled "Biblical Marriage Ceremonies".

The simple truth is that there is absolutely no way to even remotely construe any of the previous verses as condoning gay and lesbian so-called "civil unions" or same-sex "marriages". Is it not rather odd that the publishers of the blasphemous abomination known as the Queen James Bible make absolutely no mention of any of these verses on their website? Are they in fact not already guilty of omission and gross distortion of God's Word? Have we not already observed that through their intentional twisting of the Scriptures, they are purposely, and forcefully, trying to promote a false understanding of certain Bible verses?

By intentionally endeavoring to narrow the meanings of the verses which I have shared in this series, and by refusing to even take into consideration or mention these additional verses which address human relationships and human sexuality, the misguided publishers of the Queen James Bible purposely deceive people, promote a false gospel, and carry out their own wicked agenda; probably for the sake of profit! God help them!

These people are spiritually blind by their own choice. In fact, I don't even think that it is proper to say that they are spiritually blind. They have the entire Bible, and they know what it says. As we have already seen, their problem is that they knowingly and willfully choose to reject its holy truth, in order to promote their own agenda. As I warn my readers in many other articles, the New Testament is full of verses which warn us to beware of these deceivers and false angels of light who promote another gospel -- that is to say, a false gospel -- and another Jesus. Jesus and the Apostles were very keenly aware of the false teachers, false prophets, and wolves in sheep's clothing who crept into the flocks of the Lord, and then attempted to corrupt them by promoting a perverted and false gospel, just like the publishers of this Queen James Bible. Consider the following set of verses and be warned:

"Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them."
Matthew 7:15-20, KJV

"And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many . . . For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."
Matthew 24:11, 24, KJV

"For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect."
Mark 13:22, KJV

"Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them."
Acts 20:28-30, KJV

"Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them."
Romans 16:17, KJV

"For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

2 Corinthians 11:13-15, KJV

"I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."
Galatians 1:6-9, KJV

"And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:"
Galatians 2:4, KJV

"That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:"
Ephesians 4:14-15, KJV

"Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision."
Philippians 3:2, KJV

"As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do."
1 Timothy 1:3-4, KJV

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;"
1 Timothy 4:1-2, KJV

"If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; He is proud, knowing nothing, but dotting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself."
1 Timothy 6:3-5, KJV

"But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."
2 Timothy 3:13, KJV

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;"

2 Timothy 4:3, KJV

"Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein."
Hebrews 13:9, KJV

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction."
2 Peter 2:1, KJV

"Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world."
1 John 4:1, KJV

"Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."
2 John 1:9-11, KJV

Allow me to impart a final word to the misguided publishers of this blasphemous abomination which they disgustingly call the Queen James Bible. While I obviously do not agree with the sinful, unnatural, ungodly lifestyle which you believe in and actively promote; and while I equally do not support in the least this wretched work of yours, if you are going to demand that gays, lesbians and other liberals fork over thirty-five dollars for this tome in which you have edited eight verses out of a total of 31,102 verses which are found in the time-honored Authorized King James Version of God's Holy Word, then at least have the courtesy to show your faces, instead of lurking in the shadows as you are now doing. What are you afraid of? What do you have to hide?

To those of you who may be foolish enough to purchase a copy of this corrupt and perverted version of the Bible, please keep in mind that by doing so, not only are you helping the publishers to continue to produce it, but it is also quite possible that -- without your knowledge or consent -- you may be helping to support and promote other gay and lesbian causes as well. After all, you have no idea what the money is being used for; do you?

With these thoughts I will bring this series to a close. I trust that all of my God-fearing, Bible-believing friends have enjoyed it, learned something from it, and I pray that it has been a blessing in your life. If you have an account with Facebook, Twitter or Google+, I would really appreciate if you would take the time to click on the corresponding link that is found on this page. Please consider that just by clicking on these links, as well as by sharing my related image on my Facebook timeline, you may very well be helping to stop another young individual from becoming involved in the sinful gay and lesbian lifestyle. Thank you so very much for your consideration! May God bless you abundantly!
