As I explain in articles such as "Not Everyone is a Child of God" and "Child of the Lamb, or Child of the Goat?", God's Word makes a clear distinction between the Children of Light and the Children of Darkness. It is a black and white issue. There is no ambiguous gray area in between. In other words, there are no neutrals. Even in the Gospels, Jesus makes it clear that we are either on one side, or else we are on the other side. We are either for Him, or else we are against Him. Either we are a Child of God, or else we are a child of the Devil. We are either His sheep, or else we are Satan's goats. We are either good wheat, or else we are tares which are only fit for destruction. Consider the following verses which verify these points:

"Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Matthew 7:22-23, KJV

"He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad."

Matthew 12:30, KJV

"Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn."

Matthew 13:24-30, KJV

"When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal."

As we learn in the previous verses, there are actual two harvests which are to take place. This double harvest consists of the wheat and the tares, the sheep and the goats, and the Children of God and the children of the Devil. It is likewise symbolically mentioned in the fourteenth chapter of the Book of Revelation. In the following verses, we are told that one "like unto the Son of man" who wears a golden crown -- who is more than likely Jesus -- reaps the Earth. I believe that this represents the harvest of the good wheat; that is, the sheep who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior. Consider:

"And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs."

Revelation 14:14-20, KJV

As you can see, after Jesus rescues His children -- that is, the saved sheep or good wheat -- from the Earth during the first harvest, we are next told that another Angel comes out of the Temple in Heaven in order to reap the Earth a second time. Whereas the first event represents the harvest of God's Grace and Mercy, this second event symbolizes the harvest of His Wrath. This harvest reaps the grapes of wrath, which are synonymous with the tares and the goats. In his Epistles, the Apostle Paul refers to these people as the children of wrath and the children of disobedience. They are, of course, the unbelieving children of the Devil who have not believed in or accepted the Gospel and Testimony of Jesus Christ. Consider the following verses:

"Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others."

Ephesians 2:2-3, KJV

"Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience."

Ephesians 5:6, KJV

"For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:"

Colossians 3:6, KJV

Generally speaking, we can say that the previous verses are referring to the nonbelievers of all ages who have rejected the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As a result of their stubborn disobedience to God's Will, they do in fact make themselves subject to God's Wrath. Exactly what is God's Will for all of humanity? As Jesus Himself informs us in the following verses, it is that we accept Christ as the only recognized Mediator between God and man, who died for the sins of the world in accordance with His Father's Will, that we might inherit Everlasting Life. This is the highest Will of God. By rejecting this truth, the exact opposite happens. people invite God's Wrath upon themselves:

"Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work."

John 4:34, KJV

"Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent . . . All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

John 6:29, 37-40, KJV

"Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

Galatians 1:3-5, KJV

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

2 Peter 3:9, KJV

"And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

Romans 12:2, KJV

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven."

Matthew 7:21, KJV

"For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother."

Mark 3:35, KJV

"And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

1 John 2:17, KJV

"For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise."

Hebrews 10:36, KJV

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

John 3:36, KJV

In his Epistle to the Romans, the Apostle Paul mentions this very same Divine Wrath which is meted out against all ungodly and rebellious men who reject Christ -- and thus ignore the Will of God -- when he writes the following:

"For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;"

Romans 1:18, KJV

Thus, in the previous verse set, Paul reminds us that prior to our coming to Christ, we were in danger of experiencing God's Wrath when he writes "we all . . . were by nature the children of wrath".

However, as I explain in the series "The Great Tribulation and the Rapture", as well as in "Not Everyone is a Child of God", it is my personal belief that in both a historical and a Biblical sense, the previous verses actually refer to one specific group of people. As some of you will already know, Jesus had a number of very negative things to say regarding these people, as did some of the other writers of the New Testament, such as the Apostles John and Paul. Who were and are these children of wrath and children of disobedience? I am convinced that they are in fact the unbelieving Jews who Jesus Himself informs us have lost the Kingdom, due to their stubborn unbelief and sound rejection of their one true Messiah.

If you doubt that this is so, then please consider the harsh truth concerning the unbelieving Jews that is revealed in the following verses. Jesus, John and Paul are all talking to and writing about their very own Jewish brethren, whom they had to deal with day after day, and year after year. They were constantly hounded by these antichrists:

"And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom [the Jews who falsely claim to be God's children] shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Matthew 8:11-12, KJV

"Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you [from the unbelieving Jews], and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof."

Matthew 21:43, KJV

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves."

Matthew 23:15, KJV

". . . Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it . . . He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God."

John 8:39-44, 47, KJV

"For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God."

Romans 2:28-29, KJV

"Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed."

Romans 9:6-8, KJV

"In whom the god of this world [Satan] hath blinded the minds of them [the Jews] which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

2 Corinthians 4:4, KJV

"I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan."

Revelation 2:9, KJV

"Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee."

Revelation 3:9, KJV

"Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son."

1 John 2:22, KJV

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world."

1 John 4:3, KJV

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist."

2 John 1:7, KJV

Please carefully notice Jesus' clear-cut responses in the previous verses. In one place He states "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity"; and in another He outright says to the unbelieving Jews "Ye are not of God". The Lord also indirectly implies that they are not really the children of Abraham, and that neither Abraham or God is their true father. He in fact tells them directly that the Devil is their real father, that they are the children of hell, and that their synagogue is the synagogue of Satan.

The Apostle Paul -- who informs us in his Epistle that he learned from no man, but directly from Jesus Himself -- is of the same opinion. As a former self-righteous, legalistic Pharisee who prided himself in his obedience to the Law, he knew his Jewish brethren quite well. Yet look at what Paul writes in the previous verse set. He says "they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children . . . They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed." Seven chapters earlier Paul likewise gives his "he is not a Jew" message.

In short, Paul is preaching the very same message that Jesus gave the unbelieving Jews in the eighth chapter of the Gospel of John. He is saying "Just because you are of the physical seed of Abraham, and just because you live in Israel, does not make you a true child of Abraham, or a true Jew." Paul tells his unbelieving Jewish brethren that they are in fact the children of disobedience, and the children of wrath. In his Epistle to the Galatians, Paul makes it even more clear that the true children of Abraham are those people who are in Christ. Just as Jesus taught, Paul writes that we are the true seed of Abraham and "heirs according to the promise". Just as Abraham believed by faith -- and thus fathered his son Isaac in his old age -- we Christians are likewise the seed of faith. That is what Jesus taught, and that is what Paul taught. Consider these verses:

"Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham . . . That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith . . . And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Galatians 3:7-9, 14, 29, KJV

So you see, this is what God really meant when He told the Patriarch Abraham thousands of years ago that "In thee shall all nations be blessed." He was referring to the fact that from Abraham's seed of faith -- that is, Isaac -- would arise the Messiah who would one day shed His innocent Blood so that the world might be saved from the Wrath of God to come. But, when the Messiah finally did arrive on Earth, and fulfilled His Divine Mission here, it was His very own Jewish brethren who rejected Him for the most part. As we learned earlier, to reject the Son is to incur the Wrath of God.

As I explain in a number of other articles such as "Psalm 83 War False Doctrine Exposed" and "Hell, the Lake of Fire and Universalism", the stubborn Jews -- both the Jewish religious leadership, as well as the common Jews, who rejected Christ -- felt God's full Wrath in 70 AD, when Roman General Titus and his legions, along with local allies which included the armies of King Herod Agrippa II, destroyed Jerusalem, burned down the Temple, and deported the Jews to different parts of the Roman Empire. These events occurred in the midst of the First Jewish-Roman War, which began in 66 AD, and ended seven years later in 73 AD.

Different historical sources state that somewhere between six hundred thousand to about one million Jews died from disease, famine, crucifixion and other causes, as a result of the war. Many of these deaths could have been avoided, had it not been for the stubbornness of the Zealots and the Sicarii who took over the Temple Compound, locked down Jerusalem, and defied the Romans. The fact that the Romans had built a siege wall all around Jerusalem, and laid siege to the city for months on end, only aggravated the situation, and doomed the Jews who were trapped inside. However, as Jesus had warned them in the Gospels, this is the price that they would pay as a result of their rejection and murder of their own Messiah.

In light of the truth concerning the unbelieving Jews which is so clearly revealed in the previous verses, I honestly do not understand how any Bible-knowledgeable Christian can continue to insist that they are God's "Chosen People". To do so, in my opinion, is to intentionally ignore the truth of God's Word, to put on spiritual blinders, and to deceive oneself. In fact, it is to outright contradict what Jesus Himself says regarding His unbelieving Jewish brethren; not only in the Gospels, but in the Book of Revelation as well. For any Christian to do this is simply baffling.

As we learned earlier, there are no neutrals. A person simply cannot be a Child of God and a child of the Devil at the same time. We are either one or the other. If we embrace Christ, we are the Children of God. If we do not embrace Christ after we have been given an opportunity to do so, then we are the children of the Devil by our own conscious choice. Jesus could not have said it any more clearly than that. Despite the long centuries which have passed since 70 AD when God's Wrath was felt by the Jews in such a very powerful way, the attitude of the vast majority of the Jews towards Jesus has not changed much at all.

As the Apostle John wrote in his Epistles almost two thousand years ago, the Jews remain as antichrist as ever, and continue to deny their Messiah for the most part. Perhaps this is why in his Epistle to the Romans, the Apostle Paul reminds us that despite their numbers, only a remnant will be saved according to the Prophet Isaiah, as we see here:

"Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:"

Romans 9:27, KJV

As I explain in my 1998 three-part series entitled "The Woman in the Wilderness and the 144,000", if we accept the belief that the 144,000 sealed servants of God who are mentioned in the Book of Revelation refers to our modern times, and to the total number of Jews who will accept Jesus Christ during this present time, this means that based upon an estimated maximum worldwide Jewish population of fourteen million -- most of whom live in the United States and Israel -- barely one per cent of the entire worldwide Jewish population will be saved.

On the other hand, if the 144,000 sealed servants of God refers to the total number of Jews who will accept Jesus Christ within the State of Israel alone, then based on the current estimated population of just under eight million Jews, the figure rises to 1.8 per cent who will eventually be saved. In other words, if we embrace this interpretation, it means that 98-99% of the Jews who are alive today will never accept Jesus Christ. They will remain as stubborn and as adamant in their rejection of Jesus Christ, as they have always been, and that is truly sad. God has been so merciful to them, and yet they continue to rebel against Him. They defy the Will of God.

Some pro-Israel Christians may argue "Wait a minute! Didn't the Apostle Paul write 'all Israel shall be saved'? How then can you claim that only one to two per cent will accept Jesus while the rest will remain against Christ?" Yes indeed. Paul did in fact say this in his Epistle to the Romans. Here are the verses:

"For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief: Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy. For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all."

Romans 11:25-32, KJV

Stop and think about this. Paul is not going to quote from the Prophet Isaiah and inform his readers that a remnant of Israel will be saved, and then turn around two chapters later and contradict himself by saying that "all Israel shall be saved". Therefore, when he uses the word "all" he must mean something other than what appears on the surface. The key to understanding this issue is to realize that we cannot just choose to ignore the other things that Paul wrote regarding this issue in this very same Epistle. If we take everything as a whole, what we really end up with is the following:

"For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh . . . for they are not all Israel, which are of Israel . . . though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved . . . and so all Israel shall be saved."

If you are confused by the previous quotes from Paul's letter to the Romans, allow me to explain to you how I personally have come to understand them. As we have already seen, just because a Jew claims to be a Jew, is circumcised, lives in the State of Israel, and follows Halachic law, does not mean that he is really a Jew, or a part of the real Israel. If he chooses to reject Jesus Christ, then he is in fact a false Jew, and not a part of the true seed of Abraham, which is the seed of faith. Furthermore, he is an antichrist to boot. This covers the first two parts of the previous excerpts above.

The Apostle Paul then informs us that a remnant shall be saved. Obviously, this cannot mean the entire population, as otherwise, it would not be a remnant. If we accept the above interpretation regarding the 144,000, this suggests that this remnant will consist of about 1.8 per cent of the current population of the State of Israel. These people represent the true Jews, and the true Israel. All of the rest of Israel's Jewish population -- the other 98% -- are false Jews who will never come to accept Jesus Christ. So when this remnant which consists of just under two per cent of the State of Israel's Jewish population is finally saved, all Israel will be saved, because they are the only real Israel who God recognizes, and not the other ninety-eight per cent who are false Jews, of the synagogue of Satan, and lying usurpers.

This is my current understanding of these verses. Whether or not you agree with it, I will leave up to you to decide. But I will say, that as far as I am concerned, this understanding is in perfect agreement with what Jesus said in the seventh chapter of the Gospel of Matthew. Consider these verses:

"Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

Matthew 7:13-14, KJV

To reiterate, the modern State of Israel is a nation which is full of false Jews who claim to be the descendants of the Patriarch Abraham, and the true Jews. While some of them may possibly be genetically related to the Patriarch Abraham, it still doesn't really matter; because as Jesus, John and Paul all said quite clearly, if they reject Christ, they are both false Jews and antichrists, and neither Jesus or His Father recognize them as the real Israel. Said Jews are not the true children of Abraham, and they are not true Children of God.

If you still insist on doubting this truth, then I encourage you to re-read some of the previous verses, and allow God's Spirit to speak to your heart concerning them. As Jesus Himself said in the Book of Revelation, "which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie". This is in fact the origin of the false Jews who live in Israel today. It is the very same spirit of antichrist from two thousand years ago.

To add insult to injury, these false Jews of Israel, who are not even the true seed of Abraham, or the true Chosen People, but rather are deceivers and usurpers, have fooled so many pro-Israel Christians, who due to their own gullibility and naivety -- and their lack of a proper understanding of some of the Scriptures, I might add -- suck up all of the Zionist propaganda emanating from Israel, as well as from the pulpits of their misguided, pro-Israel Christian leaders.

These misguided Christian brethren constantly remind me that Jesus was a Jew, the Apostles were all Jewish, and the first Disciples were Jewish as well. This is indeed Biblically and historically true, and it would be foolish to deny it. They all were in fact true Children of God, and true children of Abraham, because they believed in Jesus by faith. The modern antichrist Jews of Israel are as divorced from the original founders of our faith, as the Arctic is separated from its polar opposite, Antarctica. That is how vast the difference is between the believing Jews of the First Century, and the unbelieving false Jewish usurpers of the 21st Century who now reside in Israel. Do you understand now? Or do you still prefer to be deceived?

These very same misguided brethren also constantly remind me how God gave the land of Canaan to the Jews millennia ago, and that this is why the modern Jews have a right to Israel. Again, this is also historically and Biblically accurate. But tell me brethren: Why is it that you purposely choose to ignore the rest of history, the rest of God's dealings with the stubborn Jews, and what He has repeatedly done to them as a result of their continual disobedience to His Word and His Will? I discuss this issue in considerable detail in the series entitled "The Fruits of Disobedience".

The fact of the matter is that on two occasions, God used the heathen nations to destroy Jerusalem and the Temple. Not only that, but on three occasions, He kicked them out of the land which He had given to them. So tell me, if it is God's Will for the unbelieving false Jews to dwell in the land of Israel, why does He keep kicking them out? Is there possibly a clear message in these events that some people are simply unwilling to see, because it goes against what they want to believe?

No doubt, the automatic response that will be parroted by some of my Christian brethren, is that God gave Israel back to the Jews in 1948. They will even point to a particular Old Testament prophecy and claim that the events of 1948 represent fulfilled prophecy. Are you certain? Some of you have become so deceived regarding so many other things, is it possible that you have been deceived by this modern lie as well? While I will be discussing the events of 1948 later on in this series, for the moment, allow me to suggest that you consider reading the series entitled "Sorry . . . Jesus is Not Coming at Any Moment".

The real question is this: Are the Jews back in Israel as a result of the Will of God, or as a result of the political will of man? If it is the latter, and not the former, is it also possible that we will see a repeat of history sometime in the not-too-distant future? It is an interesting thought, isn't it? Time will tell.

The tragedy is that some of these dear Christian brethren are so deceived, that when someone -- such as myself -- attempts to tell them the truth, and to expose this modern Jewish deception, they become upset and offended, and the accusations of picking on the Jews, and being antisemitic, begin to fly. As a rebuttal to such claims, I have written an article called "Accusations of Antisemitism: My Personal Response", for those of you who may be interested in reading it.

At any rate, these dear Christian brethren have been so well programmed by their Zionists handlers over the years -- such as misguided Pastor John Hagee's CUFI organization in the USA -- that they do not know how else to respond, other than to immediately come to the defense of Israel and the Jews. These misguided Christian brethren are so predictable. They parrot the same worn-out responses over and over again, while never realizing their error. I find it truly sad.

If you happen to be of this particular persuasion, trust me when I say that if you really understood what the antichrist Jews think of you behind your back, how they view Jesus, and what they think of the New Testament Scriptures, it is quite probable that you would be extremely offended. You would no doubt be shocked, and you would feel betrayed. As a starting point, I invite you to read some of the material that can be found in the "Non-BBB Articles" section of the BBB website. This includes a full copy of the Protocols of the Wise Elders of Zion and other related articles. I will include links at the end of this series. Concerning my own opinion regarding the Protocols, please consider reading my four-part series entitled "The International Jew and the Protocols of Zion".

Even if you reject the Protocols of the Wise Elders of Zion as being true, and view them as a forgery -- as many people do -- I still encourage you to study the related resources that are located on the same page, right below the Protocols of the Wise Elders of Zion. These resources will demonstrate to you what goes on in the Jewish mind and heart. Not only that, but they include actual quotes from prominent Zionist Jews, as well as from the Babylonian Talmud.

For my readers who are not familiar with it, the Babylonian Talmud is basically a commented version of the Old Testament which contains many rabbinic comments and interpretations of the Old Testament Scriptures. In fact, the Babylonian Talmud is the real holy book of Orthodox Jews. Trust me when I say that it is a very disgusting, offensive book that is filled with a lot of hatred for and prejudice against the Gentiles, such as you and I. Just like other nonbelievers, the Jewish heart is very dark, when it does not have the Light of Jesus Christ.

Sadly, quite recently we were once again reminded of the antichrist spirit which pervades Israel and her government. As you may have heard, in July of 2012, Victor Kalish -- who is the head of a Christian publishing society -- distributed copies of a special edition of the Bible to the members of the Israeli Parliament, or Knesset. In a personal note that Kalish included with the Bibles, he stated that this edition contains thousands of references which shed light on the Old Testament Scriptures, helps to understand them, and shows the close connection between the Old and New Testaments. In other words, Kalish's edition of the Bible reveals how many of the Old Testament prophecies are fulfilled in the New Testament, through Jesus Christ, according to an article which appeared in The European Union Times.

Tragically, Michael Ben-Ari -- a member of the Knesset, and a member of the National Union alliance -- didn't appreciate this enlightening gift which the Lord had bestowed upon him through Kalish's Bible society. In his blind rage, Ben-Ari interpreted Kalish's kind Christian gesture as nothing more than a provocation. In fact, the news article states that in his anger, Ben-Ari tore up the New Testament portion of the Bible and promptly threw it in the trash. As he did so, his following antichrist remarks were caught by a video camera:

----- Begin Quote -----

"This abominable book [the New Testament] brought about the murder of millions of Jews in the Inquisition and autos da fe . . . This is a provocation by church missionaries, and there is no doubt that this book, and those who sent it, belong in the garbage can of history."

----- End Quote -----

For those of you who may not be familiar with it, an "auto da fe" -- or "act of faith" in our English language -- refers to a Roman Catholic ritual of public penance involving condemned alleged heretics and apostates, which took place during the Spanish and Portuguese Inquisitions. Once the Inquisition -- that is, the church tribunal -- had determined the punishment, the sentence was executed by the civil authorities. While an "auto da fe" involved both the act of public penance, as well as the execution of the sentence which followed it, being as the actual sentence often involved being burned at the stake, the term eventually came to symbolize the actual act of being burned at the stake, rather than the penance that preceded it.

If you are interested in learning more about my own views regarding the atrocities which were committed by the Roman Catholic Church down through the centuries, please refer to some of my other articles such as "Pontifex Maximus: Pagan High Priest to Roman Catholic Pope" and "Lies and Deceptions of the Roman Catholic Church".

According to Israel's NRG news website, upon learning of the incident involving Ben-Ari, Tzipi Hovotely -- who is a member of PM Benjamin Netanyahu's governing party -- sent a request to the speaker of the Knesset, in which he urged him to ban the distribution of "missionary" materials. The government's reaction to this particular incident reminds me so much of the 1977 Anti-Missionary Bill, which still remains in effect in Israel, as far as I know.

For those of you who may not be familiar with this antichrist Israeli law, it is technically known as Bill 5738-1977. It was intentionally passed by the Israeli Knesset on December 25, 1977, and the public slur against Jesus Christ should be duly noted by all Christians, even though Jesus was not really born on that date. At any rate, based upon Bill 5738-1977, if the Israeli government chooses to enforce it, a Christian can face up to a five-year prison term if he or she endeavors to convert a Jewish person to the Christian faith. Furthermore, if there is any evidence that any form of persuasion may have been used, the person accused will find it even more difficult to not be found "guilty". In fact, even distributing Christian Gospel tracts within Israel will attract the ire of Orthodox Jewish authorities.

As I said earlier, while many misguided pro-Israel American Christians may remain blissfully ignorant of these facts -- or may purposely choose to ignore them -- this is the real, antichrist Israel that they fervently support. I just don't understand such willful blindness.

Regarding Knesset member Michael Ben-Ari, as I told some of my online friends, while God could certainly have mercy on him and change his hardened heart, and remove the scales from his spiritually-blind eyes, just as He did with Saul on the road to Damascus, it does not change the fact that at this current time, and until he does repent -- assuming that ever happens -- he is just as much antichrist, and fights against God and Jesus Christ, as the rest of the unbelieving Jews in Israel and elsewhere.

As I have mentioned a number of times before, when we reject the truth of God's Word regarding the Messianic Role of Jesus Christ -- as MK Michael Ben-Ari has done -- we likewise push away and reject the Mercy that God desires to have upon us. We are basically turning down His offer of Salvation and saying, "No, I don't want your free gift. Take it back." Consider what the Prophet Jonah cried out as he endured his affliction after he had run away from the mission which the Lord had given him to do:

"They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy."
Jonah 2:8, KJV

That is basically what MK Ben-Ari is doing, and in a very public way no less. As a public servant in Israel, he is setting a very poor example. He has believed Satan's lies, and rejected the truth concerning Christ that is found in the New Testament. By doing so, not only has he rejected God's Mercy, but he has indirectly called God's Word a lie. In his obvious state of delusion, Ben-Ari claims that to be reminded of what Jesus did for us all is a provocation. Has he stopped to consider how much he has provoked the Lord to anger with his public, foolish act of rebellion? In two of the Gospels, Jesus informs us that the one unforgivable sin is blasphemy against the Holy Ghost. Consider these verses:

"Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come."

Matthew 12:31-32, KJV

"Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:"

Mark 3:28-29, KJV

Exactly what is meant by blasphemy against the Holy Ghost? As I explain in articles such as "The Judgment of Angels, Demons and Men", "Beholding the Evil and the Good" and "Love, Mercy, Forgiveness and Chastisement", it is my personal belief that the Holy Ghost -- or Holy Spirit -- is the extension of God the Father Himself. I believe that it is the very essence of His Being. It is His Presence in some intangible form. It is a Creative Force and a Power which proceeds from the Central Throne of God Almighty, which miraculously creates, heals and empowers those people who are touched by, or filled with it.

The Holy Spirit is the same Force and Power which was present at the moment of Creation, and it is the same Force and Power which resided within the very body of Jesus Christ during His Earthly Ministry. Furthermore, it is also the same Force and Power which can dwell within a saved Christian, according to God's Divine Purposes. The Holy Ghost is also our Comforter and Teacher. Consider the following verses which confirm all of these points:

"And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

Genesis 1:2, KJV

"The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life."

Job 33:4, KJV

"And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God."

Luke 1:35, KJV

"And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:"

Matthew 3:16, KJV

"For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him."

John 3:34, KJV

"For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily."

Colossians 2:9, KJV

"But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you."

Matthew 12:28, KJV

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."

John 14:12, KJV

"But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you."

John 14:26, KJV

"But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:"

John 15:26, KJV

"For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ."

Romans 15:18-19, KJV

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are."

1 Corinthians 3:16-17, KJV

So, because the Holy Spirit is an extension of the Father, it is my view that to blaspheme the Holy Ghost is the same as blaspheming the Father too. But exactly how is it that a person blasphemes against the Holy Ghost? Because it is the Spirit of Truth, it bears testimony to the fact that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God who was born in the flesh, and who died for the sins of the world. To call this truth a lie is to blaspheme against the Holy Ghost, and thus call God a liar. This is why it is the one unpardonable sin.

In contrast, the spirit of antichrist is the exact opposite. As we learned in part one, it denies and resists the very truth which I have just shared with you concerning Christ. It is in fact the spirit of Satan. Let me share those verses with you again:

"Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son."

1 John 2:22, KJV

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world."

1 John 4:3, KJV

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist."

2 John 1:7, KJV

For any Bible-believing Christian, it should be plain to see that this is precisely the unclean spirit which motivated MK Michael Ben-Ari in both his words and his actions; and it is the very same lying spirit that is behind many unbelieving Jews; because as Jesus said in John chapter eight, they are of their father the Devil, who is the Father of Lies. This is why I view them as being antichrist. They are against Christ, and as we learned in part one, Jesus said:

"He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad."

Matthew 12:30, KJV

In his pride and foolishness, MK Ben-Ari called that which is holy, unholy. He claimed that the New Testament is trash, and then he proceeded to physically dump it in the trash to prove his point. Out of the kindness of his heart, Victor Kalish shared the pearls of God's Word with the members of the Israeli Knesset. How MK Ben-Ari violently reacted can best be described with the following verses:

"Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you."

Matthew 7:6, KJV

"Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision."

Philippians 3:2, KJV

Through his words and actions, MK Michael Ben-Ari publicly rejected the Light of Jesus Christ, and chose to continue to cling to his spiritual darkness. In so doing, that man has condemned himself; for as Jesus Himself said in John chapter three:

"And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God."

John 3:19-21, KJV

So how can MK Ben-Ari escape this condemnation? Quite simply, by doing exactly what the previous verses instruct him to do; that is, forsake his spiritual darkness and come to the Light of Jesus Christ. As the Apostle Paul writes in his Epistle to the Romans:

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit."

Romans 8:1, KJV

Can the answer be any clearer than that? We must be in Christ Jesus in order to escape condemnation, judgment and damnation. If we knowingly reject His Sacrifice, and are not covered by His Blood, then we have no one to blame but ourselves.

The irony of this incident regarding MK Ben-Ari is that while in the United States, dedicated Christians have been fighting to keep God, Jesus and the Bible alive and present in the US government and in the public square, in Israel, the Jews have consistently done the exact opposite. They reject the Light and fight against the Light, as the Anti-Missionary Bill and the above-noted incident both clearly prove. Even when in His great Mercy, God reaches out to them -- as occurred with the distribution of this Bible -- they symbolically slap Him in the face and say "No! We are Jews! We don't want anything to do with that Jesus!" Please note that this rejection of the Son of God begins with the Israeli government itself. It is not just the Ultra-Orthodox Jews who oppose Him. From top to bottom, they are an unrighteous and rebellious nation. I am reminded of the following verse:

"Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

Proverbs 14:34, KJV

Despite the very obvious antichrist environment which exists in the State of Israel, as I have already mentioned, so many American Christians -- such as members of Citizens United for Israel -- continue to support that nation no matter what. It is as if Israel can do nothing wrong in their eyes. While it is bad enough that the American government has become such a tool and a pawn for the Zionist agenda, what bothers me even more is to see how my Christian brethren are constantly being manipulated by the ungodly Jews.

Regarding American politicians, as I mention in "Accusations of Antisemitism: My Personal Response", for years now, many of them have been bullied by powerful Jewish lobbyists such as AIPAC -- the American Israel Public Affairs Committee -- and so controlled through indirect campaign contributions by the same, that they do not dare speak a single word against the Jews, or against Israel, lest their funding sources dry up. Worse yet, so many American publishing companies are now controlled by the Jews, that few American politicians are willing to become the object of wrath of an irate newspaper editor, or one of their pro-Israel op-ed columnists.

While AIPAC may be the most powerful Jewish lobby in the USA, it is by no means alone. There are other Jewish-controlled organizations whose primary goal appears to be to frustrate Christian evangelism, and to make the USA as antichrist as the State of Israel. These groups include the American Civil Liberties Union, the American Jewish Congress, the People for the American Way, Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, and others. These organizations were either founded by Jews, are headed by Jews, or are funded at least in part by Jews. Under the guise of supposedly upholding American law -- such as the grossly misinterpreted separation clause that is found in the US Bill of Rights -- they are endeavoring to slowly convert America into a secular and non-Christian nation.

As I said a moment ago, it both bothers me and saddens me to see how many Christians have become mesmerized by the Jews, and so drunk on the State of Israel. While some of them will no doubt take offense at my words, some of these Christians are very much like Pavlov dogs who immediately jump through the hoop whenever AIPAC, CUFI or some other pro-Israel group gives the order to support a particular issue which benefits the Jews and the State of Israel. As I mention in the series "Psalm 83 War False Doctrine Exposed!", the current war of words that is being waged against Iran is a prime example of this.

What do I mean by this? As I explain in the aforementioned series, even though the Scriptures clearly teach us that we Christians are not of this world, and are thus not supposed to become entangled in the affairs of this life any more than what is absolutely necessary, sadly, so many of my Christian brethren have become deceived, and are likewise shouting a war cry against Iran. The Apostle Paul admonishes us to "live peaceably with all men". How can any of you misguided people be claiming to do that when you are supporting Israel in a war against Iran? Brethren, wake up! Consider these verses:

"Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil. For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth. For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace."

Psalm 37:8-11, KJV

"Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth."

Matthew 5:5, KJV

"Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

Matthew 5:9, KJV

"Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence."

John 18:36, KJV

"Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword."

Matthew 26:52, KJV

"If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men."

Romans 12:18, KJV

"Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:"

Hebrews 12:14, KJV

"From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?"

James 4:1, KJV

Please go to part three for the continuation of this series.

Resolution 181, Quotes From Other American Leaders Revealing The Powerful Zionist Jewish Influence In American Politics

Politics aside, what is even of more concern to me is the way that this fixation with Israel and all things Jewish is affecting what seems to be a large segment of the Christian population in the United States. More specifically, I am referring to how it seems to be affecting our faith. Based on my observation of, and participation in, online dialogue in different social networks, it seems to me that there are many American Christians who are going out of their way to please, impress and appease the Jews in order to win points with them.

Some of the ways in which this appears to be happening is by adopting Jewish customs, observing Jewish feast days such as the Sabbath and other annual festivals, using shofars and menorahs in their churches, plastering "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem" all over the place, heavily supporting Israel in the social networks, referring to Jesus as "Yeshua", as if calling Him "Jesus" is incorrect, insufficient or even wrong, using "shalom" more often than "God bless you" which has been the traditional Christian greeting for centuries, and other things. It seems like some kind of infectious social disease has gripped much of American Christendom, and they are acting like Jewish parrots. Have you noticed this too? Does it alarm you as it alarms me?

A lot of this activity is clearly promoted by and encouraged by their Christian leaders, who are obviously pro-Israel. It has gotten so bad now, that many American Christians seem to believe that if they do not bless Israel, or if they dare say a single negative word against the Jews, God will not bless them. While some of you are so busy blessing the godless and antichrist Jews who reject the Gospel and Testimony of Jesus Christ, allow me to remind you of what the Apostles John and Paul had to say regarding this same issue. Please note that this is God's Word, and not mine:

"I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Galatians 1:6-9, KJV

"If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

2 John 1:10-11, KJV

Do you honestly realize what you are doing when you bless the nation of Israel and the antichrist false Jews? Those verses tell you plainly. You make yourself a partaker of their evil deeds, because they do not embrace the Testimony, Gospel and Doctrine of Jesus Christ. Think about it, and ask God to lift the scales from your eyes. Don't bless what God has cursed.

Now, the Jews may have been blessed during the Old Testament period, but the minute that they rejected Christ, everything changed; and I do mean everything. As I explain in a number of other articles, the New Testament clearly reveals that God annulled the Covenant of the Old Testament, and He introduced a new and better Covenant which is signed with the very Blood of Jesus Christ. Let me encourage you to read such articles as "Not Everyone is a Child of God" and "The Blood Atonement: In Jesus' Own Words". It does not matter whether we are Jew or Gentile. If we reject the main clause of the New Covenant -- which is faith in the Atoning Sacrifice of Jesus Christ -- then we are none of His. We are not God's adopted children, we are not members of His household, and we are not citizens of His Kingdom, plain and simple.

As we learned in part one, Jesus clearly told those Jews who had rejected Him that the Kingdom of God would be taken from them. Consider again the following verses that are found in the Gospel of Matthew:

"And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom [the Jews who falsely claim to be God's children] shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Matthew 8:11-12, KJV

"Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you [from the unbelieving Jews], and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof."

Matthew 21:43, KJV

I have often taught that the physical is a reflection of the spiritual. It should come as no surprise to us then, that as a result of their rejection of Jesus Christ, not only did the unbelieving Jews forfeit their right to enjoy the Kingdom of God, but as we learned in part one, God even took the actual physical kingdom away from them as well -- as He had done on previous occasions -- when the Romans deported them as slaves to other regions of the Roman Empire, following the fall of Jerusalem in 70 AD. For almost nineteen hundred years, the faithless Jews were without a homeland of their own, due to their grievous sins against the Lord.

Returning to our discussion regarding my wayward Christian brethren, my overall impression is that some of them seem to believe that they need to behave more like Jews, in order to prove that they are really Christian. As I have mentioned to some of my online Christian friends, it is as if there is this Jewish-supported movement in the USA to overtly Judaize our Christian faith. This fixation, fanaticism and extremism with all things Jewish alarms me and troubles me, and I must wonder where it is all headed. I did not realize how close I was to the truth regarding this effort to Judaize our faith, until during the course of writing this current series, I discovered that there is a movement which is endeavoring to do this very thing.

I am not referring to John Hagee's Citizens United for Israel organization. Rather, there is another movement that is being referred to as the Hebrew Roots Movement. This movement has already made substantial inroads into our faith. While there are a number of groups which seek to explore the Jewish roots of our Christian faith, according to what I have read, the Hebrew Roots Movement seems to go a lot further by insisting that Christians are still obligated to observe Jewish feasts -- including the Sabbath -- to adhere to kosher laws, and to embrace a number of other legalistic things. It is also my understanding that this movement views the New Testament as being inferior to the Old Testament.

As I point out in other articles, a careful examination of the New Testament will reveal that the legalistic Jews who infiltrated the fellowships of the First Century Christian brethren by feigning to be brethren, endeavored to do the very same thing. In other words, they wanted to push Jewish laws and customs -- such as circumcision -- on the Gentile converts. They wanted to force the Gentiles to believe and behave just like the Jews. In short, they wanted to bring the Gentiles under the bondage of the Mosaic Law. However, the Apostle Paul would have absolutely nothing to do with this. That is why Paul finally exploded, and rebuked the Galatian brethren by writing the following to them:

"And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:"
Galatians 2:4, KJV

"O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain."
Galatians 3:1-4, KJV

"But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? . . . Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? . . . Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all."
Galatians 4:9, 16, 21-26, KJV

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage."
Galatians 5:1, KJV

This problem regarding legalism finally became such a major divisive issue in the First Century Church, that a council was convened in Jerusalem in order to establish a doctrinal standard for the Church. It was attended by the Elders in Jerusalem, as well as by the Apostle Paul and certain of his Gentile associates. The results of that ecclesiastical meeting are discussed in Acts chapter fifteen, if you care to read it. The point is, Jesus came to set us free from some of the harsh restrictions and legalistic mandates of the Mosaic Law. Not only did the Lord preach this, but Paul confirmed this point as well. Consider these sample verses:

"Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free . . . If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed."

John 8:31-32, 36, KJV

"Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God."

Romans 7:4, KJV

To reiterate, from my personal observations, it seems clear that there is not only a Zionist Jewish agenda to build and maintain support for Israel amongst American Christians, but efforts are also being made to Judaize our Christian faith to some as-of-yet undetermined degree, and I find this quite troubling. As I recently told one of my online friends, my concern is that this fervent support for Israel, as well as this fixation with all things Jewish, could possibly lead to serious doctrinal compromise, very similar to what occurred in the First Century Church. What can we expect next? Will Christians be required to be circumcised and wear yarmulkes in order to prove that they are really Christians? How far are some of you misguided people willing to go to convince us of your Jewishness? I hope my words wake you up.

Some of you need to ask yourselves a question. Are you really converting Jews from Judaism to Christianity, or are the Jews slowly but surely converting you to Judaism and ensnaring you with their laws, customs and traditions, and placing you anew under the bondage of the Law? Our Christian faith is founded upon the Blood of Jesus Christ. Its doctrines are founded on the teachings of Christ and His Apostles, as revealed in the pages of the New Testament. We are New Covenant people, and the New Testament Church. We are not the Old Testament Jewish nation, so why should we be forced to act like it?

Furthermore, God's Word informs us that we are the Children of Light, while the unbelieving Jews are in fact the Children of Darkness. As we saw earlier, we are not to entertain those people who reject the Doctrine and Gospel of Christ. Neither are we to fellowship with the works of darkness. Following are some additional verses for your personal consideration:

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light."

Romans 13:12, KJV

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?"

2 Corinthians 6:14, KJV

"For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light . . . And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them."

Ephesians 5:8, 11, KJV

"Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness."

1 Thessalonians 5:5, KJV

"But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:"

1 Peter 2:9, KJV

"And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved."

John 3:19-20, KJV

"The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble."

Proverbs 4:19, KJV

"Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch."

Matthew 15:14, KJV

"And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also? Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth."
John 9:39-41, KJV

"But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."
1 Corinthians 2:14, KJV

"Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:"
Ephesians 4:18, KJV

"If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:"
1 John 1:6, KJV

As far as the Jews of Israel are concerned, if anything, the incident regarding MK Michael Ben-Ari once again highlights the message which has been conveyed by the unbelieving Jews many times before. That is that, for the most part, they are not the least bit interested in our Christian faith. The Jews have had almost two thousand years to acknowledge Jesus, and they still refuse to acknowledge Him. In fact, many Jews are quite offended by His name. Furthermore, it is obvious that the Jews do not appreciate missionaries and other Christians who attempt to convert their Jewish brethren to Christianity. They simply want to be left alone so that they can practice Judaism and be a Jewish nation. Most of them want Judaism, and not Jesus.

My view is this. If that is truly what they want, then so be it. God will let them live that delusion if that is what they truly desire. However, at the same time, the Jews of Israel need to likewise realize that many of us Americans want to be a Christian nation, and not a Judaized Christian nation. We want to live and practice our Christian faith as we see fit as well. We do not desire or need your Jewish traditions and other Jewish trappings in our Christian fellowships. We don't need to prove anything to you or bend over backwards to prove our loyalty to you. You are certainly not better than us, or more blessed than us; and you are in fact less righteous than us, because you reject the only source of righteousness that there is, and that is Jesus Christ.

It is my position then, that the Jews of Israel should just stop trying to turn the United States into an Israeli parrot, puppet and Jewish clone. Furthermore, they should stop trying to manipulate and mold our Christian faith so that it is some kind of hybrid faith. Lastly, they need to stop brainwashing my Christian brethren with their Zionist propaganda. In the words of Moses, "Let my people go!" Just back off!

Sadly, I know for a fact that this is not going to happen. In other words, the Zionist Jews have absolutely no intentions of leaving the United States alone. For those of you who may not be aware of it, it has been evident for many decades now that the Zionist Jews have a very specific agenda in mind for the United States of America. Furthermore, this devious plan has been known to many US politicians and business people for longer than I have been alive, and it is in operation at this very moment.

But exactly who are these Zionist Jews that we so often hear about? What happened, and when and where did it all begin? In short, a man named Theodor Herzl is what happened. Herzl was an Ashkenazi Jew, and the father of the Zionist movement, who convened the First Zionist Congress in Basel, Switzerland in 1897. It was at that congress that a number of very important developments occurred. First among these was the founding of the Zionist Organization, which would later become known as the World Zionist Organization. Second was the formulation of a Zionist platform which was referred to as the Basel program. Third was the adoption of the "Hatikvah", which later became the national anthem of the State of Israel.

What also happened is that, as had already occurred so many times in the past in other places, the Europeans eventually grew tired of the financial control which the Jews exerted in the European continent. As a result, the European powers saw fit to forcibly create a homeland for the Jews in an area of land that was situated on the eastern shore of the Great Sea; that is, the Mediterranean Sea. This feat was accomplished by dispossessing the Arabs and Palestinians of their land. The manner in which this injustice occurred is the following.

In November of 1947, the United Nations General Assembly adopted Resolution 181 -- also known as the Partition Plan for Palestine -- whereby the land of Palestine would be divided into two independent states -- one Jewish, and one Arab -- by October of 1948. Jerusalem would be designated as an international city which would be administered by the United Nations. However, on May 14, 1948 -- the very day that the British Mandate for Palestine ended -- in order to prevent the UN division from occurring, David Ben-Gurion, who at that time was the Executive Head of the World Zionist Organization, as well as the president of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, unilaterally declared the creation of the State of Israel by publishing a Declaration of Independence.

It should come as no surprise to you that the United States of America, under President Harry Truman, was the very first country to officially recognize the newly-formed State of Israel. In fact, the Americans did it within minutes of the Jews declaring their independence. The United States was followed by the USSR. Just under a year later, on May 11 1949, Israel was accepted as a member of the United Nations by a majority vote.

Well imagine that! Israel was accepted by the UN in under one year, and the Palestinians have been trying to achieve statehood for decades now, without success. Not only that, but while Israel unilaterally declared statehood, as you may know, today, decades later, the hypocritical Israelis oppose the Palestinians doing the very same thing, and insist on more years of fruitless negotiations. Do you see something wrong with this picture? Is it really any wonder that the Palestinians are so frustrated, and have sometimes resorted to violence?

Please refer to articles such as "Palestinian Suicide Bombers and Middle East Peace" if you are interested in my personal views regarding this topic. As you will learn, I am against all forms of violence, and I believe that there is plenty of guilt on both sides of the fence insofar as that conflict is concerned.

But that is not all. As it turns out, had UN Resolution 181 been implemented almost sixty-five years ago, while it is true that the Palestinians would now own more land than they currently do, it still would have been a lopsided deal for them, and certain parties were fully aware of this fact.

It is on public record that the British were opposed to the Partition Plan for Palestine, because they viewed it as being unfair, which it most certainly was. You see, at that time, the Jews were very much the minority in the land of Palestine, comprising only 11% to 33% of the total population, depending on who you want to believe. Legally, they owned even less of the land. However, with the proposed partition of Palestine, they would have actually received 56% of the land, which was not a fair deal by any means. In the British Parliament, the issue was heavily debated. One member of Parliament who was quite vocal regarding his opposition to Resolution 181 was MP Thomas Reid, who was the MP for Swindon. In a speech to the British Parliament, he very forthrightly noted the following regarding UN Resolution 181 and the partition plan:

----- Begin Quote -----

"It is an iniquitous scheme, and the chief instigator is a country for whom I have the profoundest love and admiration, next after my own, namely America. I do not believe all the tales about America, about the almighty dollar, and the rest. Americans are a very noble people and have more idealism than most nations of the world. But I have a criticism to make of America on this occasion, or at least of the American delegates to U.N.O. What is the motive? Let us be frank about it. One of the chief motives is that the Jews have a controlling voice in the election for the President in the States of New York, Illinois, Ohio and elsewhere in America. I suggest that the chief reason for this evil proposal of U.N.O. is that the political parties in America, or their party machines, are partly at the electoral mercy of the Jews. That is public knowledge."

----- End Quote -----

While the government of the United States of America may have been the first world power to recognize the recently-declared State of Israel, in his memoirs, American President Harry Truman reveals the extreme pressure that was placed upon him to support the partition of Palestine in 1947. He wrote the following:

----- Begin Quote -----

"The facts were that not only were there pressure movements around the United Nations unlike anything that had been seen there before, but the White House too was subjected to a constant barrage. I do not think I ever had as much pressure and propaganda aimed at the White House as I had in this instance. The persistence of a few of the extreme Zionist leaders -- actuated by political motives and engaging in political threats -- disturbed and annoyed me. Some were even suggesting that we pressure sovereign nations into favourable votes in the General Assembly. I have never approved of the strong imposing their will on the weak whether among men or nations."

----- End Quote -----

Of course, that pressure was instigated by the Jews; and the obvious reason why the Zionist Jews were pressuring the US government to support United Nations Resolution 181 -- that is, the Partition Plan For Palestine -- is because being the minority in Palestine at that time, they realized that they were being offered a much larger piece of the pie than they actually deserved. However, President Harry Truman was by no means the only American president, or American official, to experience pressure from the long arm of the Zionist Jews. Following are a few more select quotes from high profile American citizens which likewise expose the Zionist agenda:

----- Begin Quotes -----

"I know I was elected by the votes of American Jews. I owe them my victory. Tell me, is there something I ought to do?"

-- American President John F. Kennedy speaking privately to Ben-Gurion, page 90, A & L Cockburn 1991.

"I've never seen a president -- I don't care who he is -- stand up to them [the Israelis]. It just boggles your mind. They always get what they want. The Israelis know what's going on all the time. I got to the point where I wasn't writing anything down. If the American people understood what grip those people have on our government, they would rise up in arms. Our citizens don't have any idea what goes on."

-- Admiral Thomas Moorer of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Washington Report December, 1999, page 124, quoting from Andrew Hurley's book "One Nation Under Israel".

"The little Knesset"

-- Secretary of State James Baker describing pro-Israel Congressmen, quoted on the Zionist Organization of America website, which in turn quotes the Los Angeles Times, March 7, 1992.

"The Capitol Hill is an Israeli occupied territory".

-- Patrick Buchanan, St. Louis Dispatch, October 20, 1990.

"The Israeli Prime Minister has a lot more influence over the foreign policy of the United States in the Middle East than he has in his own country."

-- Former Illinois Congressman Paul Findley, in his book "They Dare to Speak Out", page 92.

"The Israelis control the policy in the Congress and the Senate . . . somewhere around 80 percent of the Senate of the United States is completely in support of Israel -- of anything Israel wants."

-- Senator William Fullbright, Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Oct. 7, 1973, on CBS' "Face the Nation".

"I am aware how almost impossible it is in this country to carry out a foreign policy [in the Middle East] not approved by the Jews. Former Secretary of State George Marshall and former Defense Secretary James Forrestrál learned that . . . terrific control the Jews have over the news media and the barrage the Jews have built up on congressmen . . . I am very much concerned over the fact that the Jewish influence here is completely dominating the scene and making it almost impossible to get congress to do anything they don't approve of. The Israeli embassy is practically dictating to the congress through influential Jewish people in the country"

-- Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, February, 1957, quoted on page 99 of "Fallen Pillars" by Donald Neff.

"We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated governments in the world -- no longer a government of free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of small groups of dominant men."

-- Woodrow Wilson, American President during World War I.

Misguided Christians Parroting Zionist Propaganda, Shameful Warmongering By American Christians, What Do The Jews Fear?

Whenever anyone attempts to openly and honestly discuss the thorough infiltration of American politics by these Zionist Jews, he is usually ridiculed, labeled as a loose cannon and a crazy conspiracy theorist, and forced into silence. But I hope you realize that the previous quotes are not invented. They are in fact real -- research them for yourself if you like -- and they do expose a real threat. Even more, what I have shared with you here is just the tip of the ice berg. As Admiral Thomas Moorer of the Joint Chiefs of Staff stated "If the American people understood what grip those people have on our government, they would rise up in arms."

From that time in 1948 until now, the Israelis have used every tool at their disposal to relentlessly advance their Zionist agenda. This has obviously included the calculated and intentional manipulation of certain world governments, as well as control of many mass media companies, ownership of a number of very powerful financial houses, infiltration of many areas of the Internet, strong influence over certain judicial systems, and major involvement in the entertainment industry. Everything is designed to influence and manipulate public opinion so that it favors Israel and the Jews. In the next part of this series, I will be offering you undeniable proof that this so for your careful consideration. Many of you probably have no idea how deep Zionist Jewish influence has become.

As we have now seen, this is particularly true in the United States of America, which has virtually become the slave to, and the long arm of, radical Zionism. As I mentioned earlier, this goal has been accomplished in the United States by such powerful lobbies as the AIPAC -- or American Israeli Public Affairs Committee -- as well as by pro-Israel organizations such as Pastor John Hagee's CUFI -- or Christians United for Israel -- and by the deceptive and legalistic Hebrew Roots Movement. Pastor Hagee is so deceived, and has strayed so far from the peaceful teachings of Jesus Christ and His Apostles, that during a CUFI Washington summit in 2007, he voiced his support for a pre-emptive nuclear strike against Iran. As if that isn't bad enough, on the CUFI website, Hagee resorts to fear and paranoia tactics, and exaggerates the facts with the following statement:

----- Begin Quote -----

"There is a new Hitler in the Middle East -- President Ahmadinejad of Iran -- who has threatened to wipe out Israel and America and is rapidly acquiring the nuclear technology to make good on his threat. If we learned anything from the Holocaust, it is that when a madman threatens genocide we must take him seriously."

----- End Quote -----

My gosh! Does anyone honestly believe that Iran is actually capable of destroying the United States, or even Israel for that matter? It is empty political rhetoric, and Hagee knows this. I will be discussing the Israel-Iran conflict more at length in just a moment. What I find particularly troubling is the fact that according to online sources, Pastor Hagee's organization has already set up "CUFI on Campus" chapters on several hundred colleges around the United States. In other words, he and his organization are poisoning the minds of young people all across the country, and deceiving them with his misguided beliefs and dangerous doctrines which promote extreme violence against another nation. Hagee is turning the kids into pro-Israel puppets who will be the next generation of mindless, "yes men" politicians in Washington, DC.

It is evident to me that Pastor Hagee and Citizens United for Israel are meeting with some degree of success, because I've personally seen their influence in the comments, and on the Facebook pages of many of my friends. In his delusion, Hagee takes a few verses from the Old Testament, while he seems to totally ignore everything that Jesus and the Apostles say in the New Testament regarding the ungodly, antichrist Jews, and how God has taken the Kingdom from them. A false balance is an abomination to the Lord. Considering how much Scriptural evidence I have already provided in this series, as well as in related articles, I hope that you have not become deceived by Pastor Hagee's errors. The man is misguided, and dangerous with his talk of pre-emptive nuclear strikes. He is certainly not acting in a Christian manner.

As we saw in part three, there are now so many politicians in Washington who are financially beholden to the Zionists, that the Jews basically run the US government from Israel. Let me remind my readers again of something that former Israeli PM Ariel Sharon stated to Shimon Peres on October 3, 2001, as reported on Kol Yisrael radio:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Every time we do something you tell me America will do this and will do that . . . I want to tell you something very clear: Don't worry about American pressure on Israel. We, the Jewish people, control America, and the Americans know it."

----- End Quote -----

No matter how you look at it, that is a very bold statement to make; and Sharon would not have said it, unless he thought it is true. Sadly, it is in fact true. Furthermore, it seems quite evident that this has been the attitude of most Israeli prime ministers and leaders. If you really doubt that this is so, then I ask you to consider the current prime minister of Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu. When he speaks before America's Congress, he is treated like a rock star. You may recall that in part three, we learned that Secretary of State James Baker once described the Jewish-controlled Congress as "The little Knesset". When Mr. Netanyahu wants to embarrass the American president -- or his vice president -- he does that as well. So as Sharon stated, America doesn't dictate policy to Israel. Rather, Israel dictates policy to Washington, DC.

As I explain in articles such as "Psalm 83 War False Doctrine Exposed!" and "God of Peace, God of War", the latest attempts by the radical Zionists to manipulate and control American politics -- and to deceive American Christians -- are clearly revealed in the current psychological war of words which is being waged in the Israeli and the American mass media, as a result of Iranian efforts to exercise their right to develop peaceful nuclear technology for their nation. As I have told my friends on my Facebook page, the level of hypocrisy which is on display by Israel is absolutely jaw-dropping. Being as the Jewish-controlled press will not reveal certain points to the public, allow me to share some of them with you for your personal consideration.

First of all, despite the heavy rhetoric in the mass media, at this current time, there is no real, verifiable evidence to indicate that Iran is pursuing, or even has decided to pursue, a path which will ultimately lead to the construction of a nuclear bomb. Even in their own assessments of the tense situation, American intelligence agencies have been rather forthright in making this fact known to the public. Even if Iran was to decide to follow the nuclear weapons development path, according to the latest American intelligence findings, it will still take the Iranians at least a few years before they will be able to produce their first nuclear weapon.

In thinking about Israel's current hyped up "any-day-now" rhetoric, I am reminded of George W. Bush's famous -- and foolish -- remarks regarding mushroom clouds over America, which according to Mr. Bush, would supposedly result from the alleged nuclear threat from Iraq. It never materialized, and no WMD were ever discovered. We are now in game number two with the opponents being Israel and Iran. There is no difference. The same fear and paranoia tactics that were used by Mr. Bush are now being employed by Israel's hawkish prime minister Benjamin Netanyahu, and his obedient lapdogs in the USA, and they are indeed many. Please refer to series such as "Saddam Hussein's Execution and the Euro Dollar War" and "Capture of Saddam Hussein and the New Babylon" for more details.

While we have constantly heard and read how dangerous Iran is to the world -- Canada just kicked out Iranian diplomats and closed the Iranian embassy -- what is never brought to light is the fact that Israel is a rogue nuclear state which seems to think that it can just snub international law whenever it pleases. For the record, not only is Israel one of the few nuclear-capable nations which have refused to sign on to the Non-Proliferation Treaty -- North Korea, India and Pakistan are the others -- but it adamantly refuses to even publicly acknowledge the existence of its nuclear weapons program, or reveal the current status of its nuclear stockpile. Israel has also consistently refused to allow officials from the International Atomic Energy Agency to inspect its nuclear plants.

For example, in September 2009 when the IAEA made a request for Israel to open its nuclear plants to inspections by the IAEA, and to adhere to the NPT -- Non-Proliferation Treaty -- as part of a resolution that was passed by the IAEA's General Conference, the chief Israeli delegate at that time stated that "Israel will not co-operate in any matter with this resolution." This has always been the position of the Israelis. Such is the obstinacy of the Jews. While Israel cites security concerns as its justification for its policy of nuclear opacity, imagine if every nuclear-capable nation made the same excuse. Israel is not above the law, even if it has not become a signatory to the NPT. To suggest that Israel should not be held accountable to the IAEA because it has not signed the Non-Proliferation Treaty is ludicrous to say the least. I must shake my head in disbelief when people try to justify Israel's indefensible position by using this weak argument.

Furthermore, it is my opinion that if Israel is not willing to become a party to the treaty due to her policy of nuclear opacity, then neither does she have any right to criticize or condemn those nations which are signatories to the treaty for their failings and shortcomings. Israel needs to become a signatory herself first -- and be open regarding her own nuclear capabilities -- in order to earn that right.

As much as some people -- Israelis and pro-Israel Christians in particular -- may not like Iran with its current radical mullah and theatrical president, the reality of the matter is that while the Israelis have been quick to criticize and condemn Iran for its secrecy and deception, even with its current resistance to additional IAEA inspections, Iran has still been much more cooperative with the IAEA than Israel has ever been. Furthermore, ever since the Israelis began development of their nuclear technology at the Dimona site in the Negev Desert during the late 1950's, they have been nothing but secretive. How then can they have the audacity to point the finger at Iran regarding secrecy, deception and a lack of cooperation? It is hypocritical.

Obviously, not everyone agrees with my position. One of the issues which has been used as a counter-argument is the hate speech against Israel within the Arab and Muslim world. As I recently pointed out to one particular person, when colorful Muslim leaders -- such as Iran's current president, Mahmoud Ahmadinejad -- appear before cameras and audiences and spew their radical vitriol in which they say that Israel must be pushed into the sea, we need to take into account that it is for the most part merely empty verbal rhetoric that is meant for public consumption; that is, it is meant to appease their local constituents.

Arab and Muslim leaders of the Middle East can rant against the state of Israel all they want. They can even teach their children in their school books to hate Israel and the Jews. However, at the end of the day, to our knowledge, none of them are in possession of any nuclear weapons -- and won't possess them for years to come -- while Israel is currently sitting on approximately one hundred to four hundred nuclear warheads, according to different estimates, which are based on leaked intelligence.

In a word, we need to separate fact from fiction. Former US president George W. Bush was not able or willing to do this, and he ended up looking like a fool. While we should not just ignore the hate speech against Israel by the Arab and Muslim world, Israeli intentions to conduct actual military strikes against Iran, based on exaggerated, overhyped, and fear-based assumptions should be our real concern. Attacking Iran could very well lead to a full-scale war in the Middle East. In other words, Arab verbal rhetoric and hate speech is one thing, but Israeli bomb-loaded jet fighters is quite another. Who is the real aggressor? Someone using words, or someone using real bombs?

Any unprovoked attack against Iran must be viewed as an act of war against a sovereign nation. If Israel truly proceeds with an attack in the near future, Iran will have the right to retaliate according to the rules of war. Then what? Are the Israelis willing to be responsible for initiating a major war in the Middle East?

Some people -- such as a person I dealt with on my Facebook page -- are incredulous regarding Israel's resolve to attack Iran. For those of you who may be of the same persuasion, let me remind you of some recent history. In 1981, the Israeli military conducted a secret attack code-named Operation Opera, or Operation Babylon. The target of the aerial strike was the Osirak nuclear reactor which was under construction about ten miles to the southeast of Baghdad. Even though Israel claimed that it acted in self-defense, nevertheless, it was rebuked by the United Nations Security Council and the U.N. General Assembly in two different resolutions. This incident clearly proved Israel's resolve to neutralize any perceived threats against itself. If you are interested in reading more about this incident, please visit the following Wikipedia webpage:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Operation_Opera

Operation Opera would not be Israel's last unprovoked strike against a foreign target. In more recent years, Israel also secretly conducted Operation Orchard against Syria in 2009. As had occurred with Iraq decades earlier, Israel's target was a suspected nuclear plant. Again, if you are interested in acquiring more information regarding this incident, you may proceed to this Wikipedia webpage:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Operation_Orchard

In my view, these two secret attacks speak volumes regarding the Israelis' current intentions concerning Iran. While the issue is still under heavy debate within Netanyahu's security council, personally, I wouldn't be surprised if they choose to attack sooner than later. If the USA and President Obama fail to bend to Israeli pressure soon, and continue to demonstrate reluctance, Israel will not hesitate to make its own decision, as it has always done. Everyone knows that Benjamin Netanyahu is a radical, hard-line troublemaker. He clearly demonstrated this a number of years ago during his first term in office as Israel's prime minister.

If Israel does attack Iran any time soon -- a lot depends on whether or not the Jews want to do it while Obama is still in office, or if they are willing to wait to see if Mitt Romney wins the presidential election -- their actions will no doubt be criticized by the United Nations, and heavily condemned by national governments around the world; save, of course, the United States. However, no doubt, the Israelis have already taken this into consideration, and they more than likely view such criticism as expected collateral damage. Thus, they will do as they have always done, and will simply hunker down and wait until the diplomatic storm passes, which it no doubt will.

While I have been accused of being antisemitic, or have been accused of defending Iran and Israel's other enemies, because of my current position regarding the standoff between Israel and Iran, this accusation is patently false. The truth of the matter is that by exposing Israeli hypocrisy which stems from its own secretive nuclear program, I have said certain things which some people -- namely pro-Israel Zionist Christians -- simply do not want to hear. As some of you will know, it is a very common tactic to attack the messenger, when the truth of the message itself cannot be refuted. Sadly, some people have chosen to take this course. So be it. Attacking me and trying to discredit me does not change the truth.

As I mentioned earlier, I am no fool. Anyone who is a regular reader of my work will already realize that I am fully aware of radical Islamic doctrine and propaganda, the hatred which Arab and Muslim nations have towards Israel, and the violence which has been committed against the Jews by the same. I have clearly exposed the Muslim "sword first" mentality in some of my articles. These include "Palestinian Suicide Bombers and Middle East Peace" and "Holy Qur'an and Islam: A Doctrine of Devils?". If you want to better understand why this animosity exists -- that is, aside from the modern reasons for it -- I again encourage you to read the series entitled "Psalm 83 War False Doctrine Exposed".

Furthermore, as I stated before, neither am I ignorant of the fact that Iran has not always been forthright with the IAEA regarding its nuclear development program. However, Iran has certainly been more open to IAEA inspections than Israel. As I pointed out earlier, it is both foolish and dangerous for the Israelis to launch a military strike, based on fear and assumptions alone. That is what George W. Bush did, and look where that got him. Many thousands of people died needlessly as a result of that very costly war. Furthermore, taking out Saddam Hussein has not made the situation any better in Iraq. If anything, it is worse than before. It is more dangerous, and certainly less stable. A major civil war could still erupt there.

If we stop to consider everything that the American government and Israel have already done in their attempts to deter Iran -- including restrictive trade embargoes, crippling economic sanctions, destructive computer viruses, assassinations of Iranian nuclear scientists, etc. -- can we really blame Iran for adopting such a defensive posture, while augmenting the level of its security and secrecy? I dare say that there are few nations which would not take similar steps if they were likewise subjected to these same kinds of harassment and provocation. In light of these facts, perhaps to some degree, Iran's current posture is justified.

While it is very tempting and easy to trade tit for tat in our discussions concerning the current dangerous standoff between Israel and Iran, I believe that as serious students of God's Word, it is important that we step back a bit, and make certain that we have not lost sight of God's overall Big Picture. In other words, we cannot allow ourselves to become so lost in the proverbial trees -- or details of the current situation -- that we lose sight of the forest; that is, the Lord's full prophetic picture, and the flow of His Will.

Stated another way, it is important that we see God's Hand at work in the current situation. As I explain in a number of my articles, such as "Psalm 83 War False Doctrine Exposed" and "The Fruits of Disobedience", the Bible makes it rather clear that since the times of the Old Testament, there has been a very good reason why the Lord has always permitted Israel to be surrounded by her enemies. For example, there is a reason why God allowed King Shalmaneser V and his Assyrian armies to invade and occupy the Northern Kingdom of Israel. As you may know, this resulted in the deportation of the Ten Lost Tribes. The Scriptures make it clear that God's reason was rebellion and sin on the part of the Jews.

There is likewise a very good reason why the Lord allowed the forces of Babylonian King Nebuchadnezzar to attack and invade the Southern Kingdom of Judah, and ultimately destroy Jerusalem and Solomon's Temple. As had occurred during the Assyrian invasions, many thousands of Jews were led away as captives to Babylon. As I point out in the aforementioned articles, the reasons why this occurred are very much the same. Once again the Jews were very guilty of sin, apostasy and rebellion against the Lord.

In similar fashion, there is a very good reason why the Lord allowed General Titus and his Roman legions to attack Israel during the seven-year First Jewish-Roman War. As many of you will already know, in the middle of that war, in 70 AD, the Jews were once again soundly defeated. Jerusalem was utterly destroyed, and the Temple compound was burned to the ground. As a result of that great war, historical sources state that somewhere between six hundred thousand and one million Jews perished, either as a direct result of the war, or due to famine, pestilence and Roman crucifixion. Furthermore, as had occurred with both the Assyrian and the Babylonian invasions, many thousands of Jews were once again carried off as slaves to other parts of the Roman Empire.

Given the previous two historical examples, it is easy to understand why God allowed the heathen Romans to do this to Israel and the Jews. Grievous sin and rebellion was deep in their hearts once again, and even worse than before. After all, did they not cry out on the morning of the Lord's trial "His blood be on us, and on our children"? -- Matthew 27:25

As I fully explain in articles such as "Oh Israel, Why Will Ye Die?", the great tragedy in each of these three situations is that in His great Love and Mercy, God sent His Prophets one after the other to warn the Jews to repent of their sins, and to return to Him. In the Gospels, it is evident that even

Jesus Himself repeatedly warned the unbelieving Jews of the Wrath to come. However, their evil hearts were so darkened, and their spiritual sight was so impaired, that they refused God's beckoning, even though He informed them that He was in fact married to the backslider in heart. Furthermore, we are told that their hatred of the light was such, that they even persecuted and killed the very messengers whom the Lord had sent to them. Consider the following sample verses:

"But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people."

Luke 21:23, KJV

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

Matthew 23:37-24:2, KJV

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."

Luke 13:34-35, KJV

Thus, as we have seen, due to the Jews' obstinate refusal to return to their Spiritual Husband and one true King, in each case, they experienced the Lord's Wrath, and were chastised for their sins. If we look at the modern day situation with Israel once again being surrounded by her enemies, through the lens of the Scriptures, we begin to understand that it isn't much different from the previous situations. In other words, God has a very good reason for allowing the current situation to unfold. Personally, I am convinced by the Bible that the reason is very much the same as before. Despite the fact that they have had two thousand years to get right with the Lord, the Jews of Israel remain as stubborn, rebellious, and antichrist a people as ever, except for a few.

While I obviously do not know how the current situation is going to ultimately play out, I do know that the Scriptures inform us that God will not allow Himself to be mocked by the Jews -- or by anyone -- indefinitely. While His Mercy certainly endures forever, at the same time, He also has His limits, and He will only tolerate rebellion and sin for so long. Consider the following verses:

"And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:"

Acts 17:30, KJV

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Galatians 6:7, KJV

As I explain in such series as "The Great Tribulation and the Rapture", it is currently my belief that a time of great suffering may be coming to the people of Israel as a result of their rebellion against the Lord. One way or the other, God is going to break the pride of the Jews once and for all. They may not like it, but this is precisely what they need.

Just as the heathen armies of the Assyrians, the Babylonians and the Romans fulfilled God's Divine Will, so too, it may very well be that the Arab and Muslim nations of the Middle East may play a similar role in the years ahead. In other words, as I explain in other articles, despite their sound rejection of the belief that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and only Savior of the world, these nations may still serve as the Lord's "vessels of wrath" and "rods of chastisement" against the unbelieving Jews of Israel. If this turns out to be true, God will deal with these nations afterwards, as He has always done. He knows the future, and it will no doubt play out according to His perfect Will, regardless of what any of us think or say.

For me personally, the irony here, is that these truths are so plain to see in the Scriptures. God's dealings with the rebellious Jews are painted in black and white over and over again for all to read. However, somehow, some of my brethren still seem to miss it. They don't seem to understand what the message was that God gave to the Prophet Jeremiah to deliver to the Jews, before they were defeated and enslaved by the Babylonians. If you haven't yet read my article entitled "Oh Israel, Why Will Ye Die?", please consider doing so, and you will get the clear answer that you need.

But concerning these misguided Christians, all they seem to know how to do is parrot the Zionist propaganda of the Jews. These pro-Israel Zionist Christians bend over backwards to defend Israel and the Jews. As I have already pointed out, some of them are so deceived, that rather than follow Jesus' example of peace, and strive to live peaceably with all men as the Apostle Paul wrote, and remain apart from the affairs of the world -- particularly the dirty political affairs of this world -- in their delusion, they are calling for blood, and whooping for war, right along with the ungodly Jews. It is as if some of these people are more loyal to Israel and the antichrist Jews than they are to the Truth of God's Word.

This kind of behavior on the part of my Christian brethren is nothing short of shameful. May the Lord stop the mouths of all of these pro-Israel Jewish and American warmongers. I don't know about you, but I have had enough of this deluge of warmongering and drum beating that we have been seeing in the news, on Facebook, and elsewhere on the Internet. It is really way over the top. To reiterate an earlier point, the American intelligence agencies have already established that Iran doesn't have a nuclear bomb, and will not likely possess a bomb, for at least a few years, if ever. The Israelis are purposely exaggerating the facts regarding Iran, and everyone knows it. Even if Iran does eventually acquire the bomb, can you not see God's Hand in this? Would He allow it to happen if it were not a part of His Divine Plan?

It really makes me wonder if the Jews are actually afraid of the Iranians getting the bomb, or if what they are really afraid of is God's judgments falling on them once again due to their stiff-necked rebellion against Him, through their continued rejection of Jesus Christ.

Please go to part five for the continuation of this series.

The way that the leadership of Israel, AIPAC, CUFII and other American pro-Israel supporters such as members of the Hebrew Roots Movement have been badgering the Obama administration to threaten Iran with attack is totally out of line. With the latest news articles, Israel is making an all out effort to embarrass the Obama administration, to paint it as weak, and is just about demanding that Obama submit to the will of the Jews of Israel by attacking Iran.

Let me clearly say again that the United States of America is not Israel's lapdog or proxy. America's leadership needs to shake off the Jewish yoke that has been there for far too long already; decades in fact. That begins with getting rid of all of the weak politicians who have sold their souls to Jewish money; that is, the "little Knesset". As I mentioned earlier, as much as I disagree with a lot of Barack Obama's policies and personal beliefs, and consider him an ungodly man, nevertheless, I hope that he continues to stand strong against the Jews and their American puppets; including the misguided American Christians who appear to be so drunk on Israel.

Contrary to the misguided belief of pro-Israel, conservative, evangelical Christians in America -- who also inspired George W. Bush to foolishly and illegally attack the nation of Iraq under the banner of the Republican Party -- it simply is not America's responsibility to come along and clean up the mess -- or bully Israel's enemies -- every time that Israel acts foolishly, and displays belligerence and obstinacy with its Arab and Muslim neighbors.

My position is this: If the Jews want to go against American wishes by continuing to build restrictive barrier walls, by continuing to build and expand settlements in the West Bank, by assassinating Hamas leaders, by inflicting tough economic hardship on the Palestinians, by treating Arab Israelis as second class citizens, etc., and thus further aggravate the Palestinians -- and in the process kill any chance of peace -- then let them deal with the results of their aggressive behavior.

Furthermore, if the Jews want to bomb Iraq's nuclear power plants, bomb Syrian nuclear reactors, threaten Iran with the same, etc., then again, let them deal with the problems that arise from their own foolishness and leave America out of it. Hasn't the United States engaged in enough wars and conflicts in recent decades? Aren't there enough problems at home in America for the Obama administration to deal with? Doesn't the Bible teach us the following:

"But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel."

1 Timothy 5:8, KJV

In this particular case, the words "his own" in that verse can be applied to America's own people, whose needs should come first, above and before the needs of other countries, including the needs of Israel. For those of you who may not be aware of it, for decades now, the American government has been providing the State of Israel with billions of dollars in financial aid every single year. Think how much that money could be better used to help America's own downtrodden who are unable to help themselves. On a side note, I recently discovered that Mitt Romney, the Republican candidate in the upcoming presidential election, does not support an increase in the minimum wage.

The hawkish leadership of Israel needs to immediately desist in its attempts to pressure the United States government to do its dirty work for it. Israeli prime minister Benjamin Netanyahu and his cronies have a lot of nerve thinking that they have the right to dictate to the American president and the American people, what stance and strategies the United States should adopt against Iran. Let the United States deal with Iran on its own terms and in its own way!

To all of my Christian brethren who have been jumping on the Jewish war wagon, I say shame on you all! In light of the truth of the Scriptures which encourage us to live peaceably with all men, how can you possibly justify your actions when you encourage and support a military strike against Iran? Do you not really understand that you are placing the lies of the antichrist Jews above God's Word? Jesus taught us that we are all known by our fruits. What are your fruits? Is it peace, or is it war? Are you a child of the evil world who embraces all of its deceptive, violent ways, or are you a child of the Kingdom of God who follows peace? It can't be both.

Some of you claim that you have broken free from the ungodly world with its materialistic, wicked, violent and selfish ways. Yet, you fail to realize that by catering to the Jews, and by supporting and promoting the Zionist agenda, all you have really done is trade one ungodly master for a different one. What you need to realize is that Zionism is no different than any other worldly system. It is corrupt, and it is evil.

Furthermore, to deceptively cloak Zionism in Old Testament Scriptures in order to win the support of American Christians is downright dishonest.

Please think about these things and repent! Choose ye this day whom ye will serve! Stop being a puppet and stooge for Israel! Stop promoting the violent Zionist agenda, and stand up for the peaceful ways of Jesus Christ! Did He even once ever teach His followers to support war, to go to war, or to kill other people for any reason? He most certainly did not! Again, shame on you all for taking this stance!

As I explained earlier in this series, ever since the state of Israel was created in 1948, the Jews have used every tool at their disposal to advance their Zionist agenda. There has been a very obvious, calculated, intentional effort to both manipulate the American government, as well as the American people. The Jews have now grown so confident of their control over America, that they no longer even try to hide it. I am not joking, and I am not exaggerating in the least. I would not say these things unless I was absolutely certain that this is so.

In a few moments, I will be sharing verifiable information with you which clearly reveals exactly how much influence and control the Jews now have over the American mass media, over the American financial system, over the American government, over the Internet, over the American judicial system, over the computer industry, and over the entertainment industry. This information will confirm and support some of the quotes that I shared with you earlier in part three. I suspect that you will be astounded by this information, just as much as I have been. However, first we are going to backtrack in time to the mid to late nineteenth century. While some of what follows may seem dry and difficult to understand, I urge you to keep reading anyway, and you will be rewarded with some rather mind-boggling information afterwards.

The power of the Jews obviously lies in their money, because Jewish money controls American politics. As I stated earlier, the Jews own and control major financial houses all around the world; particularly in the European continent and in the United States. You can easily confirm this fact for yourself by researching the history of the powerful banking dynasty that was initiated by the German-Jewish banker Mayer Amschel Rothschild. You will discover how along with his five sons -- Amschel Mayer, Salomon, Nathan, Calmann/Carl and Jakob/James -- Rothschild gradually extended his financial power across continental Europe, over to Great Britain, and eventually to the United States and other nations as well. For now, however, allow me to give you a brief overview.

Trying to discover the truth regarding the history and inner workings of the Rothschild financial empire is really next to impossible, because so much false and inaccurate information has been disseminated by the Rothschilds themselves, as well as by others. Mayer Amschel Rothschild was born in the ghetto -- known in German as the "Judengasse", or "Jewish Alley" -- of Frankfurt, Germany to a German-Jewish money changer by the name of Moses Amschel Bauer. Some sources refer to him as a goldsmith and loan shark. Bauer was an Ashkenazi Jew. If you are not familiar with the term, the Ashkenazi Jews descended from the medieval Jewish communities which existed along the Rhine River in Germany. They trace their Biblical roots to Ashkenaz, who was the first son of Gomer. In turn, Gomer was the son of Japheth, who was one of the three sons of Noah, as we can determine by the following verses:

"Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood. The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah."

Genesis 10:1-3, KJV

At their peak in 1931, the Ashkenazi Jews accounted for about ninety-two percent of the worldwide Jewish population. Today, it is estimated that they comprise about eighty per cent of worldwide Jewry. According to some sources, it was the custom of Moses Amschel Bauer to display a red hexagon-shaped shield over the doorway of his shop. Other sources state that it may have had a so-called "Star of David" superimposed on it.

Please note that there is no Biblical or historical evidence to support the belief that King David ever used a six-pointed star. It has been suggested that it is possible that in his old age, after he backslid from the Lord, King Solomon may have possibly used some kind of seal which bore the image of the false god Chiun. This false god may possibly have been associated with the Assyrian and Babylonian god of the planet Saturn. We find it mentioned in the following verses as both "Chiun" in the Old Testament, and as "Remphan" in the New Testament:

"But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves."

Amos 5:26, KJV

"Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon."

Acts 7:42-43, KJV

As this story goes, when Mayer Amschel Rothschild took over his father's Frankfurt business, he chose to change his name from Bauer to Rothschild. Again, other sources state that the first family member to use the Rothschild name may have been Izaak Elchanan Rothschild, who was born in 1577. Whatever the case may be, in the original Middle High German, "Rothschild" is actually "rot" -- or "roth" -- plus "schild". The German word "roth" means "red", while the German word "schild" means "shield". Thus, the name Rothschild means "red shield", which is what Moses Amschel Bauer is said to have displayed over the door of his shop.

As some of my readers will probably know, for many decades now, a particularly controversial quote has circulated which has been attributed to Mayer Amschel Rothschild, who is often regarded as a "founding father of international finance". For example, Forbes magazine placed Mr. Rothschild in the seventh position on their 2005 list of "The Twenty Most Influential Businessmen of All Time". According to the promoters of this rumor or conspiracy theory, Rothschild once supposedly stated the following. Whether or not it is actually true or not, I have not been able to verify or refute. Most search engines and AI chatbots reject the statement, claiming that it is apocryphal in nature and an antisemitic trop:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Give me control of a nation's money, and I care not who makes her laws."

----- End Quote -----

Many of my readers are no doubt familiar with the Federal Reserve System -- a.k.a. the central banking system -- which is a hybrid, INDEPENDENT, privately-held entity within the government. Many people know it simply as the Fed. It has a government agency known as the Board of Governors which is directly responsible for overseeing twelve private regional Federal Reserve Banks, who in turn watch over the numerous privately-owned member banks all across our nation. While the Board of Governors itself is a federal government agency, the twelve Federal Reserve Banks are actually set up similar to private corporations, while still being subject to certain public-interest restrictions.

The Federal Reserve System -- or central banking system -- is by far the most powerful banking institution in America, and basically serves as the financial backbone of our whole country. Furthermore, let me also point out here that their decisions affect every single person in the United States. For example, its decisions affect the cost of living, the minimum wage, and so many other things of which we are not even aware.

What some of my readers may find very interesting is who was the inspiration behind this financial giant. As it turns out, in a somewhat indirect way, the US Federal Reserve System can be viewed as the brainchild of the Rothschild's of London. In other words, they are the descendants of Nathan Rothschild -- who was one of the five sons of Mayer Amschel Rothschild -- who fathered a son named Lionel, who in turn fathered his own son -- or Nathan's grandson -- who was named Alfred. Alfred was the director of the Bank of England for twenty years. So German-Jewish banker Mayer Amschel Rothschild and his sons established their banking dynasty, and eventually spread it throughout Europe, including in England. But consider what happened next across the pond in America.

During the early 1900s, with the financial backing of Alfred Rothschild, a fellow German-Jewish banker by the name of Paul Warburg arrived in the United States with the explicit goal of lobbying for the formation of a central banking system in the U.S.A. which was modeled after the same system which the Rothschilds oversaw in Europe. Warburg would eventually marry into the family of Solomon Loeb, who was the German-Jewish co-founder of the powerful investment firm Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Kuhn, Loeb & Co. was eventually purchased by Lehman Brothers -- yet another German-Jewish enterprise -- which eventually became the fourth largest investment bank in America before it declared bankruptcy in 2008. Lehman Brothers' core North American investment banking and trading operations were then acquired by Barclays, while its foreign operations in the Asia-Pacific region, Europe, and the Middle East were taken over by Nomura Holdings.

At any rate, with the assistance of other major U.S. bankers, -- such as J.P. Morgan and John D. Rockefeller, Jr. -- and with the influential help of powerful senator Nelson Aldrich -- who was the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and whose daughter actually married into the Rockefeller family -- the Federal Reserve Act was signed into law by President Woodrow Wilson in 1913, primarily with the support of the Democrats.

Senator Aldrich had actually traveled to Great Britain and Europe in order to learn more about their central banking systems. I think it is probably safe to assume that Aldrich became convinced that the European banking system was a far superior financial system, due to some level of influence from the Rothschilds. Thus, Aldrich returned to the United States convinced that a Rothschild-styled banking system was what the country needed. As a direct result of the influence of Nelson Aldrich and Paul Warburg, the Federal Reserve Act was signed, and the Federal Reserve System became a reality. For his part, Paul Warburg eventually resigned from his post as director of Wells Fargo & Company, and took his position as a governor on the Federal Reserve Board of Governors.

As I mentioned earlier, the Federal Reserve System consists of twelve regional Federal Reserve Banks, and also numerous privately-owned member banks. As I also told you, oversight comes from the Federal Reserve Board of Governors, who are appointed by the President, and confirmed by the Senate for staggered fourteen-year terms.

According to the Federal Reserve Board of Governors, "ITS MONETARY POLICY DECISIONS DO NOT HAVE TO BE APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT, OR ANYONE ELSE IN THE EXECUTIVE OR THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCHES OF GOVERNMENT." This startling fact was confirmed in a 2007 interview that Jim Lehrer held with Alan Greenspan. As you see from the previous list, Greenspan was the thirteenth Chair of the Federal Reserve from 1987 to 2006. During that interview which was aired on PBS -- the Public Broadcasting System -- Jim Lehrer asked Greenspan what he thought should be the proper relationship between a chairman of the Federal Reserve and the U.S. president. Following is how Greenspan chose to respond to Mr. Lehrer:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Well, first of all, the Federal Reserve is an independent agency, and that means, basically, that there is no other agency of government which can overrule actions that we take. So long as that is in place and there is no evidence that the administration or the Congress or anybody else is requesting that we do things other than what we think is the appropriate thing, then what the relationships are don't, frankly, matter."

----- End Quote -----

In a word, my friends, I think it is fair to say that the US Federal Reserve Bank more or less amounts to a privately-run financial dictatorship. They make all the rules, and hardly anyone ever bothers to even challenge them. In other words, while the President nominates the seven members -- including the Chair and the Vice Chair from the current sitting members -- and while the U.S. Senate must confirm them as well, once the confirmation process is completed, ALL POWER lies in the hands of those seven individuals, and they are just about untouchable! Exactly how untouchable are they? Just keep on reading, and you will soon find out! As of May 4, 2026, the seven members of the Board of Governors are as follows:

Jerome Powell - Chairman
Philip Jefferson - Vice Chair
Michelle Bowman - Vice Chair for Supervision
Michael Barr
Lisa Cook
Stephen Miran
Christopher Waller

My dear friends, there's a reason why the head of the Federal Reserve Bank is referred to as the "money czar". His word is basically financial law. He holds more power, and also more directly affects our personal lives, than the actual American president himself! Furthermore, the members of the Board of Governors also serve a much longer term than a U.S. President who can only legally serve for two terms, totaling only eight years. In contrast, the Board of Governors serve staggered 14-year terms, while the Chair, Vice Chair, as well as the Vice Chair for Supervision are appointed by the President for 4-year terms which are renewable.

While the Federal Reserve Board does report to Congress, that is as far as their oversight goes. Lastly, the Fed does NOT receive taxpayer funding, so it cannot be controlled in that fashion. Think about that! In fact, as you may possibly know, insofar as length of term is concerned, the members of the Fed's Board of Governors are only outdone by the justices of the U.S. Supreme Court, who each hold the longest possible, non-elected tenure in the U.S. government. I am, of course, referring to the fact that justices of the SCOTUS -- Supreme Court of the United States -- all serve lifetime appointments based on "good behavior". Furthermore, the SCOTUS is the ONLY major federal body without mandatory retirement, or even term limits.

In light of these amazing facts, one must wonder who really holds the most power in the U.S. government. Is it actually the President -- who I have long viewed as a puppet figure at best -- or is it the Fed's Board of Governors and the SCOTUS justices who can influence American life for a longer period of time? What do you think? The answer seems rather obvious to me.

Now, for those of my readers who may possibly think that I am just trying to be sensationalistic, or that perhaps I am over-exaggerating the facts, then allow me to blow your mind a bit more by sharing some additional information with you. It may interest you to know that a sitting President CANNOT just freely fire the Chair of the Federal Reserve Board. In fact, according to the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, a Chair can ONLY be removed "for cause". Now this term is generally interpreted by legal scholars as inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance. In other words, disagreements over monetary policy do NOT fall under "for cause", and a U.S. President CANNOT fire a sitting Chair for that reason. Wow!

But that is not all, my friends. These money czars -- and the other six members of the Board of Governors -- are quite protected from interference by the President, the Congress, or anyone else. In other words, The Federal Reserve Act of 1913 protects Federal Reserve Board Governors -- including the Chair himself, from political pressure by restricting removal to cases of proven misconduct. To wit, to date, no U.S. president has ever fired a Federal Reserve Board Chair. Furthermore, the definition of "cause" has never been fully tested in court.

To be clear, a sitting President can remove the Chair as the head of the Board of Governors. However, a president CANNOT remove a Chair from the Board of Governors itself without a strict "cause". As such, the Chair typically continues as a member of the Board of Governors until he has completed his 14-year term, even if he has been removed from his role as Chair. While presidents have threatened to fire Chairs over interest rate policy, again, legal experts generally argue that such actions by a sitting President would be challenged in court.

Another very powerful, international German-Jewish-founded investment bank which dominates the American financial scene is Goldman Sachs. It was founded in 1869 by an Ashkenazi Jew by the name of Marcus Goldman who was a banker, businessman, and financier. After his daughter married Samuel Sachs -- who was another Ashkenazi Jew -- the company name was changed to M. Goldman and Sachs. The addition of other family members in later years resulted in another company name change to Goldman Sachs & Co. One interesting point which should be mentioned here is that, similar to royalty, one of the ways in which all of these Jewish bankers have maintained power and control over their companies -- and expanded their profit and wealth at the same time -- is by carefully guarding their assets through the practice of very selective intermarriage.

What you may find interesting is the fact that after gaining experience and being trained at Goldman Sachs, a considerable number of their employees move on to occupy other influential and powerful posts, such as Secretary of the Treasury, heads and members of the Council on Foreign Relations, members of the Bilderberg Group, positions at the Federal Reserve Bank, the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank, etc. Goldman Sachs' influence and power is global in scope. The current head of the Bank of Canada is also a former employee of this Jewish owned and operated financial giant.

Now, here is where it gets rather interesting. If we stop to consider the fact that as of 2026, barely 2.4 per cent of the total population of the United States is Jewish, it becomes evident that an inordinate number of Jews are being appointed to, have direct influence on, or are even in control of, very important positions in the American government, in American financial institutions, in the mass media and entertainment industries, in the computer industry, and in other areas of American life. It is not an exaggeration to say that they in fact dominate in some areas, even though they only comprise 2.4 per cent of the US population. Personally, I find this disproportionate reality a bit difficult to ignore.

No doubt, in spite of everything I have stated here, there will be some people who will roll their eyes in disbelief. There will likewise be others who will probably just accuse me of being antisemitic. Yet others will probably just label me as some crazy conspiracy theorist. Whatever the case may be, and regardless of what you may think of me personally, you simply cannot change the facts. Those facts reveal a disconcerting picture in which important sectors of American society have been thoroughly dominated by the Jews. For the skeptics among us, allow me to now present evidence which, in my view, supports my claim.

Please note that the list below is just a very small sampling of what is really going on in America. It is just the tip of the ice berg. I have only listed some of the more influential positions which have been, or currently are, occupied by the Jews. There are many other positions such as VP's, advisors, deputies, managers, section heads and the like which are also occupied by Jews. If you take some time to conduct serious investigative work of your own -- even just a few hours worth -- and begin to connect the dots, what you will no doubt see is that, in reality, the circle of Jewish power and influence grows progressively larger and larger. You will discover that there are corporate links, financial links, ownership links, etc., which were not apparent at the start. It is in fact a global network of Jewish wealth, power and influence which saturates and dominates the world.

Please note that many Jews likewise anglicize or Americanize their names -- particularly German, Russian and Polish names -- and may even change their outward religion. Such is the case with some of the names that are listed below. Doing this makes it a challenge to uncover their actual Jewish identity. Whether or not this is why they do this, I really don't know, but the result is that it makes it more difficult for us to acquire a full picture. If you take some time to investigate this practice of name-changing, you soon begin to recognize which names are Jewish, and which ones are Americanized or anglicized versions of European Jewish names. It requires practice.

For example, Waremwasser became Warmwater, which in turn became Walters, as in Barbara Walters. The name Rothstein became Redstone, as in Sumner Redstone, who is the Chairman of National Amusements and all of the huge companies which come under its umbrella. Rabinowitz likewise became Roberts. Spurling became Spelling. Bernstein became Burns. Larry King changed his real last name from Zeiger to King while working at a Miami Beach radio station in 1957. CBS journalist Mike Wallace actually came from a family whose surname is really Wallik. Of course, many people know that Bob Dylan is really Bob Zimmerman. And on and on it goes.

Unless otherwise noted with an asterisk -- which means that I had some doubts -- all of the people who are listed below are confirmed biological Jews -- either by both parents, or at least by one parent. According to Jewish law -- halakha -- Jewishness is determined primarily by one's birth mother. Halakha also states that just because a person accepts the principles and practices of Judaism, it does not make them a Jew. However -- and this is very important -- people who are born Jewish through one or both of their parents do not lose their status as Jews if they don't actually practice Judaism. They are still considered Jews by birth.

Equally important is the fact that, according to halakha, a person does not cease being Jewish, even if they adopt the practices of another religion, such as Christianity. Before I understood these various points concerning Jewish law, I was confused, because some of the people who I investigated for the following list were said to be Jewish. However, when I went online, I discovered that some of them were listed as being Baptist, Episcopalian, etc., while others were listed as atheists. So I didn't understand at first why people were claiming that they were Jewish. As it turns out, they were born to Jewish parents -- or at least to a Jewish mother -- but they changed their religion, which means that they are still recognized as being Jewish due to their birth.

Please go to part six for the continuation of this series.

Continuing our discussion from part five, and keeping all of the previous points in mind, please remember again that the Jews barely comprise 2.4 per cent of the total population of the United States. Yet despite that fact, just look at how many prominent positions they now hold in so many different areas of American life, and how much power they wield. To reiterate, I find it rather mind-boggling. Considering how much the entertainment industry and the mass media affect our world view and public opinion, I will list this category for you first.

In looking at this first list, I am reminded of how extremely liberal so many television programs and movies have become in recent decades. It's a very far cry from what I remember as a young boy growing up decades ago. Well, just one look at the list below will clearly reveal exactly who is responsible for filling our movie screens and television screens with so much filth, trash, violence and ungodliness. Other than one person whose ethnicity I have doubts about, they are all Jews.

This list also reveals that the only news we get is the news that the Jews want us to see and hear. There should really be no doubt that our news is filtered and censored for us by the Jews. It is slanted news which has been manipulated to convey what these powerful Jews want us to think and believe. So are your thoughts and opinions really your own if you watch news through a filter every day? Also, I can't help but wonder how many people have experienced character assassination through the news, when they have challenged Jewish wealth and power in some way.

Other major media companies which were founded by, and/or controlled by Jews, include Columbia Pictures, MCA -- which later morphed into Universal Studios -- Simon & Schuster, Random House, Western Publishing and so many more. Also of interest is the fact that all of the current members of the MPAA -- that is, the Motion Picture Association of America -- are companies which are headed and controlled by Jews. As I said, Jewish influence runs extremely deep.

If you are reading this series, you no doubt love using your computer and surfing the Internet. Perhaps you belong to a few social networks such as Facebook, and have done research on Wikipedia. There probably is not a day that goes by that you don't Google something, and you may have an account with PayPal. Maybe you have even made some purchases on Ebay, or on Amazon.com. In order to do all of these various tasks, you probably use a computer that runs the Windows, Macintosh or Linux operating system. Just as occurs with the entertainment industry and the mass media, most of the companies which are associated with these activities were founded by, are owned by, controlled by, or at least heavily influenced by, Jews. Here again is proof for your consideration. This is by no means a complete list.

If anything can be said regarding the previous list, it is that a lot of money is being passed into the hands of Jews on the Internet, and a lot of personal information as well via the social networks. The aforementioned social networks and services are some of the top data miners of the World Wide Web. This data is used for advertising purposes, and to increase the profits of these powerful Jews. In short, the web is a global money-making machine for the Jews.

As I mentioned earlier, the Jews maintain very tight control over the US economy through such institutions as the Federal Reserve System, and by frequently occupying the position of the US Secretary of the Treasury. Jewish dominance in the area of Big Business and high finance is both overwhelming and extensive. As such, I can't possibly include everything in the list below. Thus, it represents just a small fraction of their true power and influence, both nationally, as well as globally. One could spend weeks conducting research, and still not discover the full extent of their global financial web.

While the Jews maintain a very powerful and visible presence in the world of Big Business and high finance, as we learned earlier, their grip on American politics is also very strong. So many corrupt politicians have sold their souls for Jewish money, and have allowed themselves to become mouthpieces and puppets for the Zionist agenda. Furthermore, many American presidents have realized that they are really at the mercy of the Jews. It is no wonder then that the Republican candidate for the upcoming presidential election, Mitt Romney, has been offering so many platitudes to the Jews in recent weeks, and endeavoring to cast himself as the better man to the Jews of Israel, as well as at home.

The following list offers us a brief glimpse of some of the Jews who have positioned themselves in the upper echelons of the American government. Considering again that the Jews only constitute two per cent of the total American population, it is significant that they occupy so many positions. However, bear in mind that, for the most part, the extent of Jewish power and influence over US politics is intentionally kept opaque, as they obviously do not wish to alarm the general populace. Furthermore, I suspect that Jewish influence over the US President and the Vice President is such, that this may be the reason why the Jews do not see the need to occupy those positions themselves. Imagine, however, how US policy in the Middle East would be affected, if a Jewish president were to take office.

* There are claims that these people are really Jews, but I was not able to confirm it to my personal satisfaction with the amount of research that I conducted. I spent quite a few hours compiling the previous list. To my best knowledge, it is accurate. If there are any errors, it was not intentional on my part. As I noted earlier, unraveling the genealogical background of the rich and the elite is by no means an easy task, because some of them purposely endeavor to obfuscate their biological origin. For example, it is quite possible that some people who say they are German, may in reality be German-Jewish. Please also note that depending on when you actually read this series, the aforementioned people may or may not still occupy the listed positions.

Concerning Australian -- turned American -- noted media mogul Rupert Murdoch, while he professes to be Christian, online rumors claim that he is Jewish on his mother's side, because her maiden name is Elisabeth Joy Greene. Greene is currently known as Dame Elisabeth Murdoch. Greene is in fact an Irish name which points to Murdoch's Irish ancestry. It originates with various Irish surnames that are derived from the Irish "glas", which means gray, green or blue. However, at the same time, Greene is also an Americanized form of the German "Grüen" or the Yiddish "Grin", which are Ashkenazic ornamental names which also signify "green". So, being as I don't know for certain which is the truth, I have placed an asterisk next to Murdoch's name.

Just as wealthy Jewish families have long relied upon the practice of intermarriage in order to maintain power and control over their financial empires and assets, in similar fashion, these business conglomerates form companies within companies, which can make it very difficult and confusing to sort out for the average person. Their business associations are very convoluted and complex, which adds a thick layer of ambiguity to everything. Furthermore, as the previous list partially reveals, these powerful people have a propensity for circulating within these power groups, from one company to another. In fact, they often occupy different positions in different companies all at the same time.

It is also important to point out that some of these people are not religious Jews at all. They are very worldly, secular Jews who do not observe the practices of Judaism. Many are primarily motivated by their desire to earn a lot of money. Some of them even claim to be agnostics or atheists, such as Facebook's Mark Zuckerberg, who was raised in a strict Jewish home. In all fairness, it should also be mentioned that in a collective sense, some of the aforementioned Jews have given literally millions -- and possibly billions -- of dollars to charitable causes over the years. They have built hospitals and done many other admirable things as well which have won the accolades of the world.

However, we still need to recognize that regardless of how much these Jews donate to charities and other social causes, and perform other wonderful deeds for the sake of humanity, without accepting Christ, they are all still lost, they are all still ungodly, and they all still remain antichrist. What they do in the eyes of the world still amounts to empty works without Jesus Christ. I am reminded of what Jesus said to the "Lord, Lord" group who were touting their own righteousness and their own "wonderful works" in the following verses:

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Matthew 7:21-23, KJV

"And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?"

Luke 6:46, KJV

Please notice that Jesus is apparently referring to people who claim to be His followers; that is to say, Christians. After all, who else would do these things in His Name? The unbelieving Jews most certainly wouldn't. So, if some of the people who claim to be Christians are going to be cast out and rejected by the Lord, what does that say about the rest of the unbelieving world, such as the Jews? As the Apostle Peter wrote in his first Epistle:

"For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?"

1 Peter 4:17-18, KJV

Exactly what is the fault that Jesus finds with the "Lord, Lord" group? He plainly states that they "do not the things which I say". What is the most important thing that Jesus taught us that we must do? What is God the Father's highest Will for humanity? Jesus clearly tells us in the following set of verses:

"Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent . . . All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

John 6:29, 37-40, KJV

Clearly then, our Heavenly Father's highest Will is that we embrace Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, in order that we might obtain Everlasting Life. This is precisely what the unbelieving Jews refused to do. As the Apostle Paul informs us in his Epistle to the Romans, his unbelieving brethren proudly and boastfully went about trying to establish their own righteousness. Consider the following verses:

"Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God."

Romans 10:1-3, KJV

Exactly what does Paul mean by "the righteousness of God"? What is the righteousness which his unbelieving brethren have refused to submit themselves to? The answer becomes rather clear when we examine verses such as the following.

It is the righteousness which only comes through faith in Jesus Christ alone:

"And by him [Jesus] all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."

Acts 13:39, KJV

"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith."

Romans 3:20-27, KJV

"For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.) . . . That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord."

Romans 5:17, 21, KJV

"And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness."

Romans 8:10, KJV

"For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

Romans 10:4, KJV

"Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified . . . I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain."

Galatians 2:16, 21, KJV

"And be found in him [Jesus], not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:"

Philippians 3:9, KJV

In contrast to the truth which is revealed in the previous set of verses, these people who belong to the "Lord, Lord" group like to boast of their own wonderful works. They like to pat themselves on the back and basically say "Look how great I am, Lord! Look at what I have done for you!". Such people would be wise to consider what the following verses tell us regarding such empty works which are done without Christ. They are meaningless works of the flesh which save no one:

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

Ephesians 2:8-9, KJV

"Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;"

Titus 3:5, KJV

Continuing our discussion from part six, very similar to the Scribes and the Pharisees of old, there are some modern Jews who are also endeavoring to show the world what good people they are through their charitable deeds. That is to say, by their good works. However, whether they realize it or not, they are actually building on the wrong foundation. Because of their rejection of Jesus Christ, they are building their lives on a perishable foundation that consists of sand, wood, hay and stubble. They are not building on the one true rock, which is Jesus Christ. Consider the following verses. Please note that the first set of verses comes immediately after the verses where Jesus chides the disobedient "Lord, Lord" group:

"Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it."

Matthew 7:24-27, KJV

"For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire."

1 Corinthians 3:11-15, KJV

"Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;"

Ephesians 2:19-20, KJV

"Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,"

1 Peter 2:6-7, KJV

"This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner."

Acts 4:11, KJV

"And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ."

1 Corinthians 10:4, KJV

"Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? . . . And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them."

Matthew 21:42, 44-45, KJV

So as you can see, no matter how much we do in this life, if it is not done for Jesus Christ, it just empty, meaningless, self-righteous works which will eventually be burned away. We will be left with absolutely nothing. Sadly, this may be the fate of many of the Jews who I have mentioned in this series, and of many other people as well who erroneously believe that they are in good standing with God because of the things that they do.

My purpose in listing all of these people here is not to accuse them of being evil. After all, I do not know any of them personally. They are just names to me. My point is to simply show you in a clear way that, contrary to what some detractors may say, the Jews are in fact in control of key areas of American life. Furthermore, because of the control which they wield, they have the power to influence, mold and manipulate public opinion to their will. In particular, as a result of the strong Zionist influence in America, the Jews possess the power to affect American foreign policy, so that it is beneficial to the State of Israel. This same power is used to distort our world view in subtle ways, causing us to see everything through a Jewish lens. Let me remind you again of what former Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon said:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Every time we do something you tell me America will do this and will do that . . . I want to tell you something very clear: Don't worry about American pressure on Israel. We, the Jewish people, control America, and the Americans know it."

----- End Quote -----

While I could have provided much more real-world evidence to support the claims which I have made in this series, I hope that what I have shared with you is sufficient to convince some of you that regular Americans are no longer in control of the nation, and haven't been for a long time now. It is my opinion that everything is a show and a circus, that is meant to convey the illusion of freedom and democracy. People are made to believe that their votes count, when in reality, the results of the most important elections are not determined by the people, but rather by those individuals who possess the most money.

In fact, as we discovered earlier in this series, some of the most powerful people in the nation -- such as the Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Federal Reserve Bank -- are not even voted into office by the people. They are appointed by the President, and confirmed by the Senate, who themselves bow to the pressure of Jewish money. Let me remind you once again of what Mayer Amschel Rothschild allegedly said so long ago:

----- Begin Quote -----

"Give me control of a nation's money, and I care not who makes her laws."

----- End Quote -----

If you still remain unconvinced of the things which I have shared with you in this series, then I again invite you to conduct research of your own. Investigate further in order to satisfy your own curiosity. I am confident that you will discover that I have presented an accurate picture here to the best of my ability, in both a Biblical sense, as well as in a real-world sense.

With these thoughts, I will bring this article to a close. It is my hope that you've found it informative and enlightening, and I pray that it has been a blessing in your life as well.
